Parent-Teacher Meeting Postponed

The Parent-Teacher meeting, observing Father's Night, scheduled for Tuesday of next week, has been postponed until the evening of April 9. C. W. Phillips, of Greensboro, public relations representative of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, and former principal of Greensboro high school, will be guest speaker for the meeting.

Mrs. George Chatham, Sr., Is Feted on Birthday

Honoring Mrs. George Chatham, Sr. on her birthday anniversary, members of her family entertained at a surprise dinner Sunday at the Chatham home on Bridge Street. A color scheme of yellow, green and white was carried out in detail in the appointments of the three course dinner. The table was centered with a huge, two-tier birthday cake.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. George Chatham, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. George Chatham, Jr., and daughter, Peggy, Mr. and Mrs. Edworth Harris and son, Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Greenwood, all of Elkin; and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Mayberry and son, Dicky, from Winston-Salem.

Collins-Royall

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Jessie Lee Collins and Joe Royall. The marriage was solemnized Saturday in Virginia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Collins and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Nancy Royall and the late Daniel Royall, all of Elkin. Both are popular with a host of friends.

Mr. Royall is employed at Elkin Furniture company. They will reside at present with the bride's parents.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Louis Collins entertained at a family dinner in honor of the bridal couple, having as guest members of the immediate families and a few friends. Dinner was served picnic style.

Mrs. Ashby Is Hostess To Friday Bridge Club

Mrs. Chas. G. Ashby entertained members of the Friday Bridge Club and several additional guests at an enjoyable bridge-luncheon Friday morning at her home on Bridge street. In the spirited progressions the club award for high score went to Mrs. A. B. Somers and the visitor's prize to Mrs. R. M. Hudgins.

When the cards were laid aside a tempting luncheon was served. Easter colors of yellow and purple were accentuated in the appointments of the luncheon.

Members playing were: Mrs. James Poindexter, Mrs. Errol Hayes, Mrs. Paul Gwyn, Mrs. A. B. Somers and Mrs. R. C. Freeman. Additional guests were Mrs. R. M. Hudgins, Mrs. Conrad Hock and Miss Maudie Greenwood.

Mollie Dobbins Is Honored On Tenth Birthday

Mollie Dobbins was honored on her tenth birthday Saturday, when her mother, Mrs. J. C. Dobbins entertained in the afternoon at a party at their home on Elk Spur street. The home was decorated with spring flowers and symbols of Easter. Outdoor and indoor games were enjoyed.

A huge birthday cake, decorated in pink and white, and bearing ten candles, was the central decoration in the dining room where ices, cake and fruits were served. Favors were Easter baskets filled with candy.

The guest list included the honoree and the following friends: Mildred Freeman, Gertrude Pulp, Mary Windsor, Peggy Lineberry, Sarah Sappenfield, Betty Jo Minor, Frances Lovelace, Billy Newman, Betty Jo Eidson, Wilma Lou Nichols and Betty Jo Young.

Adams-Steelman Wedding Vows Spoken at Boonville

Of interest to friends of the couple is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ruby Steelman of Boonville and Frear Adams of Yadkinville and Elkin, which was solemnized in Boonville Monday. Rev. Charles Hutchens, pastor of the Forbush church, heard the vows.

The bride was becomingly dressed in a spring suit of gray with navy accessories. She is the daughter of H. J. Steelman and the late Mrs. Steelman and is a graduate of Boonville high school. For sometime she has been employed in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Adams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Adams of Yadkinville. He is a member of the sales force at Abernethy's Drug store here.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams will be temporarily at home with the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. Adams is a sister of Mrs. Leslie Reinhardt of Elkin.

Mrs. Spainhour Is Hostess to Club Wednesday

Mrs. E. S. Spainhour entertained at a delightful party at Hotel Elkin Wednesday, having as guests members of her bridge club and several out-of-town visitors. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock from a table in the main dining room. The table was centered with a bouquet of snapdragons and place cards were in the St. Patrick motif. Covers were placed for twelve.

During the afternoon bridge was enjoyed at three tables. The club award for high score went to Mrs. Raymond Chatham and the visitor's prize to Mrs. C. H. Weedon.

Mrs. Harold Messenger of Hartford, Conn., guest of Mesdames Alex and Raymond Chatham, Mesdames C. H. Weedon and Foad Coates of Detroit, Mich., guests of Mrs. R. M. Chatham, and Mrs. Mable Doughton Davis of High Point, guest of Mrs. R. B. Harrell, were each given a lovely remembrance.

Baptist Inspirational Meeting Monday Afternoon

The monthly inspirational meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist church met in the church parlor Monday afternoon, with thirty members and one visitor present. Mrs. F. M. Norman, general president, presided over the business meeting, which featured routine reports.

The program was in charge of the Emma Leechman circle. The devotional period was in charge of Mrs. Chas. Alexander and Miss Emma Cooke read the lesson from Royal Service.

Mrs. W. W. Jones of Charlotte, who was the guest of Mrs. E. C. James, was guest speaker. Mrs. Jones, who formerly served as a missionary to Brazil, made a most interesting and inspiring talk.

The attendance pin was won by the Emma Leechman circle, Mrs. T. L. Parnell, leader.

The Sunbeam Band met in the church auditorium at the same time, with a splendid program under the direction of Mrs. Oscar Darnell, leader.

Officers Elected For Jonathan Hunt Chapter D. A. R.

At a meeting of the Jonathan Hunt Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the home of Mrs. W. R. Wellborn on Bridge street, Thursday afternoon, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Regent, Miss Ruth Reeves; vice-regent, Mrs. Joe Bivins; secretary, Mrs. Wm. A. Jenkins; treasurer, Miss Sadie Franklin; registrar, Mrs. Wm. R. Wellborn; historian, Mrs. R. A. Doughton, and president of the Hugh Montgomery Chapter C. A. R., Mrs. Fred McNeely.

Delegates to the annual meeting in Charlotte were also appointed. Mrs. Edwin Duncan and Mrs. Joe Bivins were appointed to represent the chapter and Miss Ruth Reeves will serve as a page.

A splendid report of the year's activities was prepared by the retiring regent, Mrs. Edwin Duncan and read at the meeting. Various civic matters and cooperative activities of the D. A. R. have claimed the attention of the local chapter during the past year.

A brief program was enjoyed at the close of the business session. During a social hour the hostess served a tempting and beautifully appointed refreshment course.

Sally-Napoleon must have been quite a boy in his day. Hopemore-Mebbe so, but he's a bust now.
