way Department. They were married at Yadkinville in the presence of only a few friends.

They are now residing with the bride's sister, Mrs. C. R. Hyden.

Jonesville Methodist W. M. U. Meets

With Miss Mary Mathis
The W. M. U. of the Jonesville Methodist church met at the home of Miss Mary Mathis on Tuesday evening, with 12 members present.

The topic "City Evangelism in Korea," was discussed by Misses Maxine Mathis, Iris Minniss, Mary Mathis, Rosalee Minish, Eloise Greenwood and Mesdames O. E. Boles and Lon Vestal.

Mrs. L. S. Weaver had charge of the program and after an interesting discussion of the lesson the business session was held.

During a delightful social hour refreshments were served.

BURGISS FAMILIES HOLD ANNUAL MEET

Next Gathering To Be Held Second Sunday In Sept. 1936

The annual re-union of the Burgiss families took place last Sunday at the home of Bob Burgiss, near Buck Shoals in Yadkin county, and despite the inclement weather a large crowd was present, some of the people coming from Virginia.

Dinner was spread on an improvised table on the porch, and those present were grouped around it while Grady Burgiss, of Elkin, made a few remarks on the purpose of the occasion. Following an address of welcome by Bob Burgiss, as head of the home, the prayer of thanks was offered by Rev. J. L. A. Bumgarner.

Dr. Henry Burgiss, of Waxhaw, was elected as chairman of the Burgiss clan, and Grady Burgiss was elected scribe and historian. He is to present a history of the family at the next annual reunion, which is to be held at Windsor's Cross Roads on the second Sunday in September of 1936.

Bethel

Ronda, route 2, Oct. 7.—Mrs. J. T. Triplett returned to her home here last week from Winston-Salem, where she had visited her sister, Mrs. Albert Vannoy and brother, Dr. R. Gilliam. While there she also visited her cousins, Mesdames J. B. Armstrong and Louis Ferlazzo.

The delegates from the church here attended the 14th session of the Brier Creek Baptist Association, which was held with Mountain View church, near Windy Gap. This association is one of the largest in this part of the country, including churches in Wilkes, Yadkin, Iredell and Alexander. Rev. N. T. Jarvis, Roaring River, is moderator and S. G. Crater of Greensboro, is clerk. Messrs. D. J. Melton and J. F. Mathis, both gave interesting reports at Sunday school last Sunday of this important meeting, which they attended.

Mr. C. W. Gilliam went to Friendship church, east of Elkin, last Sunday, where he was invited to preach at the evening service.

Mr. N. E. Burchett, who has been in declining health for more than two years, has not been so well lately; also Mrs. Burchett has been right sick with cold the past week.

Among the congregation at Swan Creek last Sunday were some from here, several going after attending Sunday school at home. They heard a fine sermon from Rev. W. E. Linney, of Wilkesboro, who is assisting the pastor, Rev. Mr. Jarvis, at the annual revival there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Green of Winston-Salem, visited the former's mother and family the 5th Sunday, Mrs. J. B. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stroud and children were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Swaim at Swan Creek last Sunday.

Mrs. C. E. Morrison, who has been spending several months with her daughter, Mrs. Weaver Hinson in Yadkin county, is here at her old home seeing her sons, Messrs. J. C., Wm. T., and Charlie Morrison.

Mr. D. S. Gilliam, with his family, from Jonesville, while on his way to make his regular visit to his old home here and see his mother last Sunday, stopped to be with his aged and only paternal uncle, Mr. S. C. Sale, who is critically ill at his home at Maple Springs, he having suffered two paralytic strokes.

Mr. R. G. Myers, a prominent citizen of this community, who has been in declining health for several weeks, was able to attend his church meeting last Sunday at Swan Creek, we are glad to note.

Mrs. J. A. Vannoy and daughter, Miss Sarah, of Winston-Salem, attended the fifth Sunday singing here. This is Mrs. Vannoy's old home church and she was as happy to be here as we were to see her.

Ruby and Rebecca Pardue, small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Pardue, have been absent from school several days on account of being ill with colds.

Mesdames J. B. Armstrong and Louis Ferlazzo of Winston-Salem,

ELKIN WINS OVER HARMONY 32 TO 0

Local Gridsters Have Little Trouble In Taking Opponents

A fighting but outclassed Harmony team proved no match for the orange and brown-clad Elkin high school warriors last Friday afternoon at Harmony as the local gridsters pushed across five touchdowns to defeat their opponents 31 to 0.

Scoring in every quarter, the Elkin team had no difficulty in chalking up were here for awhile last Tuesday. Mrs. Armstrong was looking after some business on their farm here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vannoy of North Elkin, visited the latter's mother, Mrs. W. A. Pardue and family, here the fifth Sunday and attended the singing held at the church here.

Mrs. Yancy Harris, who has been taking treatment at the Hugh Chatham hospital at Elkin, expects to return to her home here this week, we are glad to learn.

All farmers are most through making molasses. Mr. J. C. Morrison made 380 gallons. This is a very delicious, bright variety, just the kind you want. He always finds a ready market for what he has for sale.

the score and Coach Ted Griffin sent his second team into the fray for action for about a fourth of the game. Numerous substitutes were sent in for first hand experience.

Price, a sensation last year, scored two touchdowns, Grier, Foster and McKee also crossing the goal line for tallies.

Statistics disclosed that Elkin marked up 11 first downs to Har-mony's four; Elkin recovered three fumbles, Harmony 1.

The team goes to Taylorsville Friday afternoon for an engagement at 3:30 with Taylorsville High.

"Arthur argued with me, pointed a gun at his head, pulled the trigger and shot himself in the elbow," explained Mrs. Arthur Nichols, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to police.
