

SOCIETY.

Sunshine Philathea Class Meets Friday

The Sunshine Philathea Class of the Elkin Valley Baptist church met at the home of Miss Louise Tulbert Friday evening with Miss Stella Calloway associate hostess. The meeting opened with a hymn, followed by a devotional period. The program was under the direction of Misses Lula Johnson and Marybelle Davis.

During a pleasant social hour a tempting refreshment course was served the sixteen members present.

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell Entertain Club at Dinner

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell entertained the members of the Fortnightly Bridge Club and three additional guests at their home on West Main street Monday evening at a delightful bridge-dinner. Upon the arrival of the guests a tempting course dinner was served and during the evening bridge was played. Mrs. C. H. Brewer won the high score.

award at the conclusion of the play. Guests in addition to the club members were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Griffith and Miss Olivia Abernethy, of Hickory, who is the guest of her sister Mrs. Walter R. Schaff.

Rose Marlowe Circle Meets With Mrs. M. A. Holcomb

The Rose Marlowe circle of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Jonesville Baptist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. M. A. Holcomb, in Jonesville. Mrs. Holcomb, president of the circle, presided over the meeting. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. F. A. Lineberry. Mrs. W. V. Holcomb conducted an inspiring program, using as a topic, "Youth of Our Land". She was assisted by Mrs. Hugh Holcomb, Miss Bertha Adams, Mrs. G. S. Wagoner, Mrs. D. R. Castevens and Mrs. F. A. Lineberry.

During a pleasant social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Poindexter Honors Guest at Bridge-Supper

Complimenting her house guest, Mrs. Walter B. Williams, of Winston-Salem, Mrs. James Poindexter entertained at a bridge-supper at her home on Bridge street Thursday evening. Upon the arrival of the guests a buffet supper was served. The dining room was effectively decorated in roses and tall candles. In the living room and sun room mountain laurel made an attractive setting for the four tables, which were placed for bridge.

Mrs. Eugene Spainhour won the ladies' high score award at the conclusion of the play and the gentlemen's high score prize fell to Ruohs Pyron. Mrs. Williams was given a lovely remembrance as guest of honor.

Informal Tea Honors Bride-Elect

Complimenting Miss Dorothy Patricia Miller, whose marriage to Thomas English Ring on Saturday, was the inspiration for a number of social activities during last week, Miss Sarah Click entertained at an informal tea at her home on Circle Court Wednesday afternoon at 4:30. The living room and dining room of the home were charmingly decorated with a profusion of summer flowers.

Sandwiches, tea and decorated individual cakes were served to twelve guests. Miss Miller, the honor guest and Mesdames Hugh Parks and Harry H. Barker, Jr., recent brides, were given attractive gifts.

Out-of-town guests were Miss Elizabeth Motsinger, of Winston-Salem and Mrs. John W. Reich, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Gwyn Entertains at Morning Bridge and Luncheon

Honoring Mrs. Walter B. Williams, of Winston-Salem, who was the guest last week of Mrs. James Poindexter, Mrs. Paul Gwyn entertained at a delightful morning bridge and luncheon Friday at her home on Gwyn Avenue.

Lovely garden flowers were used as a centerpiece for the luncheon table, where covers were placed for eight, and in the living room.

In the bridge competition Mrs. Albert Bryan scored highest and was given an attractive prize. Mrs. Williams was given a guest of honor gift.

Those enjoying Mrs. Gwyn's hospitality were: Mesdames Williams, Poindexter, Albert Bryan, Marion Allen, Raymond Chatham, R. G. Smith, Alex Chatham and Eugene Spainhour.

Mrs. Chatham Entertains at Bridge

Complimenting Mrs. Hugh Parks, a recent bride, Miss Dorothy Patricia Miller, bride-elect of last Saturday, and Mrs. John W. Reich, of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Richard Chatham entertained at a charming bridge party at her home on East Main street Friday afternoon. Gorgeous summer flowers made a pretty background for the four tables, which were placed for the games. Mrs. Edwin Harris scored highest in the progressions and was given an attractive prize. The honor guests were all presented with bridge sets.

When the cards were removed a beautifully appointed collation was served. Additional guests coming in for tea were Misses Margaret, Thorburn and Carolyn Lillard, Susan Biggs and Bessie Lee Wellborn and Mrs. Harry H. Barker, Jr.

Bride-Elect Honored at Luncheon

A pretty courtesy to Miss Dorothy Patricia Miller, bride-elect of last Saturday, was the luncheon-bridge given by Mrs. R. B. Harrell, at her home on West Main street Wednesday of last week. Bridal place cards marked the places of the guests at the three small tables. A beautifully-appointed luncheon was served and with the dessert course a decorated wedding cake was sliced and served. The cake was adorned with a miniature bride, dressed in white satin, with a long train of tulle, which was supported by six miniature bridesmaids, dressed in pastel shades. Graceful white candles in silver candelabra and orange blossoms were used further in the decorations.

In the bridge games Miss Norma Cawthon received the high score award and Mrs. Alden Hunt received the high score award in hearts. Mrs. Harrell's gift to the honoree was a beautiful handpainted tray.

Methodist Circles Meet Friday Afternoon

The circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met Friday afternoon in the following homes:

Circle No. 1 met at the home of Mrs. Grady Cockerham on West Main street, with Mrs. Carl Boyles associate hostess, with 14 members present. Mrs. H. P. Graham conducted the devotionals and Mrs. G. T. Roth conducted the Bible study.

