

THE ELKIN TRIBUNE

18 PAGES
TWO SECTIONS

VOL. No. XXIV, No. 4

ELKIN, N. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1934

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

BIG 300,000 EXTRA VOTE OFFER ENDS SATURDAY

Biggest Extra Vote Period In Campaign Ends December 8th

"Live Wire" Candidates Are Beginning To Realize The Importance of Getting In Every Subscription Possible On The 300,000 Extra Vote Offer Closing Saturday Night. Names of New Candidates Announced In This Issue.

TRIBUNE MAKES A GOOD CHRISTMAS GIFT

The great "Extra Vote Offer," which is in effect this entire week, gives real workers an opportunity seldom offered early in the campaign. Usually the biggest "Extra Vote Offers" or inducements are made later on in the race and they are given at a time when subscriptions are harder to find.

The "Cash Offer" Campaign is conducted on entirely different lines from the ordinary "voting contest." The Elkin Tribune is not attempting to decide the most popular man or woman by any means. There is very little similarity to a "contest" in the "Cash Offer" Campaign.

The awards will be made strictly upon a basis of results the candidates secure during the campaign. "Results count" is a time-worn slogan and it applies forcibly to the "Cash Offer" Campaign. The campaign is purely a business proposition wherein men and women enter into competition with each other on the same basis and the results obtained decide the size and nature of the reward.

Every day—
New ambitions are aroused.
New determinations spring forth.
And—new nominations are added to the roster of those who will compete in the Elkin Tribune "Cash Offer" Campaign. The great award distribution continues to excite The Elkin Tribune territory, interest is increasing every day that passes.

The "Cash Offer" Campaign has made a hit everywhere. Those who wished to take a little time to study the campaign carefully before sending in their nominations have found that the "Cash Offer" Campaign offers the most equitable opportunity to obtain a handsome reward in a short period of time. Names of men,

(Continued On Last Page, Sec. 1)

COUNTY OFFICERS SWORN IN MONDAY

Commissioners Offer $50 Reward For Murderer of Watchman

The administration for Surry county for the next two years was formally set up at Dobson Monday when members of the board of commissioners and officials re-elected in the November 6 election were sworn into office.

Induction of the county officers was the most important matter to face the board of commissioners at the regular session held Monday.

The following county officials received the oath of office: John D. Thompson, sheriff; F. T. Lewellyn, clerk of superior court; Worth Gray, register of deeds; Curtis Harbour, surveyor; Dr. Robert Smith, coroner, and W. J. Swanson, M. Q. Snow and J. W. Lovill, commissioners.

A reward of $50 was offered by the commissioners on the part of the county for the apprehension of the murderer of a Mr. Phillips, night watchman of a Mount Airy mill, who was mysteriously slain several nights ago.

Notice To Campaign Contestants And To the Public

In the campaign staged by this newspaper in 1929, both advertising and job printing were included by the management at that time. However, under no consideration will advertising and job printing be included in the present campaign, it being purely for additional circulation, and to collect accounts in arrears.

This statement is made for the benefit of contestants who have inquired as to this angle. The Tribune does not feel that it would be fair to all contestants to include advertising and job work. It wants every contestant to have an equal chance.

THE ELKIN TRIBUNE,
By H. F. Laffoon, Manager

LATE NEWS from the State and Nation

WIFE OF BANDIT CAPTURED

Chicago, Dec. 4.—Mrs. Helen Gillis, 21-year-old widow of George (Baby Face) Nelson, slain public enemy No. 1, is in custody of the Department of Justice here, it was announced today.

She was captured at 10 p. m. Thanksgiving Day, two days after the guns of Inspector Samuel P. Cowley and Herman E. Hollis, federal agents, slew the murderous desperado in a battle which took the agents' own lives.

It was reported unofficially that she had surrendered in fear she would meet the same fate as her husband and other members of the Dillinger gang slain without quarter by federal agents. Justice Department officials refused to confirm this.

WAYNICK NAMED ASSISTANT CHAIRMAN

Raleigh, Dec. 4.—Capus M. Waynick, of High Point, 45-year-old prominent North Carolinian, today was appointed assistant chairman of the state highway and public works commission.

Waynick will act in place of Chairman E. B. Jeffress, of Greensboro, who has been in a coma almost continually since suffering a stroke of paralysis last August.

Governor Ehringhaus met with members of the state highway and public works commission today in conference, out of which came the announcement of Waynick's selection.

