Night School Students Honored At Party

Mrs. Clyde Walker and Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, instructors of the adult night school at Elkin and Jenkinstown, assisted by Mrs. J. H. Beeson, chairman of the Department of Education of the Elkin Woman's Club, entertained the members of the night school at a delightful party at the local school building Thursday evening. Games and contests were enjoyed with an attractive prize going to Miss Hallie Waddell for her skill in the games. Favors were gaily colored Easter eggs.

On Friday morning Mesdames Whitaker and Walker were hostesses to the members of the Jenkinstown school at an Easter egg hunt. Members of the classes and their families were invited.

Easter Observed In Quiet Manner Here

Easter was observed quietly in Elkin and vicinity, Sunday being observed by attendance at church service and display of new spring finery.

A number of local people attended the sunrise services of the Home Moravian church at Winston-Salem.

Monday was a holiday for Elkin store employees, with the exception of drug stores and cafes. Perfect spring weather prevailed both Sunday and Monday.

S. P. U. Is Showing 1934 Kelvinators

The Southern Public Utilities company has started its annual Kelvinator promotional activity, and has on display in its showroom the latest in 1934 model Kelvinators.

The new models are said to be the acme of electrical refrigeration, possessing many new features, designed for convenience and proper safe guarding of foods.

Cool Springs News

Owing to bad weather, sickness, and especially an epidemic of measles, we haven't had very large crowds for a few weeks; however, Sunday saw some improvement with one hundred twenty-nine present. Many visitors came back to the old home church for the Easter service.

Four members of the Busy Bee class gave recitations; Supt. Newman's children sang a number, and three-year-old Raymond Pettyjohn recited an Easter Poem.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pettyjohn, Sr. and children, Raymond, Jr., and Joyce Ada, of Littleton, Penn., are spending the Easter holidays with relatives here. They were accompanied by Mr. Pettyjohn's brothers, Harvey and Arvil Pettyjohn.

Mrs. Sallie Bengé and family spent the week-end with Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Fields.

Of interest to friends here was the marriage of Miss Gwendolyn Harris to Mr. Boyd Linder, of Fieldale, Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. P. McCalfee, pastor of the First Baptist church, at his home in Martinsville Saturday morning. The young couple accompanied by the bride's cousin, Miss Conrad Calloway, of Fieldale, Mr. Clarence Calloway of Thurmond, arrived at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Harris Saturday afternoon to spend the week-end. They returned to Fieldale Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Darnell had as their Easter guests Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sizemore and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Nichols, all of Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Holbrook had as their guests Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Tucker, of Jonesville.

Miss Asper Holbrook, of Winston-Salem spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Holbrook.

FREES WOMAN, KILLS COPS

Two Fort Worth Tex., patrolmen—E. B. Wheeler and H. D. Murphy—were shot to death Sunday as they approached a motor car believed to have been occupied by Raymond Hamilton, escaped convict. Hamilton earlier had released Mrs. Cam Gunter, whom he kidnaped after a bank robbery at West, Tex., Saturday.

PRESIDENT LEADS SERVICES

President Roosevelt observed Easter Sunday in a unique service aboard the yacht Nourmahal on the high sea. The chaplain's flag was hoisted above the presidential ensignia while Mr. Roosevelt himself conducted the service under a blazing tropical sun. It was the first such service in the history of the nation.

FOUND DEAD

Wade H. King, 54, building manager and purchasing agent for the Wachovia Bank and Trust company, of Winston-Salem, was found dead Sunday in Dr. Phin Horton's office in the Wachovia building from asphyxiation. Investigating officers said it was a case of suicide.

Last Tax Round!

BEFORE ADVERTISING IN MAY

For 1933 Taxes

SALE 1ST MONDAY IN JUNE UNDER N. C. LAW

This will absolutely be my last round for 1933 taxes before they are advertised in May. The Sale will be on the first Monday in June. I urge all who have not paid their 1933 tax to meet me at the times and places listed below and make immediate settlement, and save the additional cost. My deputies have in their hands for the various townships the unpaid poll and personal property tickets for the years 1930-31 and 32. They will be with me on this round and you are asked to meet us and pay this tax, if such is due by you. By doing so you will save the expense of having your wages and personal property levied against.