Circle No. 2 met at the home of Mrs. Marion Allen on Church street with eleven members present. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. J. G. Abernethy and the Bible study was in charge of Mrs. J. S. Atkinson, assisted by Miss Bettie Allen.

Circle No. 3 met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Lillard on Gwyn Avenue with sixteen members present. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. A. L. Griffith and Mrs. R. G. Smith conducted the Bible study.

During a pleasant social hour at the conclusion of the program, each hostess served a tempting refreshment course.

Wedding Party Entertained at Cake Cutting Followed by Dance

Following the Miller-Ring rehearsal Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McNeer entertained the members of the wedding party and several additional guests at their home on Church street at a cake-cutting. The handsome three-tier wedding cake, was sliced and served with moulded ices.

Following this Miss Edith Neaves entertained at a dance at her home on Bridge street. Several additional guests were invited, the guest list totaling about seventy. The lower floor of the Neaves home was thrown ensuite and decorated with masses of roses. Punch and wafers were served during intermission. The hostess presented Mrs. Hugh Parks, a recent bride, and Miss Miller with handsome blankets as souvenirs of the delightful occasion.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. John W. Reich, Washington, D. C.; Miss Olivia Abernethy, Hickory; Miss Elizabeth Motsinger, Winston-Salem; Miss Anna Halsey, Mouth-of-Wilson, Va.; Lowell Smithey, Gwyn Gambill and Russell Barr, West Jefferson; Frank Halsey and Woodrow Osborne, Independence, Va.; Dave Wellborn, Albert Brockett, William Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. George Erwin and Mrs. Bill Smith, of High Point.

Bride and Bride-Elect Feted at Luncheon By Miss Susan Biggs

Complimenting Mrs. Hugh Parks, a recent bride, and Miss Virginia Miller, whose wedding to Thomas Ring was solemnized Saturday evening, Miss Susan Biggs entertained at a lovely luncheon at her home on Church street Friday at 12:30 o'clock. The luncheon table was covered with a handmade lace cloth and centered with a pink crystal bowl, filled with pink primroses and baby's breath. The luncheon service was entirely of pink crystal. The main table was augmented with two card tables, placed on either side. The same decorations were used for these. A three-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Parks and Miss Miller were presented with pieces of hand embroidered linen as guests of honor, and Mrs. Charles Calhoun, a bride of the early spring, was given a similar gift.

Guests were Mrs. Parks, Miss Miller, Mrs. Charles Calhoun, Miss Sarah Click, Misses Margaret and Carolyn Lillard, Mrs. Thomas Roth, Miss Norma Cawthon, Miss Josephine Paul, Miss Mary Hendren, Miss Edith Neaves, Mrs. Edwin Harris, Mrs. Clyde Eller, Mrs. John W. Reich of Washington, D. C., and Miss Elizabeth Motsinger of Winston-Salem.

SINCLAIR P.D. KILLS
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.
FLIES-MOSQUITOES
MOTHS-ROACHES
BEDBUGS-FLEAS
ANTS-ONATS-ETC.

Agent Sinclair Refining Company (Inc.)

H. P. GRAHAM

HOW OLD IS HE?
—The Fly

Drive into our station and ask for an interesting booklet on "Sure Death", not only to the fly, but other pests as well. An agreeable surprise awaits you.

SINCLAIR SERVICE STATION

E. Main St., Below New Bridge Elkin, N. C.

Dispensing:

99 million foot pounds Per Gallon H. C.

Gasoline, Sinclair, Pennsylvania and Opaline Motor Oil in tamper-proof cans. The correct oil and lubricants for your car as recommended by the Sinclair Law of Lubrication.

Goodrich Silvertown Cavalier and Commander Tires
A Liberal Trade Allowance For Your Old Tires

STOP AT THE FRIENDLY STATION

Take No Chances!

Protect your valuable from theft and fire by renting a Safe Deposit Box.

It's valuable safety insurance for only

$2.00 Per Year

The Bank of Elkin

R. C. Lewellyn
President

Garland Johnson
Cashier

CHEVROLET Prices Reduced

Due to the fact the Chevrolet Motor Co. has already built a half-million automobiles during the past five months, prices have been reduced as follows:

Master Models REDUCED $35
Standard Models REDUCED $25
Trucks - - REDUCED $50

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS OPPORTUNITY

NOW!

PRICES SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE!

F-W Chevrolet Company

ELKIN, N. C.

THE MODERN HOUSEWIFE DEPENDS ON ELECTRICITY TO LIGHTEN WORK IN THE HOME!

... It Does So Much And Costs So Little!

The modern housewife no longer spends her entire day at household drudgery because Electricity has lightened her burden. She has more leisure time for recreation and social duties because she relies on Electricity, the modern servant. Not only are the household duties minimized, but they are more efficiently done.

ELECTRICITY WILL DO YOUR WORK

- LIGHTING
- COOKING
- SWEEPING
- REFRIGERATION
- HEATING
- WASHING
- COOLING
- IRONING

And untold other duties more efficiently and quickly . . . and the cost is very insignificant. Now is a good time to check up over your home and see that you have all the modern electrical appliances and be in a position to get the greatest benefit from Electricity.

Southern Public Utilities Company

ELKIN, N. C.