Intermediate B. Y. P. U. Has Lawn Party

Members of the Intermediate B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church were entertained at a delightful lawn party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Harris Friday evening, by their teachers, Misses Louise Transou and Effie Crater. Outdoor games were enjoyed and late in the evening an ice course was served. About thirty guests were present.

Sunday School Classes Have Picnic At Crystal Springs

The Sunshine Philathea Class and the Young Men's Baraca Class of the Elkin Valley church, accompanied by their respective teachers, Mrs. E. G. Jordan and Raymond Collins, motored to Crystal Springs, near Roaring Gap, Sunday morning, where they held the regular classes. Later a delightful picnic dinner was served and the afternoon was spent hunting chinquapins.

Nan Johnson Celebrates Eleventh Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. M. A. Biggs entertained the members of the newly organized Girl Scout Troop at a picnic supper and werner roast on Brushy Mountain Monday evening in celebration of the eleventh birthday anniversary of her little niece, Nan Johnson.

Those enjoying the event were Peggy Royall, Mary Elizabeth Allen, Lena Sale, Sarah Ratledge, Louise Laffoon, Dorothy Harrell, Saralee Griffith, Constance Greenwood and the honoree.

Mason Lillard Bible Class Meets Monday Evening

The Mason Lillard Bible Class of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Alden Hunt on Vine street Monday evening in a most interesting meeting. During the business hour plans were made for the annual chicken-stew for members of the class and their families, which will be held at an early date.

The program featured an address by Mrs. C. James and a vocal solo by Mrs. Fletcher Harris.

During a pleasant social hour the hostess served a tempting refreshment course.

Hospital Auxiliary Meets Monday

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital met in semi-annual session in the city school library Monday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. Albert Bryan, presiding. Reports from various committees featured the business session. Interesting data, compiled by Mrs. R. G. Smith and Mrs. H. L. Johnson of the work done in thirty-one counties by the local hospital, was presented in an illustrated drawing by Mrs. Smith.

Mission Study to Be Held Monday and Tuesday at Methodist Church

The Mission Study of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Methodist church will be conducted at the church on Monday and Tuesday, October 1st and 2nd, at 3:30 in the afternoon. The text, "Suzuki Looks At Japan," for the fall study was written by one who has lived and worked in Japan and will be taught by Dr. R. E. McAlpin, a missionary who lived in Japan for forty years. This will be a most timely and illuminating study and the auxiliary cordially invites all of the missionary groups in Elkin to join with them in these studies on Monday and Tuesday of next week.

Mrs. Walters Honored On Natal Day

A pretty compliment to Mrs. Bessie K. Walters, of LaGrange, who is a guest in the home of Van W. Dillon, on West Main street, was the card party given in her honor Monday evening. No prizes were awarded for scores, but Mrs. Walters was remembered with lovely gifts of linen handkerchiefs as guest of honor.

When the cards were removed a beautifully decorated birthday cake was sliced and served with ices.

Guests were Mesdames L. I. Wade, E. A. Harris, H. F. Laffoon, T. A. Leeper, Fred McNeely, Mary Laster, Mrs. Walters, the honor guest, and Miss Mattie Mae Powell.

Little Miss Anne Ipoek Honored On Eighth Birthday

Mrs. J. P. Ipoek entertained at a delightful children's party at her home on Bridge street Tuesday afternoon, honoring her daughter, Anne, on her eighth birthday anniversary. Thirty little girls of a similar age were invited to share the afternoon with the honor guest. Outdoor and indoor games were enjoyed, with an attractive prize going to Mary Ellen Harrell at the conclusion of the play.

In the dining room an effective birthday setting was arranged with an artistic color scheme of pink and white. Cake and ices were served and each guest was presented with a balloon as a souvenir of the delightful occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer Entertain Bridge Club at Dinner Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brewer were hosts to the members of the Fortnightly Bridge Club and sufficient guests to complete three tables at a delightful dinner at Hotel Elkin Thursday evening. Dinner was served in the Kiwanis room at the hotel upon the arrival of the guests at seven o'clock. Later bridge was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen received the club award for high score at the conclusion of the play.

Those making up the tables were Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Schaff, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell, Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Calhoun, Mrs. C. G. Armfield and Mr. and Mrs. Brewer.

Kingdom Builders Sunday School Class Enjoys Picnic

The Kingdom Builders class of the Jonesville Baptist church, composed of young adult members of the Sunday school, enjoyed a delightful picnic at Benton Springs Friday evening.

Outdoor games were enjoyed, after which a bountiful supper was served, part of which was prepared over the camp fire. Following the supper a business meeting of the class was held. Fred Lineberry was reelected as teacher of the class and the following officers were elected: President, D. R. Castevens; vice-president, Don Gilliam, and secretary-treasurer, Marvin Holcomb.

Thirty members of the class attended the meeting.

Miss Greenwood Is Hostess To Two-Four Bridge Club

Miss Maude Greenwood delightfully entertained the members of the Two-Four Bridge Club and sufficient guests to complete two tables at a one o'clock luncheon at her home on Bridge street Thursday. Lovely autumn flowers were used throughout the reception rooms.

