Gilliam Reunion Held Sunday, June 14

The annual reunion of the Gilliam family was a delightful feature of the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gilliam near Hays postoffice in Wilkes county.

Relatives and friends from Wilkesboro, North Wilkesboro, Elkin, Ronda, Sparta, Winston-Salem, Statesville, High Point, Thomasville, Lenoir and Knoxville, Tenn., gathered at this home in the morning where happy greetings were exchanged and a hearty welcome from this family whose fine hospitality was so much enjoyed by the visitors.

To furnish a most excellent setting for the occasion, tables and some seats had been arranged in a beautiful grove, near the home, where the assembly gathered for a delightful luncheon.

The chairman, who with his family was host and hostess for the day, had charge for a short while. He expressed a hearty welcome to everyone present. Two numbers were rendered by the Southern Quartet from Jonesville. Hon. J. G. Hackett of North Wilkesboro, a friend of the family was called on to speak and gave a brief and interesting talk.

also the pastor of the Baptist church of that place made a few appropriate remarks.

Mrs. W. H. Jones of Ronda, the secretary had charge of the registration book, that was placed at a convenient place and asked every one to register.

All were commanded to gather around the long table and C. W. Gilliam, Jr. of Jonesville was asked to pronounce the blessing.

After enjoying the picnic lunch and reassembling at the house the remainder of the afternoon was spent in happy conversation and singing. Those who assisted in furnishing the delightful music that was enjoyed so much were: the Southern Quartet, J. T. Myers, M. G. Swaim, Guy Myers and Charles Jones, the Jonesville Quartet, Arthur Martin, D. S. Gilliam, J. Osborn and Odell Harp.

Others who sang were W. A. Stroud, John K. Blackburn, Ernest Wall, J. L. Gregory and Willie Gilliam, with his children from Thomasville.

The decision of a committee, composed of J. A. Gilliam, Hays; J. G. Gilliam, Elkin; Mrs. W. A. Stroud, Wilkesboro; Mrs. J. A. Vannoy, Winston-Salem; Ernest Wall, Elkin, and D. S. Gilliam, Ronda, was to hold the next meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gilliam, and Mrs. C. W. Gilliam, Sr., near Ronda, the second Sunday in June, 1937.

The youngest to enjoy the gathering of the relatives for the first time was little Charles William Gilliam III, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gilliam, Jr. of Jonesville.

Mrs. Payton Gilliam of Thomasville, Mrs. C. W. Gilliam, Sr., of Ronda, J. O. Hoots, Ronda, R. L. Harris, Elkin, D. R. Gilliam, Sparta, J. R. Myers, Lenoir, J. G. Hackett and E. M. Blackburn from North Wilkesboro were among the oldest guests to register, for one of the best reunions ever held.

HUH? HUH?

A young man who was slightly under the influence of strong drink was remounting the curb that had just tripped him, when a policeman popped up.

Young Man: "Did you see me fall?"

Policeman: "Yes, I saw you fall."

Young Man: "Did you see me get up?"

Young Man: "Then what's my name?"

Policeman: "How should I know your name, I've never seen you before."

Young Man: "Then how do you know it was me that fell?"
