Girl Reserve Club of the Jonesville High School Entertained

Miss Mildred Ingram, a member of the Woman's Council, was hostess on Monday evening to the Girl Reserve club of the Jonesville high school at her home in Elkin.

The impressive candle-lighting ceremonial was used for the recognition of the following members: Gladys Shumaker, Alda Sue Hemric, Ruby Boles, Elizabeth Pardue and Willie Belle Osborne.

The induction of the new officers for next year also came at this time. Those who had been elected and at this time took over the responsibility of the club work are Annie Casstevens, President; vice-president, Sara Mae Renegar; secretary, Rama Blackwood and treasurer Mary Elizabeth Ingram.

Miss Elizabeth Underwood Entertains Senior Class

Miss Elizabeth Underwood entertained the senior class of Jonesville high school on Friday evening at a Bingo party. Prizes were awarded to those making the highest score.

Later in the evening the guests were invited into the dining room where the class colors of blue and silver were carried out in the decorations. Delicious refreshments were served to those present.

Mother-Daughter Tea

The Girl Reserve Club of the Jonesville high school delightfully entertained their mothers at a tea on last Saturday afternoon at three-thirty at the school building.

The guests were greeted at the door by George Vestal, chairman of the social committee, who presented them to an informal receiving line, composed of Miss Marion Stafford, faculty advisor, and the officers, Evelyn Arnold, Edith Hemric, Vonda Swain, Carol Martin and Annie Casstevens, President-elect.

A beautiful Mother's Day program consisting of readings and musical numbers, was given with Mary Elizabeth Ingram in charge.

The revelation of who her "Adopted Daughter" had been came when each daughter pinned on her "Adopted Mother" a corsage, ones of white roses for those whose mothers were dead and ones of red for those whose mothers are still living.

An ice course in the pink and white motif, which was also used in the decorations, was served to the sixty guests present.

The SWEETEST SUGAR EVER SOLD

You'll KEEP YOUR SHIRT ON if it's HANES!

Do you mind if we take a look at your waist? We want to see if your shirt has sneaked up out of your shorts, and bunched around your belt. If it has, it's not a HANES! Because HANES Shirts give you enough tail to tuck away for keeps. You won't be bothered with that roll!

How's your shirt fit across your chest? If it's wrinkled like an accordion, we're sure it's not a HANES! Man—take a look at our shirt. See how neat and snug it's stretched. It couldn't feel more comfortable! And this shirt has been laundered more than once. But that doesn't make any difference. Washing won't weaken the springy knit... it always snaps into place like that!

You bet... you'll keep your shirt on, if it's HANES. You'll keep your shorts on too. Go see a HANES dealer today, and get yourself some comfort! P. H. Hanes Knitting Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.
