TOWN IS GRIEVED BY THE DEATH OF MRS. WHISENHUNT

Wife of Pastor of Elkin Baptist Church Passes Friday

LAST RITES SUNDAY

Attended by the greatest throng of people ever to assemble here for such an occasion, solemn funeral rites were held Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the First Baptist church for Mrs. Edith Adair Whisenhunt, 38, wife of Rev. Eph Whisenhunt, pastor of the church, who died in a Winston-Salem hospital late Friday evening. The service was in charge of Dr. John R. Jester, pastor of the First Baptist church, of Winston-Salem, the hymns and scripture lesson conforming exactly to the requests of the deceased. Dr. Jester was assisted in the service by Rev. C. N. Royall, who read the Old Testament lesson; Rev. E. W. Fox, of the Elkin Methodist church, who read the New Testament lesson, and Rev. R. C. Smith, of Erwin, who offered prayer.

Mrs. Whisenhunt was a member of one of the most prominent families of Georgia, and was a woman of broad culture and attainments. She was graduated from Lucy Cobb Institute and Bernau college, Georgia, and the Baptist W. M. U. training school at Louisville, Kentucky. She was a talented pianist and violinist and organized the local church orchestra, and gave much time and effort to training the young members of the church choir. She was known throughout the nation as a writer of church pageants and was a guiding hand in the missionary organizations and the children's department of the Sunday school.

Her deepest interest was in foreign mission work and immediately

TWO ARE INJURED IN SUNDAY WRECK

Miss Hurt Sustains Badly Injured Hand When Car Overtakes

As the result of an automobile accident Sunday on the Boonville road, about four miles east of Elkin, Hilda Hurt, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Hurt, is in Hugh Chatham hospital suffering a badly injured hand, and Mrs. John Dixon, elderly Piney Creek woman, is also in the hospital with a dislocated shoulder, and bruises.

The accident occurred about 4:30 in the afternoon. It was said that the light coupe which Miss Hurt was driving, sideswiped the machine in which Mrs. Dixon was a passenger, causing it to turn over against the bank of the road. The other car was then said to have turned over after traveling a short distance further on.

Dorothy Chappell, of Elkin, who was in the car driven by Miss Hurt, was uninjured. John Dixon, husband of Mrs. Dixon, who was driving the car, was also uninjured.

Miss Hurt, according to hospital attaches, sustained a badly lacerated hand, the little finger being almost torn off and lacerations of the arm. The injured were brought to the hospital by Alex Biggs, of this city, who was the first person to arrive at the scene of the wreck.

Union Service Held At Presbyterian Church

At the union service held at the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, Rev. E. W. Fox, pastor of the First Methodist church, and Rev. Eph Whisenhunt, pastor of the First Baptist church, spoke words of welcome to Rev. Pat Boyle, newly elected pastor of the church. Rev. Mr. Boyle delivered an inspiring sermon.

Rev. A. C. Gibbs To Preach Here Sunday

Rev. A. C. Gibbs, presiding elder of the Mount Airy district, will fill the pulpit at the Methodist church in this city Sunday evening. Following the sermon the fourth quarterly conference will be held, which is the final business meeting of the conference year. The public is invited to attend.

Passes Away

Mrs. Edith Adair Whisenhunt, wife of Rev. Eph Whisenhunt, pastor of the First Baptist church here, whose death in a Winston-Salem hospital late Friday night has brought sorrow to the entire community.

LATE NEWS from the State and Nation

KING IS ASSASSINATED

Marseille, Oct. 9.—King Alexander, of Yugoslavia, and Louis Barthou, foreign minister of France, were assassinated by a Yugoslavian gunman this afternoon as they motored through the beflagged streets of Marseille a few minutes after the Yugoslavian monarch had stepped on French soil for a state visit.

The assassin was a 35-year-old native of Zagreb, Petrus Kalemank, who was armed with two pistols of German make and a small bomb. Kalemank fatally wounded three men and shot 11 others, including seven women before he was himself mortally wounded by police. He never had a chance to use the bomb.

CONFUSION GRIPS GOVERNMENT

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Oct. 9.—Stultifying confusion gripped government offices when the news of the king's assassination reached here today. It was impossible to obtain a clear picture of prospects for the immediate future, but there was no disorder.

