Edna White Dillon Celebrates Third Birthday

Edna White Dillon celebrated her third birthday anniversary Saturday afternoon with a delightful party at the home of her father, Van W. Dillon, on West Main street. The home was decorated with a wealth of spring flowers and symbols of Easter and St. Patrick's Day. For finding the most Easter eggs Bobby James was awarded an attractive prize and in a drawing contest the prize went to Jennie Lee Transou. Story telling, by Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt, was also enjoyed.
In the dining room a handsome two-tier birthday cake centered the table. This was surrounded by flowers and fluffy chickens in Easter colors. Ices and cake were served and favors were candy eggs, wrapped in brilliant cellophans, and noisemakers.
The guest list included twenty little girls and boys.

Ronda, route 2, March 8.—The bright sunny day last Sunday brought much happiness and cheer to everybody who was blessed with the privilege of going to church and to visit their friends and loved ones, also made glad hearts for the shut-ins.

Funeral and burial was held for the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gray of Maryland, at Pleasant Grove church last Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Gray's home was formerly at Pleasant Grove. Many relatives from this community attended the rites.

Miss Edith McCall of the Ronda school faculty, and June Burchett were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Burchett last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Pardue and family visited relatives in the Brier Creek community last Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Green and family had as their guests last Sunday her sons and daughter-in-law, Hugh G. Green and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green, all of Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stroud and son, Ray, of Wilkesboro, Mrs. J. B. Armstrong and Mrs. Louis Ferlazzo, of Winston-Salem, visited their mother, Mrs. C. W. Gilliam, Sr., here last Sunday. Mrs. Gilliam has been ill for the past three weeks, but is improving some.

Goy Vestal, from Greensboro, spent a while with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Vestal, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McBride, their son, Clyde, and their grandson, Billy McBride, visited Mr. and Mrs. Lytle McBride at Greensboro last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. McBride went to see their new granddaughter, little Martha Jane McBride.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Triplett spent a while last Sunday afternoon with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Triplett, at Jonesville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gilliam, Jr., and little son, Charlie, of Jonesville, visited Mrs. Gilliam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Melton, last Saturday night, and spent a while with the former's mother Sunday.

Some of our folks attended the singing at North Elkin last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Jones Vanhoy from North Elkin, visited her mother and family, here, last Saturday, and attended the funeral of her cou-
