

CONCERNING THIS AND THAT

Although of a naturally sunny disposition we have been hearing so many mean cracks about the resemblance of ourself and the picture in the heading of this column that life has become just a bunch of woeses.

Not that we mind anyone stating it's a good resemblance, for one cannot help how one looks, can one? But it's this business of being told that the picture above is a very flattering likeness that makes us very sad.

In order to show that it is not flattering and isn't even a very good likeness, we are presenting herewith out latest photo, snapped in a worrying moment. There you have a likeness that you can paste up on the pantry wall and swear by—not at. There's a true likeness that you can hand down to your grandchildren—a likeness that should grow into a perfectly lovely antique.

This photo, pasted up in the pantry, will not only keep the mice away but will scare the children out of the jelly jar, which will be a nice saving for you. Mice, in a year's time, can easily do ten dollars' damage. Children in the jelly jar can do another ten dollars' damage. So, if you decide to paste this picture on the pantry wall, please send us a check for at least $15. We've got to live.

Yes, even with a face like that.

Those knees again! The other day a representative from the accident insurance company was here on an inspection trip, and he informed the boss that the fly wheel on the big press and other wheels and sharp, jutting pieces of machinery would have to have a guard built around for safety's sake.

GET UP NIGHTS DUE TO BLADDER IRRITATION?

It's not normal. It's nature's "Danger Signal." Make this 25c test. Use buchu leaves, juniper oil, and 6 other drugs, made into little green tablets called Bukets. Flush out excess acids and impurities. Excess acids can cause irritation resulting in getting up nights, scanty flow, frequent desire, burning, backache, and leg pains. Just say Bukets to your druggist. In four days if not pleased your 25c will be refunded. Turner Drug Co.

Then we happened to walk in and we had to talk ourself blue in the face to keep him from having guards built around the celebrated Browning kneest. He wouldn't have noticed us if he hadn't happened to brush against us and snagged a hole in his trousers on our left knee cap.

The following bit of poetry, written by Charlie "Longfellow" Wolfe, needs a bit of explanation so that those who read it may receive the fullest possible benefit. It seems that when King Edward abdicated in his love for Mrs. Simpson, three prominent Jonesville citizens cabled him an invitation to make Jonesville his home. The poem gives the details:

When Edward the king quit his throne,
Some of our townsmen sure did moan.
They said in unison "he's a good boy
So let's get together and send him great joy!
Let's send him a message, ere he should roam,
And say, dear David, make Jonesville your home!"

A committee was named, a committee of three
Instructed to act—feel perfectly free;
One was a carpenter—makes plenty of noise,
He always builds but never destroys.
One was a merchant, a merchant prince,
Who spent a dime once but never has since.
The last was a farmer who tills the soil
And has a hobby of peddling oil.
The message was paid for, after much drumming
And great was their joy, the reply "I am coming!"

Now this committee can surely wave banners
But when it comes to eating they have no manners.
So they agreed in harmony the thing to do
Was send to Elkin for a certain Jew
Who is full of manners, and you can bet
Will learn those boys their etiquette.

So I will close. This Jew you know
Is a clothing merchant whose name is ———?

Your guess is as good as ours.

Time stands still for no man; neither do time payments.

We've heard folks say, who ought to know better, that newspapering was a romantic profession. We don't know about that, but we do know its a big pain in the neck sometimes.

We sure do need rain.

BURCH

Rev. A. B. Hayes of Mountain Park preached at Little Richmond Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock instead of 11 o'clock as announced. The postponement was on account of the funeral of Muncie Cockerham at Rocky Ford Baptist church at 11 o'clock.

Those from other churches attending services at Little Richmond Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Coney Burton and family, Buck Burton, Rev. E. B. Draughan of Union Cross; Mr. and Mrs. Sid Hudspeth of North Elkin; Miss Jennie Joyner of State Road and Odell Collins of Elkin Valley. Special music for each service was rendered by Zolzie Parsons of Mountain View.

Mrs. Sanford White, who has been ill for several weeks, does not show any improvement her many friends will regret to know.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Snow and family of Booneville moved here the past week. They are residing in the M. B. Williamson residence.

Mrs. Emmie Hampton spent the week-end at Fairview the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sprinkle.

E. S. Sneed was the week-end guest of friends and relatives in North Elkin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sneed had as their dinner guests Sunday, Rev. A. B. Hayes and Zolzie Parsons of Mountain View, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Sneed and Miss Florence Carter.

Due to the bad roads and weather conditions, Rev. L. B. Murray of State Road did not fill his appointment at Little Richmond Baptist church Sunday evening.

Mrs. Roy Hampton has been ill for the past week, but is improving, we are glad to note.

Mrs. Ruth Park of Winston-Salem is spending several days here with her uncle, J. T. Ring.

Mrs. George Newman of North Elkin is spending several days here with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Jenkins.

Misses Sallie and Ruth Bryant of Rockford spent the week-end here the guests of Mrs. Dora Wood.

One of the largest crowds ever to attend a funeral service here gathered at Little Richmond Baptist church Thursday morning to pay last tribute to Mrs. J. T. Ring. Rev. T. S. Draughan of Crutchfield and Rev. Isom Vestal of Jonesville were in charge of the services.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank all the friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness during the illness and death of my wife. Also for the floral tributes.

"Can you tell me the quickest way to Main street my boy?" asked the driver of the ramshackle old car.

The boy looked the car over carefully. "Sure," he replied. "Take a street car."

She'll Try It

"My dear young lady," said the clergyman in grave tones, as he listened to the extremely modern young girl tear off some of the latest jazz on the piano. Have you ever heard of the ten commandments?"

Modern Young Lady: "Whistle a few bars and I think I can follow you."

Christopher Columbus, who claimed to be from Genoa, Italy, could not speak Italian.

THEIR GREATEST STORY! THEIR GREATEST GLORY!

Few films remain immortal... but we believe "One Way Passage" is just such a film! That's why we've brought it back for a triumphant return engagement.

SULU
Bird Dog
Queen

HERE is an action picture of the famous Sulu, the pointer who swept everything before her at National Field Trials of 1936 at Grand Junction, Tenn. Sulu, the queen of them all!

Thousands of bird dogs range the fields... but there's only one Sulu. To this glorious creature Nature gave her greatest gift, a perfect balance of the vital elements; speed, scent, endurance, instinct and intelligence. Another pointer may be just as good to look at, but Sulu has that vital spark—everything in perfect balance.

ance. So Sulu is the queen; the other is just a dog.

Just as Nature favored Sulu, she favored Natural Chilean Nitrate of Soda. Just as Sulu has many elements in Nature's balance, so has this nitrogen fertilizer. Nature aged and blended into Natural Chilean, more than thirty "impurities", or vital elements that your crops need to grow and to produce their best.

These vital elements are in addition to Natural Chilean's quick-acting nitrogen. That's why Natural Chilean is so good for your land and your crops.
