SPRING DAYS ARE GO AHEAD SIGNAL

Mean Beginning by Farmers of Annual Task of Getting Crops Started

TO OFFER SUGGESTIONS

Warm spring days give North Carolina farmers the go-ahead signal for their annual task of getting crops started.

Cotton and tobacco, the State's two largest cash crops, are beginning to receive a great deal of attention as growers have begun to plant their cotton seed and set out their tobacco plants.

Then, too, gardeners and truck growers are planting vegetables in preparation for family needs and commercial markets.

In practically every phase of farm activity, a multitude of new work has been added to the farmer's and farm wife's daily chores.

Realizing that this flurry of spring activity calls for timely advice, specialists at State College are prepared to offer suggestions and aids on the Carolina Farm Features radio program, heard over a number of North Carolina stations.

The schedule in full for the week of March 29-April 3 follows: Monday, Dr. C. D. Grinnells, "Spring Care of Cattle;" Tuesday, L. W. Whitford, "Pond Scums;" Wednesday, H. R. Tolley, "The 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program" (WPTF); Thursday, Miss Sue Koon, "Home Demonstration Progress in Chatham County;" Friday, H. C. Gauger, "Let's Raise Chicks Right;" and Saturday, Harnett county 4-H program.

Lost She came into the police station with a picture in her hand. "My husband has disappeared," she sobbed. "Here is his picture, I want you to find him."

The sergeant looked up from the photograph. "Why?" he asked.

(Continued from front page) At 12:30 p. m. Thursday chickens will be released from the top of the Elkin National Bank building, a popular feature of Elkin Bargain Days. Those catching the fowls will keep them.

Features of the program Friday, in addition to the mule race, will be a contest for the heaviest woman and heaviest man. Prizes of $5.00 each will be awarded. A prize of $10.00 will be given to the largest family. All members must be present in order to win. These contests will be held at 11 a. m.

At 12:45 Friday afternoon a pony race will be staged, provided as many as five ponies are entered. First prize will be $5.00 cash and second prize $2.50 cash. At 1:30 p. m., following the mule race, more chickens will be released from the top of the Elkin National Bank building.