Despite the fact that he is only 11 years old, Crown Prince Peter, now in London, will be proclaimed King of Yugoslavia to succeed his father, it became known officially tonight.

LARGE SUM ADDED TO GROWERS' INCOME

Washington, Oct. 9.—A total of $294,809,568 has been added to farm income in 1933 and 1934 in rental and benefit payments disbursed up to September 1, to farmers co-operating in the adjustment programs for wheat, cotton, tobacco, corn and hogs, according to the monthly report issued today by the comptroller of the Agricultural Adjustment administration.

Of this amount North Carolina farmers received $10,337,038.81. Tobacco growers have been paid the largest amount, $5,432,411.56 while cotton growers have drawn in rental and benefit payments $4,845,057.93.

CARDINALS WIN WORLD SERIES

Detroit, Oct. 9.—Completing the spectacular saga of the Deans with a history-making climax, the great Jerome Herman (Dizzy) Dean pitched St. Louis to the baseball championship of the world today with a record shut-out triumph, 11 to 0, as the Cardinal clouting crew slaughtered the pitching staff of the Detroit Tigers in as wild and riotous a finish as any world series has ever witnessed.

RICHBERG SCORES CRITICS

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Donald R. Richberg, director of the industrial emergency committee, today charged that the "political partisan" who advocated both adequate unemployment relief and a balanced budget was "trying" to make a fool out of his government.

ELKIN BOYS ARE GIVEN 8 TO 12 YEARS IN PRISON

Hasting Eldridge And Russell Hampton Tried Monday

ROBBERY CHARGE

Tried in Forsyth county superior court Monday on a charge of robbery with firearms and assault with a deadly weapon, Hasting Eldridge and Russell Hampton, both of Elkin, were sentenced by Judge Frank S. Hill to serve from eight to 12 years in state's prison.

The two were alleged to have held up a filling station operated by H. J. Dixon on the night of August 25, and to have stolen property valued at $60, including a radio, cigarettes and about $20 in cash.

On the charge of assault with a deadly weapon, the two young men were given sentences of 12 months to run concurrently with the robbery sentence.

MEDICAL SOCIETY TO MEET TUESDAY

Many Doctors To Be Here For Annual Meeting

The eighth district medical society will meet at Hotel Elkin Tuesday of next week in annual session. The meeting will convene at 2:30 o'clock and dinner will be served by the hotel management at 6:30. Dr. M. A. Royall, of this city, is president of the society; Dr. Hugh Parks, Elkin, vice-president; Dr. Fred K. Hubbard, North Wilkesboro, secretary-treasurer, and Dr. T. C. Redfern, Winston-Salem, district councillor.

Among the prominent doctors in the state who will attend are: Dr. J. T. Eurus, High Point; Dr. G. C. Cooke, Winston-Salem; Dr. Kenneth B. Geddie and Dr. Harry Brockman, High Point; Dr. F. E. Motley, Charlotte; Dr. Fred K. Garvey, Winston-Salem, and Dr. J. H. McNeill, of North Wilkesboro, all of whom will present papers at the meeting, as will Dr. Harry L. Johnson of the Hugh Chatham Memorial hospital in this city.

Rev. E. W. Fox, pastor of the Methodist church will offer the invocation and Attorney E. C. James will make the address of welcome in behalf of the city.

Informal entertainment for the wives of the doctors has been planned for the afternoon.

N. C. BANKS SUPPORT GOV'T. FINANCING

Bankers Appear Worried About President's Statement

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 9.—As evidence of the fact that the banks of North Carolina and of the nation are co-operating in government financing, it was pointed out that the banks in this State have invested approximately one-third of their deposits in United States and North Carolina bonds and notes, and that the American banks are carrying 51 per cent of the United States government debt, in a statement issued today by Millard F. Jones, President of the North Carolina Bankers association.

