The Tribune does not necessarily endorse any article under this heading but welcomes at all times communications of interest to its readers and the general public.

THINKS WE SHOULD MAKE A CHANGE

To The Editor of The Tribune: I have been a reader of The Tribune ever since it has been published. I used to read it when it was printed as The Elkin Times. I have spent many pleasant moments reading from its pages. I also read many other papers, including our church paper along with one of the best dailies printed in the state. And as I read these papers and watch the world as it rocks along and compare our present condition with the Bible, I am made to wonder just where we are; what we are doing and where we are going?

I see from the reports that the number of deaths from accidents during the holidays have already gone beyond two hundred. It seems to me we never have learned yet how to spend the Christmas holidays. A great many have their feasts of good things to eat and drink. Many get tanked up on liquor, beer or something and ramble over the neighborhood shooting and drinking. Many others will spend a large amount of money for little old foolish things, toys of various kinds and I suppose the money spent for things that are not only worthless but harmful would run into millions of dollars. Go into a large department store and you will, in nearly every case, see some one dressed up in red cloth with long beard and hair acting like a foolish person to entertain the children and I suppose to have their fathers and mothers buy some toys to take home to the children.

Now, from a business standpoint I have no objections to such things, but why mix such foolishness up with the birth of a Saviour? Jesus was no clown, neither was he a man of war that we should celebrate his birth by firing off guns and shooting fire crackers. Nor should we dress up like a clown to represent a Saviour.

Why not keep the holidays sacred and in the Spirit of Him who gave His life to redeem a fallen humanity from the very things we do in celebrating his birth. We could read the Bible, go to our churches, preach and pray and teach the children about a real Saviour. Peace on earth good will toward men.

CYCLE

Rev. W. V. Brown spent Christmas Day with his daughter, Mrs. Foster Pinnix.

Christmas passed very quietly in this neighborhood. The young people seemed especially to have a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown are moving up into the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia. We are sorry to lose them from this community.

James Chipman is building a new residence on his farm near Mayberry's mill.

The Sunday schools at Longtown, Mountain View and Asbury all had Christmas trees Thursday night.

Adolphus Cheek had as his guests during the holidays his mother, Mrs. Julia Cheek and his brothers, Manuel, Rob and Fred.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Nicks of Winston-Salem were Christmas visitors in this section.

We wish for the Tribune and its readers a Happy New Year.

THURMOND

We are sorry to note at this writing Mrs. Sarah Simmons is much worse than usual. She has been confined to her bed for some months and is in a very critical shape now. But we hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas and little daughter, Josephine, of Harmony, spent Christmas here with the latter's parents.

Mrs. Eller Norman and son, Albert, are spending the Christmas holidays with relatives in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Raymond Simmons of Chapel Hill College, spent Christmas here with his parents. He has returned to school.

Mr. Huston Wilmoth who sustained an injury at his work some time ago isn't getting along so well. But we hope he will soon be well and back to his work.

We hope Mr. Jack Royall, who sustained an injury sometime ago will soon recover and get back home.

The community regrets the moving of Mr. and Mrs. John Parks and his father, who have recently moved from this community.

We are glad to note that Mr. Tyre Atkins has recovered and is practically well and going about again.

Everyone enjoyed Christmas with much quietness which is the right spirit for Christmas.
