Miss Powell Is Hostess To Book Club Friday

Miss Mattie Mae Powell entertained the members of the Friday Book Club at an enjoyable meeting at her home on West Main street Friday evening. Rummy was played at two tables. Club awards went to Mrs. Edworth Harris and Mrs. H. B. Holcomb for high and low scores.

Mrs. Parks Hampton was a special guest of the club. Tempting refreshments were served when the cards were removed.

Mr. and Mrs. Somers Entertain Bridge Club

Members of the Fomnightly Bridge Club enjoyed a delightful bridge-dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers on Church Street Friday evening. Dinner was served upon the arrival of the guests at seven o'clock and during the evening bridge was enjoyed. The club award for high score went to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gwyn at the conclusion of a series of interesting progressions.

Members playing were: Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poindexter, Dr. and Mrs. R. E.

Young Matrons Class Meets

The Young Matrons Class of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Buford Hurd on Bridge street, with Mrs. George Chatham, Jr., associate hostess, with twenty-one members and two visitors present.

The meeting opened with the class song in unison and the devotional period in charge of Mrs. Silas Nichols. Mrs. L. M. Stewart, class president, presided over the business meeting.

During a pleasant social hour games and contests were enjoyed. Little Miss Peggy Chatham delighted the guests with a vocal selection.

Tempting refreshments were served.

Mrs. McNeer Honors Seniors With Buffet Supper

Honoring members of the Senior class of the high school, Mrs. E. F. McNeer was hostess at a lovely buffet supper Tuesday evening at her home on Church street. The lovely home was decorated throughout with a wealth of garden flowers. Mrs. McNeer was assisted in entertaining by Miss Alice Dixon.

Following the supper hearts dice was played at five tables. Miss Mary Elizabeth Foster and Raymond Hanks received the high score trophies and Misses Mattie Eidson and Virginia Lawrence received the consolation awards.

Twenty-three guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. McNeer.

Miss Franklin Is Hostess To O. B. H. Club

Miss Sadie Franklin was hostess to the O. B. H. Club at the last meeting of the club year at her home on West Main street Tuesday evening, with a full membership in attendance. Mrs. James Paul of Wilmington, who is the guest of Mrs. W. E. Paul, was a special guest of the club. Hearts were played at three tables. The club award for high score went to Miss Maude Greenwood and Mrs. Paul was presented a lovely remembrance.

Lovely spring flowers in brilliant colors made a pretty setting for the players.

A tempting refreshment course was served late in the evening.

Mrs. Thurman H. Walls Is Hostess at All-Day Party Thursday

Fifty neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Thurman Walls east of town Thursday, for an all-day quilting party. With much conversation and the busy ply of needles the day quickly passed. At noon they were invited into the dining room for an old-fashioned Southern dinner.

Out-of-community guests were: Mrs. W. L. Ray of Winston-Salem, Mrs. Ruth Park, Mrs. Ralph Spaugh, Mrs. J. L. Phelps and Mrs. Woodrow Park of Clemmons, Mrs. L. G. Hurt and Mrs. John Hurt of Ronda, Mrs. R. C. Felts, Mrs. T. W. Church and Mrs. Fannie Salmons of Elkin.

Elkin-Jonesville Seniors Are Honored Friday Evening

Having as guests members of the Senior Classes of both Elkin and Jonesville schools, Louis Mitchell of the Lyric Theatre and George Royall at Turner Drug company were hosts at an enjoyable party Friday evening. Following the showing of "My Man Godfrey" the guests were invited to Turner's for refreshments. A color scheme of red and white, the colors of both classes, was effected in the appointments of the tables. Each table was centered with a bouquet of roses, the class flower.

Each guest was presented an individual box of candy and a miniature doll dressed in the traditional cap and gown. In drawing for prizes, Louise Tulbert of the Elkin school and Dothan Reece of the Jonesville school were each presented a Sheaffer's pen. Ices and individual cakes were served.

Tea Is Given Monday By Home Economics Class

Monday afternoon from four until five-thirty, members of the Home Economics class of the high school received at a tea in honor of their mothers. The affair was held in the home economics department of the high school. Miss Margaret Cragan, class instructor, greeted the guests and they were conducted by the students through the entire department. On display were articles of clothing and other things made by the students during the year. Scrapbooks on home furnishings and arrangement with write-ups of home projects the girls have done, were also displayed.

This has been a very successful year with the newly-added subject to the curriculum and much credit goes to Miss Cragan. During the year the girls have served four banquets and held open house.

Cookies and iced tea were served the mothers who called.

