Mrs. Beatrice Myers Phillips is program chairman and the program will feature an address by Attorney E. C. James on legislative matters of interest to the Auxiliary.

A cordial invitation is extended all members to attend.

Darnell-Newman Marriage is Announced

Announcement has been made by the bride's parents of the marriage of Miss Lucille Newman to Everett Darnell at Hillsville, Virginia, December 24, with Rev. F. D. Smith officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newman and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jones Darnell.

They were accompanied to Virginia by Miss Iris Collins and Arvil Lawrence and Erastus Darnell who were the only witnesses to the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Darnell are making their home with the bride's parents in North Elkin.

Miss Fannie Sue Harris is Hostess to S. S. Class Tuesday

Miss Fannie Sue Harris entertained the members of her Sunday school class at her home on West Main Street Tuesday evening, with nine members and the class teacher, Mrs. T. L. Parnell, present.

During the business hour officers were elected as follows: president, Miss Fannie Sue Harris; vice-president, Miss Mattie Lee Eldson; treasurer, Miss Lorene Fulp, and group leaders, Misses Hoyland Harris and Beatrice Newman.

Refreshments were served during a social hour.

Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Haywood, Jr., Are Hosts at Dance

Of the most brilliant and widely attended social affairs of the holiday season was the formal dance given Thursday evening by Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Haywood, Jr., in the ballroom at Hotel Elkin. The ballroom was elaborately decorated for the occasion. Tall Christmas trees were used in either corner of the room and the ceiling was festooned with multi-colored balloons. An orchestra furnished music for the dancers.

At midnight a tempting breakfast was served.

The guest list included seventy-five. Egbert Haywood of Durham, brother of the host, was an out-of-town guest.

Patricia Harris Celebrates Seventh Birthday Anniversary

Patricia Harris was honored on her seventh birthday anniversary Saturday afternoon when her mother, Mrs. E. A. Harris, entertained at a lovely party at their home on West Main Street. The guest list included thirty-two boys and girls of a similar age. A medley of delightful games was enjoyed, under the direction of Mrs. Harris, assisted by Miss Mattie Mae Powell.

At the conclusion of the party the guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. Red was the chosen color for the decorations and it was emphasized in the appointments of the table and in the decorations of the handsome birthday cake.

Each of the little girls were presented dolls and the boys were given balloons as souvenirs of the delightful occasion.

Bailey-Wilkins Wedding is Solemnized Saturday Afternoon

Of widespread interest to friends here and elsewhere throughout the state is the wedding of Miss Sudie Wilkins and Glenn Whitaker Bailey, which was solemnized Saturday afternoon at Yadkinville at the Methodist parsonage, with Rev. I. L. Sharpe, Methodist minister, officiating.

The bride, a petite brunette, was becomingly attired in an ensemble of brown, with brown accessories. A shoulder corsage of Talisman roses and lily-of-the-valley completed her costume.

Mrs. Bailey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilkins of Jonesville. Mr. Bailey is the son of M. R. Bailey and the late Mrs. Bailey of Elkin and is associated with Elkin Furniture company. Both are popular with a host of friends.

They are temporarily at home with the bridegroom's father on Gwyn Avenue.

Miss Abernethy Honors Brides At Formal Tea

One of the most beautiful of the many social events of the holidays was the formal tea given Wednesday afternoon from four until six o'clock by Miss Olivia Abernethy at her home on West Main Street to honor a bevy of charming brides, Mrs. Ralph Fletcher, Mrs. Franklin Folger, Mrs. Roger Carter and Mrs. Fred Rash, the latter a bride of the year, who recently moved here from Lenoir.

The living room and sun room were brilliantly decorated with Yuletide colors of crimson and green and in the dining room a motif of blue and silver was observed.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. J. G. Abernethy, mother of the hostess, and presented to the receiving line, which was composed of the hostess and the honorees.

Misses Flora Royall and Sarah Click directed the guests to the dining room, where Mrs. Alden Hunt presided. Mrs. Wm. A. Jenkins and Mrs. E. F. McNear poured tea and Misses Margaret Abernethy, Louise Grier and Regina Meed served sandwiches and salted nuts.

Goodbyes were said to Miss Carolyn Lillard. Seventy-five guests called during the receiving hours.