REPEAL HAS FIRST BIRTHDAY

Washington, Dec. 4.—Prohibition repeal will be one year old tomorrow, and tonight Representative Emanuel Celler (D), New York, who was in the vanguard of the fight that brought legal liquor back, warned the whisky industry it must reform or be outlawed again.

He threatened to sponsor legislation which would regulate liquor advertising unless the distilleries cease "placing advertising before the public designed to popularize drinking."

ARE IN LONDON

London, Dec. 5.—Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh are due here tomorrow on board the Holland-America cargo steamer Damsterdy from California, a Liverpool dispatch to the Daily Mail said today.

FRED COLHARD, 40, ENDS LIFE MONDAY WITH RIFLE BULLET

Prominent Elkin Man Despondant Over Business Reverses

FUNERAL TUESDAY

Fred Colhard, 40, prominent Elkin insurance man and former merchant and department store owner, ended his life here Monday evening by firing a .32 calibre rifle ball into his temple. Mr. Colhard was found dead in his automobile on a side road just off highway 26, north of Elkin early Tuesday morning by children enroute to school at North Elkin. The lights on the car were still burning when the discovery was made.

The suicidal act is thought to have been committed about 8:30 Monday evening. A coroner's jury found the death a clear case of suicide. A note found in the dead man's pocket, addressed to his wife, explained business disappointments as the cause of the act. It was known by close friends of the deceased that he had suffered recently from a brain tumor and that he had taken treatment from specialists for the ailment.

Mr. Colhard, a native of Bedford, Va., together with his family, came here from Winston-Salem about fourteen years ago and since that time they have been actively con-

(Continued On Page Four)

It Won't Be Long Now!

Just what Old Santa is telling the kids is not known, but it's highly probable he's passing along the word that Elkin stores are going to supply him with a lot of fine gifts this Christmas for good little boys and girls, and grownups, too.

LOCAL STORES PUT ON HOLIDAY DRESS AS SEASON OPENS

Many Attractive Gift Offerings From Toys Up Await Shoppers

15 SHOPPING DAYS

With Christmas only 15 shopping days ahead, Elkin merchants are today opening the holiday season with large and comprehensive stocks of Christmas merchandise, including practically everything anyone could possibly desire.

And they are calling attention to the fact that prices, considering quality, are at remarkably low levels. A tour of the stores whose advertisements appear in this gala Christmas edition of The Tribune discloses hundreds of attractive and worthwhile gifts.

Department stores are showing many attractive new items in gift merchandise in addition to old favorites, while the dime stores are offering a world of attractive gift suggestions.

Especially interesting this year are the toys and wheel goods. Many toys, absolutely new in principle and construction are on display at the various stores. Following the inauguration last Christmas of equipping larger toys with electric lights, this idea has been carried out this year on a grand scale, small toys, as well as the larger wheel toys having been given both tail and headlights, which operate from inexpensive flashlight batteries and burn flashlight bulbs, thus making replacement easy in case of damage. Prices for these modern playthings are remarkably reasonable.

Another feature worthy of comment on the larger wheel goods, such as wagons, tricycles and automobiles are the pneumatic tires of a popular make, which insure better appearance and easier riding. These tires may be replaced with New ones when worn out.

Local furniture stores, with fine stocks of the newest in modern furniture and home furnishings, are offering very attractive values in

(Continued On Page Four)

Campaign Workers Are Off To Good Start

Several Running Up For First Honors

$600 In Cash Awaits Best Vote-Getter—$400 Cash For Second Best and Good Cash Awards For Other Live-Wire Workers.

New Workers Listed This Week

Most of the Candidates are getting a good start and anyone could jump to first place with a few subscriptions. All interested, eager workers will make a determined drive for all subscriptions possible this week, as the biggest vote offer of the Campaign will end Saturday, December 8th.

All candidates who are listed with 20,000 votes are urged to get in two or more subscriptions by Saturday, December 8th, and be fully qualified for first period.

Who will lead in votes next week? If your favorite Candidate is not in the lead, help her this week. The 300,000 Extra Vote Offer will place her on the winning list.

