

LOANS MONEY AND GETS NO INTEREST

Banker Makes Loans to Farm Boys, and So Far He Has Not Lost A Nickel

IS AN UNUSUAL HOBBY

Cyril, Okla., April 3.—T. D. Call, is a banker by profession and a lender of money without interest to needy farm boys by inclination—and he's never lost a nickel through his generosity.

Three years ago Call, executive vice president of the Bank of Cyril, decided to branch out from loans with cash interest to loans with the only interest the welfare of farm boys of this small community.

He estimated today he had lent $3,700 to 80 boys in three years, and about $2,000 of that has been repaid. It all will be repaid, Call predicted.

The only security demanded, Call said, "is a willingness to work."

Each year, Banker Call has a party—he brings the ducks too—and the boys make that an occasion to repay their loans.

What prompted Call in his unusual hobby?

"I believe that as a community grows, so the bank grows," Call said. "Helping farm boys is the best way I know to help a community grow."

LYRIC TO SHOW GOOD FEATURES

Mae West in "Go West Young Man," Wallace Beery in "Old Hutch," Buck Jones Coming

On Thursday only, patrons will be treated to "Go West, Young Man," starring the lady who wants folks to "come up and see me sometime"—Mae West. Included in the cast is Warren William and Randolph Scott.

Friday, for one day only, another excellent feature will be shown: Wallace Beery in "Old Hutch," said to top "Ah Wilderness" and "Min and Bill," for heartaches and hilarity all served in one dish.

Saturday an excellent western thrillodrama will be shown, starring Buck Jones, popular western star, in "Ride 'Em Cowboy." In addition, a cartoon, serial and comedy will be on tap.

Heh!

Two gentlemen, strangers to each other, chanced to be wandering farther and farther down the darkening corridors of an ancient picture gallery. One of them, shivering slightly, said: "Rather spooky, isn't it?"

"Do you believe in ghosts?" encountered the second.

"No," said the first speaker, "do you?"

"Yes," said the other—and vanished.
