Dobson, Sept. 30.—The Woman's Club, of Dobson, will soon present a three act musical comedy, "Black-Eyed Susan" in the Dobson high school auditorium. This is Wayne P. Sewell's latest play, which speaks for itself as a high-class production and with beautiful costumes, copyrighted music and the latest dance routines, combined with plenty of local color, promises to be one of the seasons best entertainments.

A director, Miss Elizabeth Weddle, from the Sewell Company, is here now training the cast. Twenty-four chorus girls give plenty of spice to the play, and a popularity baby contest, featuring Dobson's most popular baby will be an added attraction. The exact date has not been determined. Watch for it and come and enjoy an evening of unusual entertainment.

Rev. Jesse McKaughn, of Winston-Salem, preached in the Baptist church on the fourth Sunday morning and also spoke in the afternoon on the organization of the Anti-Saloon League. Mr. McKaughn was born in Dobson but spent most of his boyhood days near Rockford and is well-known in Surry County.

Misses Catherine Comer and Pauline Stowers and Ernest Kaiser, of Bluefield, W. Va., spent the past week-end with Miss Emma Comer, who entertained for them Saturday evening at two tables of bridge, followed by delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Reece returned Tuesday from Washington, D. C., where they spent a week, having been called to the funeral of I. N. Rich, brother-in-law of Mr. Reece, who passed away on the 17th day of September. After the funeral rites were over they visited Dr. Viola E. Reece, Mrs. Ada Reece Green and Attorney Wade B. Hampton, and many places of interest in the city.

Edd Cope, a boy of the CCC camp near Dobson, was operated on last Wednesday for appendicitis in the hospital at Mount Airy.

Joseph Reece, of Winston-Salem, formerly of Elkin, and a nephew of W. L. Reece, was in Dobson Monday for a short visit and business combined.

Miss Lucile Hemming and Ambrose Woodruff returned to Dobson last week to enter school here after spending the summer at Simcoe, Ontario, Canada, with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hemming, who went to Canada to raise tobacco.

Attorney Wade B. Hampton, of Washington, D. C., is spending a late summer vacation with his mother, Mrs. Emma Hampton.

Misses Minnie Chandler and Bertha Byrd spent the week-end with Mrs. John W. Comer. They returned Sunday evening to their respective schools, Copeland and Mountain Park.

Mesdames A. D. Folger and Emma Mook spent a few hours in Winston-Salem Tuesday on business.

The families of W. B. Norman and R. A. Freeman, with their house-guests, Miss Lillie and grandmother Norman, picniced at Norvale Craig on last Thursday.

Prof. and Mrs. Gentry spent the week-end in Statesville among friends.

Mrs. R. F. Palmer and Miss Ruth Lee, of Rockingham, visited friends in Dobson the past week.

Lakey Harkrader is spending some time with his grandmother, Mrs. S. K. Harkrader.

Miss Francis Smith and Paul Kiser spent Sunday evening with friends in Pilot Mountain.

One of the outstanding social affairs of the season was a shower given by Miss Margaret Harkrader recently for Mrs. Trent Harkrader, of Mount Airy, a recent bride. The rooms were colorful with a beautiful array of fall flowers. Catchy and interesting contests were enjoyed. Miss Edythe Reece sang two numbers with Mrs. Grady Cooper at the piano. The bride was showered extensively with miscellaneous gifts. Tempting refreshments were served by the hostess.

Guy Norman, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with his parents at the Brady Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Inman and children and Mrs. Sallie Somers, of Mount Airy, visited Mrs. Emma Hampton Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Trent Harkrader Honored At Dobson

Mrs. L. V. Harkrader and Mrs. Maggie H. Lewellyn were joint hostesses at the Kenlin Hotel Thursday evening, where they entertained at a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Trent Harkrader, the former Miss Sarah Graves, of Mount Airy, a popular bride of the season.

Mrs. Edwin Reid and Miss Verdy Jackson were winners in a contest staged for the most original advice to the bride.

A shower of lovely gifts were presented Mrs. Harkrader by little Miss Mary Sue Norman, who placed before her a heavily laden wagon decorated in white. Miss Edythe Reece, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Grady Cooper, sang two charming selections, "Love's a Merchant," and "Brown Bird Singing."

A salad course was served by Mrs. W. M. Jackson, Misses Louise Norman, Margaret and Helen Harkrader. Miss Mary Bet Norman presided over the punch bowl throughout the evening.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Z. A. Rochelle of Durham, and Mrs. Fletcher Harris, of Elkin.

Winston-Salem Fair Is To Open Monday

Monday afternoon, October 7th, at 4 o'clock the gates will officially open for the big annual Winston-Salem and Forsyth County Fair. All indications point to the biggest and best exhibits and entertainment ever offered the public of this section and with good weather it seems certain all attendance records should be broken.

On Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be a balloon ascension and parachute jump, this feature to be daily at 10 a. m. during the remaining five days of the fair. Each afternoon starting Tuesday there will be horse racing and grandstand entertainment. On Saturday there will be automobile races. Each night there will be a superb musical and comedy entertainment by the Diamond Revue, followed by fireworks. The midway attractions, consisting of a large number of variety shows and novelty rides, will draw the usual attention, while the exhibit halls will be packed with interesting features.

The fair will be under full swing after 4 o'clock Monday afternoon and will not close until midnight Saturday. Each day will have its features, Wednesday being county school day when all school children from Forsyth and adjoining counties will be admitted free, together with their teachers. Five big days and six nights should give the people of this section the greatest entertainment of many years in Winston-Salem.

P.-T. A. To Present Play October 11th

The local Parent-Teacher Association is sponsoring a play, "Cicero Steps Out," to be presented Friday evening, October 11, in the school auditorium. The association requests that patrons and friends of the school reserve this evening for their own entertainment and for the aid of the school.

The cast is made up of local citizens and the play is a three-act comedy, packed with amusing situations and moving with thrilling speed from start to finish.
