The hostess served tempting refreshments during a pleasant social hour.

Mrs. Hayes Entertains Bridge Club at Luncheon
Mrs. Errol Hayes entertained at a delightful party at her home on Church street Friday morning at 10:30, having as guests the members of her contract club. Bridge was played until one o'clock, when a tempting luncheon was served. January jasmine was used as a centerpiece for the lovely table. The high score award for the bridge games fell to Mrs. Charles Ashby and she was presented with a felt bridge table cover.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer Entertain Club at Bridge-Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brewer entertained at a delightful bridge-dinner in their suite at Hotel Elkin Thursday evening, having as guests the members of the Fortnightly Bridge Club. Spring flowers were used to adorn the living room, where dinner was served from two small tables.
During the evening contract was enjoyed with Dr. and Mrs. Harry L. Johnson winning the high score award at the conclusion of the play.

Methodist Circle Meets With Misses Lillard Thursday Evening
Misses Margaret and Carolyn Lillard were hostesses to circle number four of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church at their home on Gwyn Avenue Thursday evening, with twelve members in attendance.
Miss Margaret Lillard conducted the devotionals and directed the Bible study, which was a comprehensive outline of the book of Genesis. Special music by Miss Carolyn Lillard, was a feature of the meeting.
During a pleasant social hour a tempting refreshment course was served.

Miss Lillard Entertains at Breakfast to Honor Guest
Honoring her house guest, Miss Sarah Elizabeth Motte, of Charlotte, Miss Carolyn Lillard entertained at a delightful informal breakfast at her home on Gwyn Avenue Saturday morning. Miss Motte, who was a school-mate of Miss Lillard at Queens-Ch'cora College, Charlotte, will be married April 15. Miss Lillard will be a member of the wedding party. Lovely bows of japonica, pussywillow and jonquils were used to decorate the lower floor of the home. The beautifully appointed breakfast was served buffet style.

Those enjoying Miss Lillard's hospitality were: Miss Lucille Young, Miss Josephine Paul, Mrs. Edwin Harris, Mrs. Thomas Roth, Miss Norma Cawthon, Miss Edith Neaves, Mrs. Hugh Parks and Mrs. J. Ralph Reece, of Albany, Georgia, who is the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Wellborn.

Lawrence-Transou Wedding Solemnized Saturday
Coming as a surprise to friends here and elsewhere was the wedding of Miss Opal Lawrence to William Wellborn Transou, both of this city, which was solemnized at Independence, Virginia, Saturday afternoon, with Rev. L. F. Frank officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lawrence, of North Elkin, and is a charming and attractive young woman. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Transou, and is employed at Chatham Manufacturing company. Both have a wide circle of friends.
At present they are making their home with the bridegroom's parents on West Main street.

Mrs. Skaggs Entertains at Roaring Gap to Honor Daughter's Birthday
Mrs. W. R. Skaggs entertained at a delightful birthday party at her home at Roaring Gap Saturday afternoon to honor her little daughter, Betty Lou, on her fifth birthday anniversary.
Games and a story hour were enjoyed under the direction of Misses Josephine Inskeep and Verna Weaver, who assisted Mrs. Skaggs in entertaining.

The living room and dining room were adorned with spring flowers. The central decoration in the dining room was a beautifully decorated birthday cake, topped with five gleaming candles.
The little honoree was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Birthday Party Friday Evening Honors Miss Betty Armfield's Anniversary

Mrs. C. G. Armfield and her sister, Miss Ophelia Paul jointly entertained at the home of the former on West Main street Friday evening to compliment Mrs. Armfield's daughter, Betty, on her thirteenth birthday anniversary. Green and white, suggestive of St. Patrick's Day, were used throughout the home and in the appointments of the party. In a motor romance contest Miss Lesbia Graham and Eugene Powers were awarded attractive prizes.
At the conclusion of the play birthday cake and green and white block cream were served the thirty guests present.

Mrs. Alan Browning, Jr. and Miss Powell Entertain at Party
Honoring Dumont Eskridge, who recently passed the N. C. state bar examination, Mrs. Alan Browning, Jr. and Miss Mattie Mae Powell entertained at a delightful party at the home of Miss Powell on West Main street Friday evening. Decorations suggestive of St. Patrick's Day were used in the appointments of the four tables, which were placed for hearts. At the conclusion of several-interesting progression the high score awards went to Miss Doris Thompson and Alan Browning, Jr., and the consolation prizes to Mrs. H. F. Laffoon and Coy Bates.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. James, Mr. and Mrs. Parks Hampton, Miss Betty Allen, W. M. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Bates, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Leeper, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Laffoon, Miss Doris Thompson, Dumont Eskridge and Alan Browning, Jr.
