During the business hour three new members were enrolled. The program topic was "Chosen People in America" and was under the direction of Mrs. David Brendle. Refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour.

Kimmer-Byrd

The marriage of Miss Fannie Kimmer and Albert Byrd, both of Elkin, was quietly solemnized Sunday in Independence, Va., with Rev. L. D. Mayberry, pastor of the Independence Methodist church, officiating. The bride is the daughter of William Kimmer and the late Mrs. Kimmer of near Elkin. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Byrd and holds a position with the Southern Railway company here.

L. H. C. Club to Sponsor Dance For Flood Benefit

Members of the Lucy Hanes Chatham Club will sponsor a square dance at the club house Saturday evening, February 13, at 8:30 o'clock. The entire proceeds of the dance will go to the flood benefit.

Byron Bryan and his string band will furnish music for the dancers. Refreshments will be sold. A small admission fee will be charged.

A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend.

Parent-Teachers To Sponsor Local Talent Production

Plans are underway for the presentation of a home talent play, "Old Sweethearts of Mine," sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association, under the direction of Mrs. E. F. McNeer. February 25 has been set as a tentative date for the show. The cast is being selected and it will be comprised of sixty characters, including some of the most attractive young women of Elkin and Jonesville.

Full details of the show will be announced later.

Mrs. Harrell is Hostess to Bridge Club Thursday

Having as guests members of her bridge club and sufficient guests to complete two tables. Mrs. R. B. Harrell was hostess at a delightful bridge-luncheon at her home on West Main street Thursday. The St. Valentine motif was accentuated in the appointments of the tables.

The club award for high score went to Mrs. Conrad Hock at the conclusion of the play and the visitors prize to Mrs. Errol Hayes.

Members playing were: Mesdames Conrad Hock, A. L. Griffith, Carl Poindexter and C. H. Brewer. Additional guests were Mesdames R. G. Smith, Alex Chatham and Errol Hayes.

Day-Sparks

Of interest to friends here is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Edna Hill Day of Elkin to Howard Sparks of Jonesville, which was solemnized in Independence, Va., January 16, 1937, with the pastor of the Independence Methodist church officiating, using the ring ritual of the church.

Mrs. Sparks is the attractive daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Richard Day of this city. For her wedding she wore a dress of romance blue crepe with black accessories and a shoulder corsage of rosebuds.

Mr. Sparks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sparks of Jonesville.

They are residing in Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Young Entertain Newlyweds At Party Thursday

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fletcher and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard York, recently married couples, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young entertained at a lovely party at their home on Elk Spur street Thursday evening. The St. Valentine motif was accentuated in the decorations of the home and in the appointments of the tables. Three tables were made up for bridge. Miss Lucy Gray and Dick Evans were awarded high score prizes at the conclusion of a series of interesting progressions. Consolation prizes went to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard York.

Each of the brides were presented crystal candlesticks.

A tempting salad course with numerous accessories was served late in the evening.

Wednesday Afternoon Study Club Meets With Mrs. R. C. Freeman

Continuing the study of world politics, members of the Wednesday Afternoon Study Club enjoyed a program on the "Political Situation in Germany" Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. R. C. Freeman on Church street. Mrs. Marion Allen, program chairman for the month, was in charge of the program and gave a comprehensive study of the Hitler regime. News events of interest were given by Mrs. Fred Neaves.

A two course collation was served during a pleasant social hour at the conclusion of the program. Members present were: Mesdames A. B. Somers, Howard Hatch, Hugh Royall, R. B. Harrell, Fletcher Harris, A. L. Griffith, Errol Hayes, Marion Allen, Fred Neaves, C. H. Brewer and J. H. Beeson.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer Entertain Fortnightly Bridge Club

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brewer entertained the members of the Fortnightly Bridge Club at an enjoyable meeting at Hotel Elkin Thursday evening. Upon the arrival of the guests a tempting dinner was served in the main dining room of the hotel at a table elaborately decorated in the St. Valentine motif. Covers were placed for twelve. Following the dinner the guests were invited to the Brewers' suite, where bridge was played at three tables. The club award for high score went to Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen at the conclusion of the play. Mrs. R. G. Smith received the visitor's prize.

Those making up the tables were: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gwyn, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Brewer.

"National Defense" is Topic for Legion Auxiliary Program

Mrs. Marion Allen and Mrs. Paul Gwyn entertained the members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion at the home of Mrs. Allen on Church street Monday evening, with fourteen members and one visitor present. Mrs. George Royall, president of the auxiliary, presided over the business session, which featured routine reports and business.

The program was in charge of Mrs. D. C. Martin, who used as her subject "National Defense." Humorous readings by little Cynthia Allen and a solo, "Sylvia," by Mrs. J. H. Beeson were enjoyed. Miss Emma Cooke was guest speaker for the evening and she gave a most interesting talk on the chosen subject.

Sandwiches and punch were served during a pleasant social hour at the conclusion of the program.

"It's a Boy"

LONDON, Eng. . . . Mu Swai, of the Burma tribe whose women wear huge rings around their necks, is shown above with her newly arrived seven-pound son, at a hospital here. "Thank goodness he's a boy," says Mu Swai, "no neck rings for him."

Plans In Readiness For Benefit Parties Friday

Plans are in readiness for the benefit card parties to be held Friday afternoon and evening at Hotel Elkin. Play will begin at 2:30 in the afternoon and 8 o'clock in the evening.

Those desiring reservations are asked to call either Mesdames C. L. Haywood, Jr., Hugh Parks or Conrad Hock. Attractive and valuable prizes have been donated by local merchants. Prizes will be awarded on a graduated scale, high scores having preference. In addition to the prizes a number of cakes will be raffled.

Those making up the tables are asked to bring their own cards. Other table appointments will be furnished. Mrs. Errol Hayes is in charge of the decorations.

The parties are sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital and the proceeds will go to the work of the auxiliary. A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend.

Refreshments will be served both afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Lanier is Hostess at Party Tuesday Afternoon

Mrs. Archie Lanier entertained at a delightful bridge party Tuesday afternoon at her home on Gwyn Avenue. Three tables were placed for the games. Spring flowers and St. Valentine decorations were used in the home. At the close of the play Mrs. Richard Chatham received the high score trophy. Mrs. Fred Rash received the honor award and the consolation prize went to Mrs. Howard Hatch.

When the cards were removed the tables were centered with heart shaped candleholders, holding lighted tapers, further suggesting the St. Valentine season. A salad course, followed by a sweet course, was served.

Those enjoying Mrs. Lanier's hospitality were: Mesdames Howard Hatch, Richard Chatham, Fred Rash, Conrad Hock, Roger Carter, P. M. Greene, C. H. Brewer, Franklin Folger, R. M. Hudgins and James Booher. Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Munsey

Slack, of Bristol, Tenn., guest of Mrs. James Booher, and Mrs. M. C. Comer of Raleigh, guest of Mrs. R. M. Hudgins.