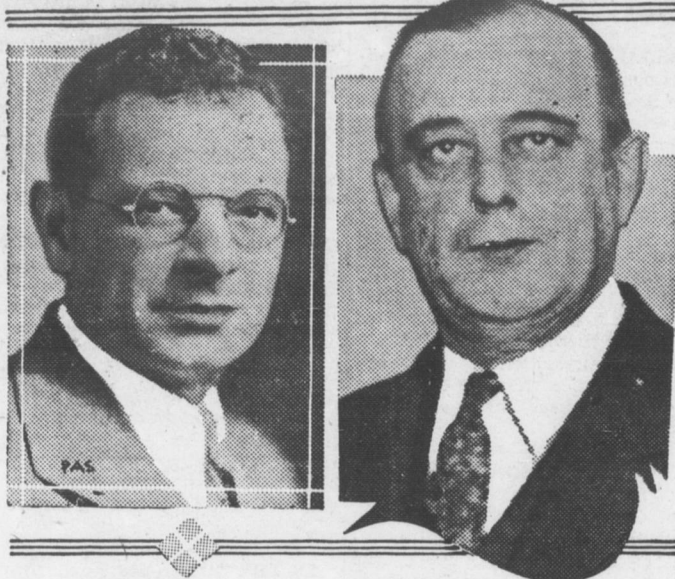

"In his recent radio address to the country," Mr. Jones states, "Mr. Roosevelt referred to the successful British refunding program of 1933 and made the statement, 'and let it be recorded that the British bankers helped'. Some have interpreted this statement by the President as

Exhibits In Elkin Fair Must Be In Afternoon Oct. 18

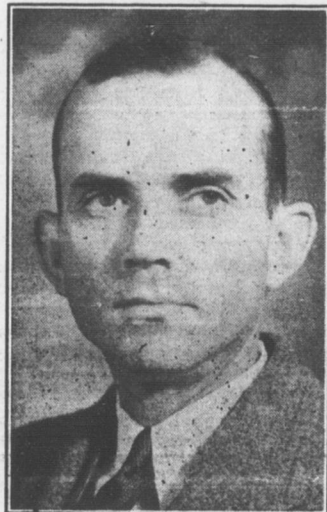

All exhibits in every department of the Elkin Fair, which will be held here October 18 and 19, must be in the exhibit hall at McNeer's Warehouse by 3 o'clock on the afternoon of October 18 in order to be judged as soon as possible, Miss Edith Neaves, secretary, announced Saturday.

Big Two of New NRA Chieftains

WASHINGTON . . . The appointment of these two men by President Roosevelt, to the board of five which make up the New National Industry Recovery Board, is being acclaimed with great favor. They are: (left), Sidney Hillman, President of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, and (right), S. Clay Williams, former president of the Reynolds Tobacco Co. Both rate high in intelligent and progressive business ranks. The board will take over General Johnson's administrative duties, October 15.

Candidate

Henry Dobson, of Elkin, who has been nominated by Surry county Democrats to represent the county in the next general assembly at Raleigh.

CHANGE IS MADE IN LIST OF PREMIUMS

Cash Prizes Are To Be Given In Several Departments

Several changes have been made in the premium list of the Elkin Fair, which will be held in McNeer's warehouse here Thursday night, October 18, and Friday and Friday night, October 19, it was learned from Miss Edith Neaves, secretary, Saturday.

The changes are as follows: For the best luncheon set, listed in the premium list as No. 36, the first prize will be a $5.00 permanent wave instead of the $2.00 in merchandise listed in the catalog. No. 40—best home-made rug, will also win a $5.00 permanent instead of the $2.00 listed in the catalog.

No. 41—best piece of needlework by woman over 80 years of age will win as first prize $2.00 in merchandise instead of the Chatham blanket listed. A similar prize will be awarded for the best afghan.

No. 80—best collection of cut flowers will win a Chatham blanket instead of the $5.00 permanent listed in the premium list, as will the best display of dahlias.

A number of cash prizes will be given during the fair, these going to the winners in the horn blowing contest, the singing convention, and the old-time fiddlers' convention.

Cash prizes for the winners in the singing convention, which will be held Friday night, October 19th, at 8 o'clock, will be as follows: first prize $7.50; second prize $5.00 and third prize $2.50.

STATESVILLE STORE ROBBED

The safe in Fraley's grocery store, Statesville, was broken into Saturday night and cash amounting to approximately $1,000 was taken. It was apparently the work of experts. Three holes were electrically driven in the door of the big three-ton safe, enabling the veggs to break the combination lock.

WORK ON ATHLETIC FIELD IS EXPECTED TO START FRIDAY

Project Is Approved By FERA; Will Take About $5,000

PARK IS PLANNED

The local school athletic field project already approved by the FERA, funds for its construction are expected to be available by Friday, it was learned late Wednesday afternoon from Charlie Brewer, who, among other public spirited citizens, has been active in getting the project okayed.