A Big Drop In Votes After Saturday, Dec. 8

List of Candidates in The Elkin Tribune "Cash Offer" Campaign and Votes Accepted for Publication:

NAME	TOWN	VOTES
Mrs. Thomas W. Church	Elkin	55,000
Miss Irene Brown	Elkin	61,000
Mrs. David Morrison	Elkin	61,500
Miss Beatrice Burcham	Jonesville	64,500
Mrs. Luth. Stuart	Elkin	63,000
Miss Mildred Holbrook	Traphill	67,000
Joe Williams	Mountain Park	60,250
Miss Lucile Cox	Elkin	59,000
Miss Mattie Brendle	Elkin	63,000
Mrs. Paul Speer	Boonville	66,000
Mrs. Ethel Myers	Swan Creek	60,000
Mrs. H. E. Anthony	Benham	20,000
Mrs. C. R. Hyden	Jonesville	45,000
Mrs. M. C. Whitener	Elkin	60,000
Mrs. Lula Weir	Elkin	62,000
Miss Nell Welborn	Cycle	20,000
Miss Opal Smith	Elkin	58,000
C. A. Hays	Dobson, R-1	43,000
Mrs. Cora Cooper	Hamptonville	64,500
Miss Bertha Adams	Jonesville	20,000
Miss Olga Marion	Crutchfield	20,000
Miss Mayme Stanley	Fairview	20,000
Miss Louise Norman	Dobson	20,000
Miss Stella Matthews	Siloam	20,000
Miss Vetra Haynes	State Road	20,000
Mrs. C. A. Davis	Mt. Airy	20,000
Mrs. O. D. Bentley	Ronda	20,000
Mrs. Marvin Cockerham	Roaring River, R-1	44,000
J. C. Martin	Elkin	45,000

Entry Books Open For a Few New Workers Who Are Not Afraid of a Little Competition—Enter Now!

All Candidates are requested to make a cash report to Campaign Office on each Wednesday and Saturday, or have report in mail bearing postmark of that date.

A WINNER NEVER QUILTS—A QUITTER NEVER WINS!

MACHINERY TEARS SCALP FROM HEAD

Yadkin Woman Fatally Injured When Hair Catches On Shaft

As the result of her hair becoming entangled in the shaft of a roller mill as she stood watching the machinery operate, Mrs. Zeal Wilhelm, aged resident of the Enon community, Yadkin county, was scalped Saturday, the whirling shaft tearing the hair and scalp from her skull. The injury resulted in her death.

Immediately after the horrible accident, the 65-year-old woman was rushed to a Winston-Salem hospital, where an examination disclosed that in addition to injuries to her head, she sustained a severe abdomen wound and other serious injuries. Her right arm was broken in two places, while her left arm was broken just above the wrist.

As the revolving shaft twisted the woman's scalp from her head, her clothes were caught in the pulley, hurling her around several times before horrified mill attendants could stop the machinery.

The accident occurred about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. It is un-

(Continued On Page Four)

RELIEF OFFICE IS AT N. WILKESBORO

Surry Included In District Served By Central Office

Effective today, the North Carolina Emergency Relief administration will work through districts instead of county offices and a district office for six counties, Watauga, Ashe, Alleghany, Surry, Yadkin and Wilkes has been located in North Wilkesboro to better serve the needs of the counties making up the district.

By reducing the number of offices and units from 104 to 33 in the state it is expected that $180,000 can be sliced from the cost of relief administration.

The consolidation move is the first important alteration of the relief administration setup since its organization more than a year ago. Virtually every county in the state will be affected by the change.

District administrators have not yet been announced, and those not retained as administrators may be employed in other relief jobs, Mrs.

(Continued On Page Four)

MRS. FARRIS MOXLEY IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Yadkin County Woman Passes Following Brief Illness

Mrs. Versie Castevens Moxley, 28, wife of Farris Moxley, of near Boonville, died Saturday at her home following a brief illness. The deceased was a daughter of Mrs. Bettie Castevens and the late T. R. Castevens. She was a consistent member of Mitchell's Chapel Methodist church, which she joined early in life.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Mitchell's Chapel and interment was in the church cemetery.

She is survived by her husband, a small daughter, Betty Lou Castevens; her mother, Mrs. Bettie Castevens; one sister, Mrs. H. S. Waggoner and one brother, Nelson Castevens, Yadkinville, R. F. D., formerly of Elkin.

Palbearers were Grady Brown, Eugene Casstevens, Dollie Swalm, Edward Casstevens, Weldon Hinchshaw and Sherman Spainhour.

The largest crowd ever to attend a funeral at this church was present for the funeral of Mrs. Moxley.

