The home was decorated with lilac, iris and dogwood. Wafers and punch were served during the evening.

Music Week to be Observed at Final Woman's Club Meeting

The final meeting of the Elkin Woman's Club will be held Thursday afternoon, May 6, at Hotel Elkin. As is the custom of the club the meeting will be in celebration of National Music Week. Due to the fact that the guest artist for the meeting, R. G. Cox, of Winston-Salem, talented musician, could not be here on Tuesday the meeting date was changed to Thursday. A worthwhile program will be presented by Mr. Cox and all club members are

Miss Hendren Is Hostess To O. B. H. Club

Miss Mary Hendren delightfully entertained the O. B. H. Club at her home on West Main street Tuesday evening, with a full membership attendance. Lilies, tulips and narcissi were used in profusion in the living room, where three tables were placed for dominoes. The club award for high score went to Miss Betty Allen at the conclusion of the games.

A tempting salad course was served late in the evening.

Members attending were Misses Betty Allen, Ola Angell, Blanche Dixon, Effie Crater, Alice Dixon, Maude Greenwood, Sadie Franklin, Ned Ball, Elizabeth Anderson, Betty Harris, Ophelia Paul and Grace Cockerham.

Mrs. Haywood Is Hostess to Two-Four Club

Limiting her guests to members of the Two-Four Bridge Club, Mrs. C. L. Haywood, Jr., was hostess at an enjoyable bridge-luncheon at her home on Hospital Road Thursday. Luncheon was served at one o'clock. The lovely table, where covers were placed for eight, was centered with a bouquet of mixed garden flowers.

During the afternoon bridge was enjoyed. The club award for high score went to Mrs. E. C. Grier at the conclusion of the play.

Those making up the tables were: Mrs. Paul Gwyn, Mrs. A. O. Bryan, Mrs. J. R. Pindexter, Miss Maude Greenwood, Mrs. E. C. Grier, Mrs. Ruohs Pyron, Mrs. E. S. Spainhour and Mrs. Haywood.

Bridge-Dinners Are Given By Mr. and Mrs. Bryan

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Bryan entertained at two parties at their home on West Main street last week. Each evening a bridge-dinner was enjoyed. The home was decorated with a profusion of tulips and lilacs.

On Friday evening thirty guests enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Bryan's hospitality. Scoring honors went to Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Spainhour for the highest number of points, the runner-up prize went to Mrs. Thomas Roth and the consolation prize to Mrs. Paul Gwyn.

Saturday evening six tables were in play. Mrs. Rich Chatham and Dr. Hugh Parks won the high score awards and the runner-up prize went to Mrs. A. B. Somers. Mrs. Franklin Folger won the consolation prize.

Garden Club Meets With Mrs. J. F. Hendren Thursday Afternoon

Mrs. J. F. Hendren entertained the members of the Yadkin Valley Garden Club at an enjoyable meeting at her home on West Main street Thursday afternoon. The home was beautifully decorated with a wealth of garden flowers.

Mrs. J. L. Hall was program chairman for the month and presented an interesting study on spring flowers. She was assisted by Mesdames H. C. Salmons, J. H. Beeson and E. C. James. Mrs. E. G. Click told of a recent visit to Magnolia gardens.

Officers Elected For P.T. A.; Mrs. Haywood To Head Association

The final meeting of the school year of the Parent-Teacher Association was held Tuesday afternoon at the elementary school, with a splendid attendance. In celebration of National Music Week, Mrs. H. P. Graham, program chairman, presented a musical program. The first number was a group of songs by the fifth grades. Other numbers were two vocal selections by Mrs. J. H. Beeson; a piano solo by Peggy Royal; a reading "One, Two, Three," by Glenda Norman, and a vocal quartette, "April Eyes," by Mesdames E. F. McNeer, H. P. Graham, E. G. Click and Fred Colhard.

Mrs. E. C. James, president, presided over the business session, which featured annual reports from the various committees. Mrs. E. F. McNeer, chairman of the ways and means committee, reported that a total in excess of $230 had been raised by the organization this year. One of the major activities being the standardization of the school library. The school is now listed among the standard eight months schools of the state. Other books will have to be added to the library to uphold the standard for the next year.

Miss Flora Royal, elementary school librarian, thanked the association for subscriptions to various magazines for the library and for having the library catalogued. Miss Mable Sale, who has been in charge of rebinding a number of library books, displayed an exhibition of her work.

The bride and groom entered the church together. The bride
