Party at Shores Home for Junior High Students
Having as guests students of the junior high school set, Fred Shores, Sammy Gambill and Dicky Shugart were hosts at an enjoyable party at the Shores home on Bridge Street Friday evening. Games were played throughout the evening.

Punch and wafers were served the twenty-five guests.

Parent-Teacher Association to Meet

The January meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held in the elementary school auditorium Tuesday afternoon, January 26, at 3:30. All members are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Salmons is Hostess to Book Club Thursday

Mrs. H. C. Salmons delightfully entertained members of the Thursday Afternoon Book Club at her home on Church Street Thursday afternoon at a social meeting. Rummy was played at four tables. In the final count of scores the prize for the afternoon went to Mrs. J. Mark McAdams.

Mrs. Archie Lanier was a special guest of the club. A tempting collation in two courses was served at the conclusion of the games.

World Politics is Subject for Year For Wednesday Study Club

Mrs. Errol Hayes was hostess to the members of the Wednesday Study Club at an enjoyable meeting at her home on Church street Wednesday afternoon. The home was decorated with bowls of forsythia and pussy willows.

"World Politics," is the subject for the year's study and "The Present Political Situation in England" was the subject for the month. Mrs. C. H. Brewer directed the program and current events on affairs in England were given by Mrs. Hugh Royall.

During the business session two new members, Mrs. A. B. Somers and Mrs. Howard Hatch, were enrolled. Club books for the year were distributed to the members.

A tempting collation was served during a pleasant social hour.

Members present were: Mesdames Marion Allen, C. H. Brewer, R. C. Freeman, Fred Neaves, Hugh Royall, A. L. Griffith, Fletcher Harris, A. B. Somers and Howard Hatch.

Baptist Inspirational Meeting Monday Afternoon

The monthly inspirational meeting of the circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church met in the church parlor Monday afternoon with twenty-one members present. The meeting opened with the hymn "Come Women, Wide Proclaim," followed by the scripture reading by Mrs. T. G. Harris and prayer by Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt. The watchword for the year "Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit saith the Lord God of Hosts," was repeated in unison by members as a part of the devotional.

The topic for the year's study is "In His Name Among All Nations, Beginning at Jerusalem," and the subject for the month was the "Anglo-Saxons." The topic was discussed by Mrs. T. G. Harris, program leader for the Naomi Shell circle, and Mesdames

Roy West, J. F. Cooke, R. L. Poin-dexter and Seaman Dobbins.

During the business session at which Mrs. F. M. Norman, president of the circle presided, routine matters were discussed. A special personal service program for the year will be a story hour for children, this to be in charge of Mesdames Eph Whisenhunt, T. L. Parnell and Silas Nichols. The place and hour to be decided later.

Mrs. Andrews, State President, Is Guest of Legion Auxiliary

Having as a special guest, Mrs. C. P. Andrews of Charlotte, state president of the American Legion Auxiliary, a dinner conference of the auxiliary was held Wednesday evening at Hotel Elkin.

Covers were placed for ten at a table reserved in the main dining room of the hotel.

Mrs. George Royall, president of the local unit, presided over the meeting and introduced Mrs. Andrews, who spoke on the program outlined by the Legion and the Auxiliary for the coming year, stressing particularly the widows and orphans pension bill and the universal service bill both of which will be presented to the seventy-fifth congress. Support of these bills by members of both groups is urged. The Fidac program for the year was also discussed.

BETHEL

Ronda, Route 2, Jan. 20. — Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mathis and family who lost their home last Tuesday evening by fire. The fire originated from gas being accidentally spilled, that was kept in the house to be used in the washing machine. So far as we have learned only a few articles were saved.

Owing to the continued rain and bad roads the school at Ronda has had to suspend again. Most all traveling has stopped, however the men who work at Elkin have been making the trips every day.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Max B. Pardue, a daughter, named Pansy.

Mrs. C. W. Gilliam and little son, Charlie, of Jonesville spent the second Saturday and Sunday here visiting Mrs. W. H. Jones and family.

Mr. Lincoln Triplett and family have moved from the Vannoy farm near here to a house on D. S. Gilliam's place and a Mr. Cook from near Cycle, in Yadkin county, has moved to the former place. Mr. and Mrs. Grady St. John have moved to the J. B. Armstrong place.

The rainy weather and bad roads has made it very difficult for the families who had to move recently. Miss Grace Burchette of Ronda is spending a few days here visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Burchette.

Mrs. W. H. Jones has been confined to her home suffering with tonsillitis.

A bricklayer working on the top of a high brick building accidentally dropped a brick on the head of a passing colored boy. "Be careful, big boy," yelled the darky "you made me bite my tongue."
