Parent-Teachers To Meet Tuesday

The monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held Tuesday afternoon, February 23, at 3:30, in the elementary school auditorium. All members are requested to attend.

Methodist S. S. Enjoys Valentine Party Friday

The high school pupils of the Sunday school of the Methodist church enjoyed a St. Valentine party Friday evening at the church. Games and contests were enjoyed, under the direction of Mrs. George Royall. The party was sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Society of the church. Sandwiches and hot chocolate were served the 32 guests at the conclusion of the games.

Benefit Parties Are Success; Big Sum Realized for Auxillary

A total of $59.50 was realized from the benefit parties sponsored Friday afternoon and evening at Hotel Elkin by the Woman's Auxillary of Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital, according to a statement by Mrs. A. O. Bryan, president of the auxillary. Attractive and valuable prizes, donated by local merchants and business firms were awarded at each party. Mrs. Bryan and the association as a whole wish to express their sincere appreciation for the fine cooperation and interest, especially to the business men for their donations and to Mesdames C. L. Haywood, Jr., Hugh Parks, Errol Hayes, Conrad Hock, C. H. Brewer and Marion Allen, who served as chairmen.

Whitaker-Axson

Of interest to friends in this section is the marriage of Miss Stella Whitaker and Gurney Axson, both of the Burch community. The wedding was solemnized Saturday, February 13, in Dobson.

The bride is the daughter of Ira Whitaker and the late Mrs. Eliza White Whitaker and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Axson.

They are making their home with the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. Salmons is Hostess to Mason Lillard Bible Class

Mrs. H. C. Salmons entertained the Mason Lillard Bible Class of the Methodist Sunday school at the regular business-social meeting at her home on Church Street Monday evening, with ten members present.

Miss Blanche Dixon, class president, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals.

The program consisted of current news events of interest given by each member.

Refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour at the conclusion of the business meeting.

Young Matrons Class Meets

The Young Matrons class of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church met in the church parlor Tuesday evening in the regular monthly business session with eleven members present.

The meeting was opened with the class song, followed by the scripture reading and prayer. Routine matters were discussed during the business session. The meeting adjourned with the class benediction repeated in unison by the members.

Williams-Combs Vows Solemnized

Miss Catherine Williams and Edward Combs, both of Reidsville, were united in marriage Sunday, February 7, at Grassy Creek Methodist church, near Elkin. Rev. T. G. Williams of Ronda, pastor of the church and father of the bride, officiated, using the impressive ring ritual of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Rev. Williams of Ronda, and the late Mrs. Williams. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Combs of Reidsville, Route 1, and is connected with the City Barber Shop there.

They are making their home at 237 Lawsonville Avenue, Reidsville.

Thursday Book Club Meets With Mrs. Mason Lillard

Members of the Thursday Book Club were delightfully entertained Thursday by Mrs. Mason Lillard at her home on Gwyn Avenue. The home was artistically decorated with early spring flowers. Dominoes were played at three tables, Mrs. G. P. Dockery received the high score award at the conclusion of the play.

New club books for the year were distributed during the business meeting and other routine matters were dispatched.

A tempting collation in two courses was served.

Members present were: Mesdames W. W. Whitaker, Wm. R. Wellborn, G. P. Dockery, H. C. Salmons, George Royall, Edwirth Harris, F. W. Graham, E. C. Boyles, J. P. Ippock and J. G. Abernethy. Mrs. Wm. A. Jenkins was a special guest.

The dinners are being staged to raise funds to wipe out the national party deficit and to celebrate the fourth anniversary of President Roosevelt's inauguration.

JONESVILLE, R. 1

The farmers in this community are very busy preparing and sowing tobacco beds, getting ready for the coming crop.

Rev. I. W. Vestal filled his regular appointment at Cool Springs Saturday and Sunday.

Among the visitors at the home of C. J. Henric Sunday were Rev. E. C. Norman and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Norman of East Bend,

R. 1, and Mr. John Chappel of Jonesville, R. 1.

Hilda Gay, little granddaughter of Rev. and Mrs. I. W. Vestal has been right sick with pneumonia at the home of her grandparents this week.

Mrs. Bruce Gregory of Winston-Salem, has recovered sufficiently from a very serious operation to be removed to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Vestal.

Misses Frances and Mildred Gregory spent the week-end with their aunt, Miss Jessie Lee Vestal.

The people in this community were shocked at the news of the sudden death of Uncle Bob Martin Friday night.

Mrs. Worth Brown shows little improvement from an attack of flu.