The athletic field will necessitate between $4,000 and $5,000 which will be advanced by the FERA, and the greater majority of which will go for labor.

It is the plan of those sponsoring the project to grade out a field which will be adequate for both a football gridiron and a baseball field. Bleachers will be constructed, and nearby a small public park is expected to be located.

The site of the project borders Big Elkin creek, on the west side. Work will probably be started Friday.

HILARY SPANN IS SENT TO THE ROADS

Arthur Wright Cleared In Surry Court Of Murder Charge

A number of cases, featuring murder, liquor law violations and assault have been disposed of in Surry superior court during the past several days. One divorce action has been heard.

Hilary Spann, of Elkin, charged with forcible trespass and assault, was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $50 and the costs. Unable to comply, he was sentenced to 30 days on the county roads.

Arthur Wright, of the Piney Ridge section of Surry, charged with the murder several months ago of Amos Potts, a neighbor, was found not guilty when it was shown he acted in self defense.

Cecil and Woodrow Angel, charged with the larceny of an automobile, were found guilty. Cecil Angel was given 18 months on the roads while Woodrow was given a suspended sentence of six months.

A recommendation that the county home and the jail be repaired,

BIG DANCE IS TO CLIMAX ELKIN FAIR

Will Be Staged In Hotel Elkin Ball Room Night Of October 19th

As a grand climax of the Elkin Fair, which will be staged here next week on Thursday and Friday night, the Elkin Merchants association has announced a big dance which will be held in the ball room of Hotel Elkin the last night of the fair.

Jinks Moser and his High Jinx Band, an excellent orchestra of Winston-Salem, will be on hand to furnish the music.

The dance is scheduled to get under way at 10 p. m. and continue until 2:00 a. m. Saturday morning. Everyone is invited to attend.

DOBSON SHOULD MAKE GOOD MAN

Expected To Make Able Successor To Cape Haynes

In selecting Henry C. Dobson, of Elkin, as their candidate for the House of Representatives at Raleigh for the next two years the Democrats of Surry have chosen an able successor to that very capable "Cape" Haynes, who has been the popular representative for the past few years.

Mr. Dobson is a native of Surry county, having been born near Rockford, a son of the late John H. Dobson and Mrs. Alice Corneliuss Dobson. He grew to young manhood surrounded by the problems and difficulties of the farmer, and with the training and ability to overcome them.

Mr. Dobson's father, in addition to being a dirt farmer, was a lawyer and a legislator of exceptional ability, and Henry inherited both the agricultural and legislative genius of the elder Dobson.

About twelve years ago Mr. Dobson became connected with the Chatham Manufacturing company at the Elkin plant, and by honest, energetic and intelligent effort has

TO ORGANIZE AND SURVEY EDUCATION

Teachers Organizing Classes Thruout County For Adults

Organized as a unit through the FERA, and under the supervision of Superintendent of Education John W. Comer, of Dobson, a group of teachers began work in Surry county October 1 in an attempt to organize and survey adult education in this county. Classes are being organized in Elkin, Mount Airy, Lowgap, Dobson and other points.

The main objective of this program is to reach the great mass of people who have not had the advantage of an education, and to

Report Submitted By Local Hospital

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of Hugh Chatham Memorial hospital at a luncheon at Hotel Elkin Tuesday, the following report was submitted for the approval of the board to be presented at the Western North Carolina conference in Greensboro the 24th of October. The report is from October, 1933, to October, 1934, which is the conference year; 943 patients were admitted to the hospital during the year, with a total of 7,947 days of care. Of this number 2,944 were full pay days; 2,987 part pay days; 2,016 free days, and 1,793 were free days of part pay patients, making a total of 3,809 free days of care during the past year. There were 217 major operations performed during the year and 375 minor operations.

Father Seriously Wounds Son With Butcher Knife

Burr Spicer, young married man of near Traphill, is in Hugh Chatham Memorial hospital with a badly slashed back as the result of an altercation between himself and his father, Joe Spicer, who is alleged to have cut the young man with a butcher knife. Young Spicer was brought to the hospital Sunday evening. His wound was said to have been six inches long and very deep; although no vital organ was reached by the knife. His condition was described as serious, but barring infection he should recover.

The elder Spicer was alleged to have inflicted the cut upon his son while in a drunken condition.
