ISSUES WARNING

Warns Against Misleading Information of Schools

Washington, D. C., May 5.—The United States Civil Service commission has sent a notice to post offices, warning that misleading information is being given the public by representatives of some of the correspondence schools which sell "civil service" courses.

For a long time, the commission has been receiving complaints from different parts of the country which indicate that opportunities for obtaining federal employment have been greatly exaggerated.

It was made clear that no school has any connection whatever with the civil service commission or with any other branch of the government, and also that the commission has no agents who solicit applications for civil service positions or who sell "civil service" courses.

No school can "guarantee" government employment and none is given information regarding examinations, or any other information, which is not available to the general public. The commission stated that it does not recommend any school, and explained that it is not necessary for anyone to take a course with a so-called civil service school in order to compete in a civil service examination.

A special point was made of the fact that information concerning examinations may be obtained at any time, without cost, from the Secretary of the Civil Service board at any first or second-class post office or from the commission's office in Washington, D. C.

Remember Mother

Sunday!

Make Her Happy With A Thoughtful Gift From McDANIEL'S

"MOTHER"—the sweetest word in any language. The one woman in the world who thinks you are perfect . . . who . . . since your childhood, has denied herself many of the pleasures and comforts of life that your way may be smoother and happier. Remember your Mother on the one day in the year set aside to do her honor—Mothers' Day. Go see her if you can . . . but by all means remember her with a gift which expresses your love and adoration. And you husbands . . . fathers of small children who are too young to realize fully the meaning of Mothers' Day . . . make her happier . . . show your love and devotion . . . by a gift on HER day. Remember . . . whether young, with children at her breast, or old and gray, she's still God's most perfect creation . . . a MOTHER.
