THIRST PLAGUES QUAKE VICTIMS
Taihoku, Formosa, April 23. — (Tuesday)—A Japanese destroyer laden with doctors and supplies was speeding from Mako naval base today to quake stricken Formosa areas where 250,000 homeless survivors of Sunday's disaster were plagued with parching thirst through destruction of water sources.

The death toll grew meanwhile to 3,045 (announced officially in Tokyo by the Rengo News agency at 3:15 a. m.) as casualties among the injured and belated reports from inaccessible districts swelled the total.

Correction
Due to an error on the part of those in charge of the mule race held here April 12 as a part of the Elkin Bargain Days program, the winner of first prize was given The Tribune as John Melton. However, Mr. Melton stated that this was a mistake and that Buford Benton was the rider of the winning mule, which was owned by Leo Wagoner.

BLANKETEERS TAKE TWO OUT OF THREE
Defeat Carolina Tar Heels and Panthers of High Point

Harkrader's pitching and Davis' fielding won a ball game for Chatham at Mount Airy Tuesday, the Blanketeers winning the game 3 to 1. Harkrader allowed nine widely scattered hits to hold Mount Airy to only one run, which came in the fourth. Chatham broke a tie in the eighth as they converted a walk, a wild pitch, a triple by Mackie and an error good for two runs. Mount Airy used four pitchers and made numerous substitutions throughout the game.

The Chatham Blanketeers, after dropping the opening game of a two game series with Carolina Friday 7-3, hit their stride Saturday to defeat the Tar Heels 8 to 1, and Monday took another scalp by defeating the High Point College Panthers 7-2.

Errors on the part of the Blanketeers aided Carolina in winning Friday's contest. However, lead by the pitching of Johnson Saturday Chatham came back to hold the visitors to only one score which came in the first inning when Vick tripled and came home on Rand's single.

Chatham took the lead in the second when H. Hambright and Johnson walked and Robbins got a triple. After that the Blanketeers were never headed. In the game Monday with High Point, Southard blanked the visitors for five innings, allowing only four scattered hits. He was followed on the mound by Harkrader in the sixth, who in turn was relieved by Maxwell in the seventh, when it was seen the game was in the bag.

The defeat broke a long series of successive victories by the Panthers.

BONUS FIGHT
Washington, April 22.—Assertions that only the Harrison bonus compromise would meet two essentials—acceptance by President Roosevelt and avoidance of new taxes—today were flung by administration spokesmen at veteran demands for full cash payment of service certificates.

WHY BUY FERTILIZER IN AN EQUALLY HAPHAZARD FASHION?

Mr. Farmer: If you were to buy a new suit of clothes or some other article of wearing apparel, you wouldn't tell your merchant to just send you something sight unseen; No! You would select it yourself for quality, fit and appearance. Then why take chances with just any fertilizer because it comes in a sack?

We invite you to investigate PIEDMONT FERTILIZER. It's not merely something to spread on your land, but a scientifically manufactured PLANT FOOD that may mean the difference between success or failure of your crops. Thirty years of experience have gone into its making. In each sack we pass this experience along to you!
