Dr. and Mrs. Harrell are Hosts to Fortnightly Club Thursday
Limiting their guests to the members of the Fortnightly Bridge Club, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell were hosts at a delightful bridge-dinner at their home on West Main street Thursday evening. In the spirited progressions Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gwyn received the high score trophy.

Mrs. Fyron is Hostess to Bridge Club Tuesday Morning
Mrs. Ruohs Fyron delightfully entertained the members of her bridge club at a bridge-luncheon Tuesday. Prior to the luncheon bridge was played at two tables with the club award going to Mrs. Paul Gwyn. Members playing were Mrs. Paul Gwyn, Mrs. James Poindexter, Mrs. C. G. Ashby, Mrs. A. B. Somers, Mrs. Errol Hayes, Mrs. R. C. Freeman and Mrs. A. D. Folger, the latter of Dobson. Mrs. C. L. Haywood, Jr., was a special guest.

Methodist Circles To Meet
The circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church will meet Monday afternoon, February 3, in the following homes: Circle number one with Mrs. Mason Lillard, on Gwyn Avenue; circle number two with Mrs. E. E. Hayes on Church street and circle number three with Mrs. W. M. Allen on Church street. All members are requested to attend.

Mrs. Graham Honors Sister at Party Thursday Afternoon
Mrs. H. C. Graham entertained at a lovely party at her home on Terrace Avenue Thursday afternoon to honor her sister, Mrs. W. L. Cawthon, of Jackson, Tenn., who is her guest. Bridge was played at four tables which were arranged amid a charming setting of evergreens and potted plants. When the final scores were counted Mrs. C. G. Ashby received the high score prize. A tempting collation was served at the conclusion of the play.

Miss Dorothy Knox of Salem Academy to Speak at Woman's Club
Miss Dorothy Knox, head of the Dramatic department of Salem Academy, Winston-Salem, will be the guest speaker of the Woman's Club at the open meeting at Hotel Elkin Tuesday afternoon, February 4, at 3:30. Miss Knox will use as her subject "North Carolina Folk Lore" and her program promises to be highly entertaining. In addition to her

Hauptmann Will Be Granted No Further Reprieves

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 27.—Governor Harold G. Hoffman today said he would grant no further reprieves to Bruno Richard Hauptmann, convicted slayer of the Lindbergh baby, unless "further developments should warrant."
"Will you grant another reprieve to Hauptmann?" Hoffman was asked at his press conference. "No," he said.
Hoffman said he had no intention of calling a special session of the court of pardons, but would ask legislative action "if the findings warrant it." He pointed out, however, that any new evidence first would be brought before Supreme Court Justice Thomas W. Trenchard, judge of Hauptmann's Flemington trial.
"Is it a fair assumption that there is no new evidence?" he was asked.
"I wouldn't say that."

work in the academy she is associated with Winston-Salem's Little Theatre.
The program will be under the auspices of the Department of Literature, with Mrs. Joe Bivins in charge.

O. B. H. Club Meets Thursday Evening with Miss Maude Greenwood
Miss Maude Greenwood was hostess to the members of the O. B. H. Club and several additional guests at her home on Bridge street Thursday evening at an enjoyable meeting. Rook was played at three tables with the high score award going to Miss Betty Allen and the consolation prize to Miss Mary Virginia Barker at the conclusion of the play. When the cards were removed a prettily appointed refreshment course was served the following: Misses Blanche and Alice Dixon, Betty Allen, Sadie Franklin, Mary Hendren, Betty Harris, Ola Angell, Grace Cockerham, Flora Royall, Lucille Young, Mary Virginia Barker and Mrs. Jones Holcomb.

Mason Lillard Class Meets Monday Evening at Home of Mrs. Marion Allen

The Mason Lillard Bible Class of the Methodist Sunday school met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Marion Allen on Church street, with Miss Betty Allen associate hostess, with nine members present. Miss Ophelia Paul, class secretary, presided in the absence of the president and vice-president.
The program on interesting news events of the world was in charge of Mrs. Joe Bivins and Miss Blanche Dixon. The concluding number was a poem by the late Rudyard Kipling, famous English poet and writer.
During a delightful social hour the hostesses served tempting refreshments.

Rev. Wm. A. Jenkins Addresses P.-T. A. Tuesday Afternoon

Using as his topic "The Parent—The Guardian of Childhood," Rev. Wm. A. Jenkins, pastor of the Methodist church, made an inspiring talk before a large group of mothers, at the Parent-Teacher meeting in the school auditorium Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Jenkins brought on the thought that the education in the school room was a furtherance of the education begun at home and that the cooperation between the two, with that of the church added, were the vital fundamentals for developing personalities.

The program was under the direction of Mesdames J. S. Atkinson, J. F. Hendren and C. A. McNeill. Mrs. Atkinson read the scripture lesson which was followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison, by the audience. The Mother-singers gave a splendid rendition of "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms." Mrs. H. P. Graham played the piano accompaniment.

Mrs. E. C. James, president, presided over the business session, which featured routine reports and plans for the Father's Night program to be observed on the evening of the February meeting date.

Dobbins May Be Chosen Yadkinville Postmaster

Washington, Jan. 27.—Representative Walter Lambeth announced today he has endorsed the candidacy of Charles N. Dobbins as postmaster at Yadkinville for the regular four-year term.

Dobbins, a World War veteran, was first on a list of eligibles certified to the postoffice department by the civil service commission following an examination for the place. He is a civil engineer and a graduate of the University of North Carolina.

The appointment is expected to take the usual course, and the nomination of the new postmaster probably will be sent from the White House to the Senate for confirmation within several days.

"If mothers would teach their boys to knit, embroider, or crochet there would be less juvenile delinquency," declares Charlie Hoyt, harbor of Kewanee, Ill.

ORDINANCE

In their meeting of January 8, 1936, the following ordinance was passed by the Board of Town Commissioners:

Be it ordained that the owner of each passenger car for hire be and is hereby required to post with the Chief of Police a public liability insurance policy in a good and acceptable company, with a minimum limit of $5,000/10,000 or in lieu thereof a good and solvent bond approved and accepted by the Mayor. That the operation of any taxi or passenger car for hire within the corporate limits of the Town of Elkin, N. C., on or after January 20, 1936 without having complied with the above requirement, shall constitute a misdemeanor and each day on which a taxi or passenger car for hire without insurance or bond as above required shall constitute a separate offense, and the owner thereof shall be fined not more than $50.00 or imprisoned for not more than 30 days.

Published by order of the Mayor and Board of Town Commissioners.
PAUL GWYN, Clerk.
January 21, 1936.

The Cost of Reddy Kilowatt's Services is a Small Item in Housekeeper's Budget

IN terms of other necessary commodities which the householder buys the cost of Reddy Kilowatt's services is a small item. In these days, when the prices of foodstuffs and other things are rapidly increasing, the cost of electricity is even more striking in contrast because electric rates are constantly decreasing.

The average cost of electric service to the more than 20 million homes in America, that have service available to them, is less than nine cents per day.

Compared with other expenditures made by the average homekeeper, his electricity costs per day

- Less than one large loaf of bread.
- About a pint of Grade A milk.
- Less than a cake of good toilet soap.
- Less than a dish of the best ice cream.
- Less than half the price of one ticket to the movies.
- Two-thirds the cost of a package of cigarettes.
- Less than half the price of one gallon of gasoline, or a quart of oil.

Reddy Kilowatt's wages play a relatively insignificant part in the average consumer's monthly budget and yet the householder probably receives more, in comfort and convenience, from his services than from any other expenditure he makes.
