Dobson, Feb. 17.—The Dobson Woman's Club met at the Club House on last Thursday evening. The president, Mrs. Emma Reece Mock, was present and presided. The meeting opened by singing in unison, "With Joy We Meet," followed by the Collect. After the roll call a business meeting was held. One new member was added to the roll, Miss Hazel Martin.

Reports from the various committees and departments were submitted and approved. Mrs. J. G. Lewellyn and Miss Emma Comer rendered very sweetly, a duet, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," with Miss Edythe Reece, at the piano.

Mrs. R. A. Freeman introduced the speaker of the evening, our State President, Mrs. George Marshall, of Mount Airy, who brought to the club a splendid and instructive address on the outstanding activities and progress of the Woman's Club in the last decade. The club was both fortunate and proud in securing Mrs. Marshall at this time, as she is very busy with her state club duties.

Mrs. Mamie Jackson, of Mount Airy, the State Corresponding Secretary, was also a visitor to the club.

Mrs. Carl Folger presented Mrs. Marshall a lovely gift on behalf of the club. During the social hour sandwiches, cherry tarts with whipped cream, and Russian tea were served by the following committee for February: Mrs. Carl Folger, chairman; Mrs. R. A. Freeman, Mrs. Emma Mock, Mrs. Blanche Norman, Miss Francis Smith, Mrs. Wendell Stone and Mrs. Daisy Norman.

R. C. Lewellyn returned from Florida Thursday after spending some weeks in the land of sunshine and flowers, for health and rest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Threatte and little daughter, Bettye June, spent several days last week in S. C., with friends and relatives.

Miss Vera Soyars spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Laura Soyars.

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Swanson and Kent, Jr., of Pilot Mountain, spent Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Stone.

Mrs. W. M. Stanley and Carl Stanley went to Greensboro Thursday to spend several days with Miss Bonnie Mae Stanley, student at N. C. C. W.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crawford and Mrs. P. B. Folger are spending some days in and around Miami, Florida.

BRUCE BARTON Says:

Still Changes Ahead
A man has just been in to worry me about the children. He points out that times are getting worse and I am getting older, and that if I set up annuities and insurance trusts and establish a residence in Florida, where there is no state inheritance tax and do a lot of other things, my children may perhaps be better off.

As far as insurance is concerned, I have been a booster for it all my life. My father, who was a preacher with a large family, and a small salary, used to remark that he had "kept himself poor paying insurance premiums." But the insurance premiums enabled him to sleep peacefully at night and, having seen us all through college, he proceeded to cash in his insurance, and he and mother had a good time on it during their last years.

pointment at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Dr. Joe Folger and sister, Mrs. P. G. Bolick, and little son, P. G., Jr., spent several days last week in Asheville with their sister, Mrs. Edwin Bovies.

Mr. and Mrs. John Richards entertained as dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gentry and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Folger.

David Hiatt, Attorney, of Mount Airy, and the heirs-at-law of J. M. Venable, namely, J. P. Venable, Jerry Venable, Roy Venable, Ellis Venable, Mrs. Celia Taylor and husband, Lawrence Taylor and Arthur Taylor, husband of Susie Venable, met at the office of W. L. Reece, attorney, last Thursday for settlement of said estate.

How completely they might have spoiled their days and nights if they could have looked forward into the future. Suppose they had known in 1900, that this country was going to do a nose dive in 1929 which would be followed by the worst depression in history.

Well, they couldn't have done anything about it. And, as things have turned out, we are still eating regularly; we have a dry place to sleep, and so far have neither applied for a dole or sought admission to a nudist camp.

The changes that are going to come in these United States are beyond the imagination of any one to forecast. Our children and grandchildren will have to meet them, as we have had to meet the problems in our own lives. What we can do for them beyond health and education is not much. Having tried to take care of these two requisites, and being now an old man, I propose to save up the hours hitherto devoted to conferences with insurance men and devote those hours to golf.

Heaven, or, Bargain Prices
Recently I wrote a piece about J. Thomason Willing, an elderly man without much money but rich in friendships because all his life he has encouraged young artists. Today I should like to preach my brief sermon to those members of the congregation who occupy safe and influential positions in business. Now that times are getting better, I should like to lay upon their consciences a sense of special obligation toward the young.

I stepped out of college into a depression. One morning on the streets of Chicago I met the captain of our football team. After beating the pavements for weeks he had succeeded, through pull, in getting a job collecting uncollectable bills, on commission. His earnings were about three dollars a week. The president of our class spent his first six months at manual labor. My own ambition was to get into the publishing business. The nearest I could come to it was a job as time-keeper in a construction camp in Montana.

The jobs we got were very poor, but we did get jobs. For many of the youngsters who have come out of college since 1932 there have been no jobs at all. Employment always lags when business begins to pick up. But the time comes eventually when there are more jobs—and that time is almost here.

So I ask the Brass Hats of business to take as much time as possible from their balance sheets and invest in helpful conversation with and generous efforts for young people. By so doing they will lay up for themselves treasure in Heaven. If Heaven seems too far away as a depository of treasure, I might point out that they also will be buying some highly trained talent at bargain prices.

IT WORKED FOR ME

Women should take only liquid laxatives

MORE people could feel fine, be fit and regular, if they would only follow the rule of doctors and hospitals in relieving constipation.

Never take any laxative that is harsh in action. Or one, the dose of which can't be exactly measured. Doctors know the danger if this rule is violated. They use a liquid laxative, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all.

Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why it should be a liquid like Syrup Pepsin.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if it doesn't give you absolute relief, if it isn't a joy and comfort in the way it overcomes any sluggishness or biliousness, your money back.
