RONDA SINGING CONVENTION HELD

Huge Crowd Present At Annual Event Last Sunday

(By Mrs. W. H. Jones)
A congregation that would have filled the house almost twice met at Bethel church last Sunday where the Ronda Singing convention according to an appointment was held.
The song service opened by singing two hymns: "What A Friend We Have in Jesus" and "Amazing Grace," led by Arthur Martin, accompanied by Charles Jones at the piano. Rev. N. T. Jarvis read for devotional Psalms 19th. Another song, "Am I A Soldier of the Cross," was rendered by the entire congregation and the invocation was given by Rev. R. J. Pardue, the pastor of this church.

There were several numbers given by the choirs present before noon enrolled by the secretary, R. R. Crater, as follows: Bethel—W. H. Jones, leader; Swan Creek, directed by Glenn Swain; Mount Pisgah, Mansfield Pevette and Pleasant Grove, E. L. Martin, leader. The Jonesville and Southern quartets were also present. C. W. Gilliam led a prayer that closed the morning session, and an hour or more was given for lunch and recreation.

The meeting was called to order in the afternoon by the chairman, W. H. Jones. We were glad to welcome Fishing Creek band of singers, directed by Mr. Mayberry and the Oak Forest choir led by Mr. Pevette. Herman Wellborn, with his fine class from Dennyville, also joined in the afternoon. Messrs. W. A. Stroud, W. T. Myers, Sam Brown and Luther Masten added much to the enjoyment of the day when they sang so feelingly the beautiful hymn, "What Is He Worth to My Soul?"

In order to give every one a chance to sing, familiar hymns were sung by the congregation at intervals all during the day.

Mr. Hinshaw of Elkin, who is a great lover of gospel music, very capably acted as secretary after noon, in the absence of Mr. Crater, who was unable to attend longer than noon.

The chairman named a committee, choosing one from each choir,

Ski Hat With Scarf

NEW YORK... Creators of hat fashions have solved the lost scarf problem in the clever new ski hat which will be worn this coming winter. The scarf is attached to the top of the hat and falls in folds to be taken around the neck. Hope Hampton (above), brought the style to the U. S.

to select time and place for next convention. They were as follows: D. J. Melton, Mon Myers, E. L. Martin, Mr. Pevette, Mr. Mayberry, Rev. Pervis Parks, and Mr. Wellborn, who reported that it be held the fifth Sunday in December at Pleasant Grove church. This is a good place to go and a hearty welcome awaits us all.

Rev. Mr. Parks led a prayer that closed the service on this glad and beautiful day.

We feel very grateful to Mr. Darnell of Elkin, who so kindly furnished a piano for the convention.

Perhaps this was the largest congregation ever to attend Bethel church and it made our hearts rejoice. We are looking forward to the time when they all come again.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their thoughtfulness and kindness in the illness and death of our wife and mother.

SINGER OF PSALMS TO GIVE CONCERT

Will Be Held At Presbyterian Church October 14th

Monday night, Oct. 14th, at 7:30 o'clock, Jesse Phillips-Robertson, of New York City, singer of Psalms, will give a concert in the Elkin Presbyterian church. Mr. Robertson has made an intensive study of the Psalms, and stands alone in the musical world as the singer and interpreter of these Ancient songs of Zion.

Musical instruments of the Bible will be demonstrated. Among these are the twinkling cymbals, loud-sounding cymbals, silver trumpet and timbrel. Some of the earliest Hebrew melodies known are included in Mr. Robertson's repertoire.

In his tour of the country Mr. Robertson is booked to give his concert in many leading schools and churches all over the country, including Columbia University and the First Presbyterian church of Chicago. He is touring the south during October and November, and Elkin is fortunate indeed to have the opportunity of hearing him.

While the Psalm programs are Biblical, they are presented from a wholly non-sectarian viewpoint. They are instructive as well as entertaining, and have been enthusiastically received by secular schools and religious groups alike.

The public is cordially invited to attend this concert.

NEW TAX IS RULED OUT
Washington, Sept. 29.—New taxes were conditionally ruled out by President Roosevelt tonight in a report to the people that improving business had fortified the government's financial position.

Peering into the nation's industrial and fiscal future, the chief executive saw the curves of tax collections and expenditures swinging toward a meeting point. He predicted a big cut in the deficit originally estimated for the current fiscal year of 1936 and another for the next financial 12-months. But no date was set for a completely balanced budget.

Samuel Clemens was not the original Mark Twain. Captain Isaiah Sellers first used the name, and Clemens adopted it after Sellers died.
