WORK TO BEGIN ON RONDA ROAD

Bids On First Lap of Elkin-N. Wilkesboro Highway Are Opened

ACTUAL WORK IS EXPECTED TO START WITHIN FEW WEEKS

Grannis of Fayetteville, Low Bidder On Roadway Construction

HIS BID $44,403.20

Work on the first lap of the Elkin-North Wilkesboro highway, known to highway officials as route 268, will possibly get under way within the next several weeks, it was learned by long distance telephone Wednesday from W. V. Bease, acting state highway engineer, at Raleigh.

Bids for construction of the first lap, 4.86 miles in length, were opened in Raleigh Wednesday morning by the state highway and public works commission, and the names of the low bidders were given The Tribune by Mr. Bease.

E. W. Grannis, of Fayetteville, was low bidder on the roadway construction work, his bid being $44,403.20. The Hobbs-Peabody Construction Co., of Charlotte, submitted the low bid on structural work, their figures being $13,366.20.

Mr. Bease stated that following approval of the bids by the federal bureau of roads construction the contracts should be let within a few days. He said the beginning of actual work on the project would be governed by the present situation of the contractors, but that they should get on the job in not later than three or four weeks.

In a telephone conversation earlier Wednesday, with Capus Waynick, chairman of the state highway commission, Mr. Waynick stated that he could not say at the present when the remainder of the road would be let. However, it is believed that it will be let in the not so very distant future.

That portion of the road upon which bids were received will start at the end of the cement on Elk Spur street, and will run in almost a straight line to Ronda, with only two or three curves. It will be of a construction similar to that of the Elkin-Winston-Salem highway.

News that the highway is actually to be constructed comes as welcome news to the citizens of the section which it will serve. The highway will be built along the southern route.

Negro Is Killed When Automobile Overturns

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Mountain Valley church for Nesby Hague, 24, colored man of near Hamptonville, who was instantly killed Saturday afternoon when his automobile turned over on a curve of the highway between Brook's Cross Roads and Cycle.

Another man in the car with Hague was uninjured.

Elkin Postoffice Is To Regain 2nd Class Status

The Elkin postoffice, pushed back to third class status a little over a half a year ago by a falling off of postal receipts, will again advance to second class July 1, it was announced Tuesday by F. W. Graham, postmaster.

Mr. Graham pointed out that postal receipts for the past calendar year have in each quarter shown a gain over 1933, the year receipts were insufficient to hold the second class rating. Postal receipts for 1934, he stated, were $10,198.32 as compared with $9,235.89 the year previous. He could give no reason for the slump in 1933 receipts other than it was another effect of the depression.

Mr. Poindexter announced Tuesday that the ball this year, as was the one last year, will be held at Hotel Elkin, the floor of the main dining room to be utilized for round dancing while square dancing will be held in the Kiwanis room.

Mr. Poindexter also announced the names of committee chairmen whom he has appointed to take charge of the various phases of the event. He stated that the full committees will be announced next week.

In discussing plans for this year's Ball for the President, Mr. Poindexter pointed out that 70 per cent of the proceeds of the event will remain in this community for the combatting of infantile paralysis. WHERE WILL YOU FINISH?

Hauptmann Is Identified By Two State Witnesses

Flemington, N. J., Jan. 8. — Two men—one an elderly Sourland neighbor of the Charles A. Lindberghs, the other a Bronx cab driver—said an accusing hand today on Bruno Richard Hauptmann, on trial for the murder of the kidnaped Lindbergh baby.

Gingerly, 67-year-old Amandus Hochmuth, who lives at the entrance of the Lindbergh lane, unexpectedly tapped the stolid carpenter on the shoulder as he identified him as the man, in a "dirty green car" containing a ladder, whom he saw from his porch the day of the kidnaping—March 1, 1932.

Then Joseph Ferrone, the cab driver, slapped the same rigid shoulder and almost shouted:

"That's the man!" who eleven nights later sent him to Dr. John F. (Jafsie) Condon, elderly kidnap negotiator, with a note.

Hauptmann stiffened. He muttered, almost inaudibly:

"You're a liar."

It was another day of swift sensations in the case by which the state of New Jersey hopes to send Hauptmann to the electric chair.

Already the carpenter has been accused by the father of the slain baby himself; already both Charles and Anne Lindbergh and Betty Gow, the baby's nurse, have told their own stories.
