

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY CAPITAL

Dobson, May 10.—Henry Hampton, Robert Badgett and Emory Freeman returned Thursday from Federal Court in Winston-Salem, where they served as jurors.

Jack Folger of Mount Airy, spent the week-end in Dobson.

Misses Kathryn Comer and Mamie Whitlock of Bluefield, W. Va., spent the week-end with Miss Emma Comer.

Miss Lucille Freeman of Randleman, spent the past week-end with her mother, Mrs. Maude Freeman.

Little Miss Marianne Mock spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. A. D. Folger, in Mount Airy.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Marion received a wire Thursday informing them of the critical illness of their daughter, Miss Maude Marion, of Philadelphia, who underwent an operation for acute appendicitis. A later message came that her condition is satisfactory.

A musical program was given in the school auditorium Friday afternoon by the primary and grammar grades, under the efficient supervision of Mrs. Frederick Smith, with Miss Edythe Reece, accompanist. The program consisted of songs and dances, and the children showed very careful and efficient training.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Riddle and daughter, Susie Waugh, of Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Poole and Sam, Jr., of Greensboro, spent Mother's Day with Mrs. Sallie Folger.

Mrs. J. W. Crawford entertained at six tables of hearts Friday evening, honoring Mrs. Alton Cobb, a recent bride. Mrs. Edwin Reid won high score prize, Yardley's dusting powder, while Mrs. B. F. Folger a runner up, received a DuBarry week end set.

Mrs. J. H. Gentry received as consolation a box of Yardley's sachets. Mrs. Cobb, honor guest, was presented a silver ice tray.

At the conclusion of play the hostess served a delicious salad course with tea, supplemented with sweets.

Attorney and Mrs. A. D. Folger, Attorney and Mrs. W. L. Reece and Miss Edythe Reece went to Winston-Salem Thursday afternoon, to attend the wedding of Joseph M. Reece to Miss Ann Brown Nash, in the First Baptist church at 8 o'clock Thursday evening. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Ralph Herring, pastor of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, after which the newly weds left for northern cities.

Mrs. Paul Folger and Miss Kathryn Folger were joint hostesses to 40 invited guests Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Cobb. Bridge contract and Pollyanna were played, while others enjoyed dancing. Miss Edythe Reece scored highest at contract and received a double deck of cards. Miss Hazel Martin was given cards for high score in Pollyanna. R. C. Lewellyn received the prize for men's high score in contract, a box of men's Yardley powder. J. W. Crawford was winner of the Pollyanna high score for men and was also presented Yardley powder. Mrs. Folger and Miss Folger gave to their honor guest, Mrs. Cobb, a lovely vase. A sumptuous refreshment course was served by the hostesses, consisting of salads, sandwiches, sweets and coffee. Punch was served during the games. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Folger of Elkin, Miss Lucille Freeman of Randleman and Captain Anderson.

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Cobb, recent bride and groom of Dobson, Miss Verdye Jackson entertained at the home of Mrs. W. E. Reid Thursday evening. Beautiful cut flowers made a colorful background in the living room and dining room, where tables were placed for contract. The high score prize for ladies went to Mrs. A. D. Folger of Mount Airy. Gentleman's prize was awarded to A. D. Folger and the runner-up to Miss Emma Comer. The hostess presented to Mr. and Mrs. Cobb silver in their selected pattern. Tempting refreshments emphasizing the bridal motif were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Myrtle Burgess, Mrs. F. F. Riggs and Mrs. W. E. Reid.

"FOUR BITS"
The teacher was testing the knowledge of the kindergarten class. Slapping a half dollar on the desk, she said sharply, "What is that?"
Instantly a voice from the back row, "Tails."

BETHEL
Ronda, route 2, May 10.—The fine services held at Bethel church here last Sunday were well attended by a large congregation including many visitors both at the morning and evening meeting, also a good crowd at Sunday school. The pastor, Rev. E. J. Pardue, preached at both services. An offering was taken for the Baptist hospital at Winston-Salem at the eleven o'clock hour. Temporarily, the Saturday afternoon service has been changed to Sunday evening every second Sunday.

Why Not Enjoy the EXTRA ADVANTAGES of Electric Cookery?"
Asks Reddy Kilowatt!
"It's just as easy to purchase an electric range as it is an ordinary cook stove."
"And, according to the testimony of thousands of housewives for whom I have been cooking for a long time, it will cost you no more to use my service on your electric range than it is costing you to cook with other fuels."
"I am in deadly earnest about this thing. I can literally transform your kitchen, saving you hours of labor, making your kitchen comfortable, making your work pleasanter."
"Madam, you can't afford NOT to have me in your kitchen."