Following the luncheon bridge was enjoyed. Mrs. James Poindexter received the club award at the conclusion of the play and the visitor's prize fell to Mrs. Errol Hayes.

Those making up the tables were the following members: Mesdames James Poindexter, Albert Bryan, E. S. Spainhour, Paul Gwyn and Harry L. Johnson. Additional guests were Mesdames H. T. Hambright and Errol Hayes.

Mrs. Darnell Is Club Hostess Friday Evening

The members of the Friday Book Club were entertained at a most enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. J. W. Darnell on Gwyn Avenue Friday evening. A profusion of beautiful autumn flowers were used in the decorations of the home. Table games were enjoyed during the evening with the high score award going to Mrs. J. W. Mathis and the consolation prize to Mrs. H. F. Laffoon. Miss Barbara Weir, who left Wednesday for Fairmont to resume her place on the school faculty, was given a lovely remembrance.

A salad course, followed by a sweet course, was served at the conclusion of the play.

Club members present were Mesdames H. F. Laffoon, L. I. Wade, W. C. Cox, T. A. Leeper, Knox McKee, J. A. Carpenter, E. A. Harris, H. B. Holcomb and Miss Mattie Mae Powell. Additional guests were Mrs. J. W. Mathis and Miss Barbara Weir.

Methodist W. M. U. Meets Friday

The group meeting of the circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met in the regular business session at the church Friday afternoon with a good attendance. Mrs. Mason Lillard, president of the society, presided over the meeting. During the business hour the quarterly reports from the various officers were heard. It was decided to change the monthly meetings from Friday afternoon to Monday afternoon, also to hold a mission study class on Monday and Tuesday of next week.

The program for the afternoon was under the direction of Mrs. George Royall, program chairman, on "Women of the Bible." Mrs. Royall was assisted by Mesdames A. M. Smith, H. L. Johnson, Errol Hayes, R. C. Freeman, J. G. Abernethy and H. P. Graham. A vocal solo, "Have Thine Own Way, Lord," by Mrs. George H. Wilson, concluded the program.

Mrs. Boyles Is Honored at Afternoon Party By Mesdames James and Whitaker

One of the most charming parties of the week was the afternoon bridge given by Mrs. Robert James of this city, and Mrs. Lorene Snow Whitaker, of Washington, D. C., at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Q. Snow, on Circle Court, Tuesday afternoon, to compliment Mrs. Max Boyles, who prior to her recent marriage was Miss Kathleen Bailey of this city. In the bridge competition, Mrs. R. B. Harrell received a "double-deck" of cards for the highest score. Mrs. Boyles was presented lovely linens as guest-of-honor. Mrs. Paul Price and Mrs. Hugh Parks, recent brides, Miss Ola Church, bride-elect of next month and Mrs. Bernard Hall of Washington, D. C., a recent bride and a visitor in town, were each presented attractive remembrances.

At the conclusion of the play a prettily appointed collation in two courses was served the following guests: Mesdames Boyles, Price, Parks and Hall, Miss Church, Mrs. R. B. Harrell, Mrs. Carl Poindexter, Miss Josephine Paul, Miss Sara McCracken, Mrs. Edwin Harris, Mrs. Ruth Byrd Crater, Mrs. Clyde Eller, Miss Janie Hall, Mrs. Alden Hunt and Miss Edith Neaves.

Jonathan Hunt Chapter D. A. R. Meets at West Jefferson With Miss Nancy Ruth Reeves

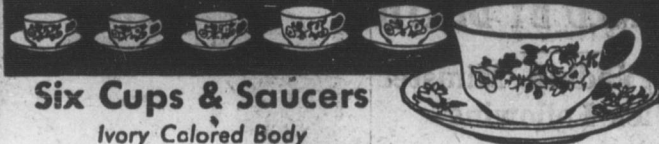

The Jonathan Hunt Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, of this city, together with several additional guests, were guests of Miss Nancy Ruth Reeves at a delightful meeting at her home at West Jefferson Thursday. Mrs. J. C. Kelly was associate hostess with Miss Reeves. The guests were invited for luncheon, which was served from small tables in the living rooms and dining room at one o'clock. Gorgeous dahlias in lovely autumn colors were used throughout the home in an artistic decorative scheme.

At the conclusion of the luncheon an interesting program on "Constitution Day," was presented by Mrs. Joe Bivins, regent of the chapter. Mrs. Bivins introduced the subject in an interesting and informative paper and Miss Sadie Franklin continued with the feature paper "The Spirit of the Constitution". In conclusion Miss Nancy Ruth Reeves read a message from Mrs. Russell Magna, president general of the National D. A. R.

Those enjoying the delightful hospitality of the hostesses were Mrs. H. T. Brown, Mrs. Herbert H. Stevens, Mrs. Joe Bivins, Mrs. Eugene Sparger, Mrs. Richard Chatham, Mrs. W. R. Wellborn and Miss Sadie Franklin, of this city; Mrs. W. R. Absher and Mrs. Claude Doughton, of North Wilkesboro; Mrs. Tam Bowie, Mrs. Kimmons, Mrs. Marr, Mrs. Gambill, Mrs. C. A. Reeves and Mrs. Catherine Reeves Duncan, of West Jefferson.