Mesdames Royall and Phillips Entertain Legion Auxiliary

Mrs. George Royall and Mrs. Beatrice Myers Phillips were hostesses to the Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion at the home of Mrs. Royall on Church street Monday evening, with seventeen members present. Mrs. Royall, president of the auxiliary, presided over the meeting, which opened with the ritual. Only routine business was discussed.

The program for the month was on "Poppy Day" and the subject was all presented by Mrs. Marion Allen.

Mrs. Fred McNeely, chairman of the poppy day sales, which will be held Saturday, May 29, presented plans for the day's activities, which were approved by the auxiliary.

Mrs. I. C. Yates was enrolled as a new member. Refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour at the conclusion of the meeting.

Former Elkin Man Marries In Winston-Salem

In a beautiful and impressive ceremony Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist church in Winston-Salem Miss Ann Brown Nash was united in marriage to Joseph Montgomery Reece. Dr. Ralph Herring, pastor of the church officiated.

Mrs. Reece is the charming and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Nash of Winston-Salem. She is a graduate of Agnes Scott College, where she received an A. B. degree.

Mr. Reece is the son of the late Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Reece of this city and is well and favorably known here, his boyhood home. He is an alumnus of the University of North Carolina and is now connected with the Brown Williamson Tobacco Company with headquarters in Petersburg, Va., where he and his bride will make their home.

Mr. Reece was attended by James Paul of Wilmington, formerly of Elkin, as best man.

A number of local people attended the wedding and a dinner given prior to the wedding by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse B. Glenn, Mrs. Glenn being the former Miss Mary Reece, and the reception given after the wedding at the home of the bride's parents.

"Music Week" Is Observed by Club; R. G. Cox Presents Program

The annual observation of National Music Week featured the final meeting of the Woman's Club year. The meeting was held Thursday afternoon in the club room at Hotel Elkin. A splendid program was presented by R. G. Cox of Winston-Salem, former director of the Louisville Symphony Orchestra and a nationally known musician and composer. The program consisted of a number of vocal selections by pupils of Mr. Cox in Elkin and Mrs. Margaret Johnson, contralto, of Greensboro. Local people appearing on the program were: Miss Josephine Paul and Mrs. J. H. Beeson, soloists and Miss Carolyn Lillard, accompanist. Two cello selections by Mr. Cox, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Beeson were also enjoyed.

The program was presented by the Department of Education of the club, with Mrs. E. C. James program chairman.

Mrs. C. G. Ashby, president, presided over the brief business session at the close of the program. The matter of a public library here, to be conducted by the WPA, in cooperation with the Woman's Club, was discussed. It was decided that the Department of Literature of the club would sponsor the project, the details to be announced later.

Miss Masten and L. G. Meed, Jr. Are United In Marriage

In a quiet and impressive ceremony Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Nathaniel Masten, on Elk Spur street, Miss Betty Mae Masten and Lewis Gilbert Meed, Jr., were united in marriage. The vows were spoken before Rev. Wm. A. Jenkins, of the Methodist church, pastor of both the bride and bridegroom, using the ring ceremony.

In the living room an improvised altar was arranged with a background of evergreens. Baskets of Calla lilies and tall white tapers added to the beauty of the setting.

Miss Mayme Blackwood, pianist, and Miss Virginia Lawrence, violinist, rendered the wedding music. Prior to the ceremony they played "Serenade" (Schubert). "The Bridal Chorus" from Wagner's Lohengrin was used a professional and "The Wedding March" (Mendelssohn), was used as a recessional. "To A Wild Rose" (McDowell) was softly played during the ceremony.

For her wedding the bride wore a lovely dress of navy crepe with white eyelet trim and a close fitting hat of navy with a short veil. Other accessories were of navy and her flowers were a shoulder corsage of orchids and and valley lilies.

The only attendant was little Patty Rue Young, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young, who was ring bearer. She was dressed in yellow organdy, made in empire style with a full ruffled skirt and wore a bonnet of leghorn. She carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Masten. She was educated in the city schools and graduated with the class of '29. For the past several years she has been employed by the Central Electric and Telephone company here. She is popular with a host of friends.

The bridegroom is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Meed of this city and is manager of the Carolina Ice and Fuel Company. He is a native of Parkersburg, West Virginia, and was educated at Parkersburg, and Concord State College, Athens, West Virginia. He has been a resident of Elkin for several years and has made many friends during his residence here.

Following the wedding the young couple left for a honeymoon to Washington and Philadelphia. They will return via West Virginia for a visit. Upon their return they will be temporarily at home with the bridegroom's parents on West Main street.

Formal announcements of the wedding have been issued.
