MOUNTAIN PARK FINALS TO BEGIN

Rev. Eph Whisenhunt Will Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday

JUNIOR PLAY SATURDAY

The commencement exercises at Mountain Park High School will begin Saturday, May 22, and continue through Tuesday, May 25. On Saturday night, May 22, at 8 o'clock, the Junior class will present their annual play which is a dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' most popular novel, "Tena Rivers."

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rev. Eph Whisenhunt, pastor of the First Baptist church of Elkin.

The Senior class night exercises will be presented in the form of a radio party Monday night at 8 o'clock. This graduation play is designed to acquaint the audience with the graduates as well as being interesting and colorful.

Tuesday morning at 10:00 the Seventh Grade graduation exercises will be held. There are twenty-three students graduating from the seventh grade this year. At this time perfect attendance certificates will be awarded to those that have been regular in attendance during the past year.

The commencement program will be concluded with the high school graduation exercises Tuesday night, May 25, 8:00. Charles W. Phillips, Director of Public Relations at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, will deliver the commencement address. John W. Comer, County Superintendent of Schools will present to award diplomas to fourteen members of the graduating class. At this time medals will be awarded by Principal J. Sam Gentry to members of the graduating class for outstanding achievement. The graduating class is composed of the following fourteen members: Hazel Marie Lowe, Chalma Dorothea Simmons, Minnie Etta Williams, Walter Paul Golden, Kemper Hampton Walker, Clyde Henry Moore, William Andrew Swift, Vertie Loucinda Snow, Della Kathleen Dobbins, Elsie Verona Wall, Helen Irene Snow, Juanita Elba Lowe, Daniel William Norman, Rufus Adrian Nixon.

DOBSON FINALS TO BEGIN THIS P. M.

Dr. William A. Jenkins to Deliver Commencement Sermon Sunday

MONDAY IS CLASS DAY

The Dobson school finals will get under way today at 8:15 p. m., with the commencement play, "Romance in a Boarding House," being given by the faculty and school talent. On Sunday at 8:00 p. m., Dr. Wm. A. Jenkins, pastor of the Elkin Methodist church, will deliver the commencement sermon in the school auditorium.

On Monday at 8:15 p. m., the class day exercises will be held, and on Tuesday at 1:30 p. m., the seventh grade diplomas will be awarded, while at 8:15 p. m., the high school diplomas will be presented to the 17 members of the graduating class. Awards for the oratorical contest and other prizes will also be given on Tuesday night. The topic for the oratorical contest was "Building a Better Surry County," and all speeches were made up by the students.

Merle Edwards is the Salutatorian of the class, while Annie Pearl Gentry is the Valedictorian. Other members of the class are Versa Comer, Dorothy Haymore, Lucille Hemmings, Kate Eads, Bessie Marion, Stella Marion, Pansy Callahan, Audrey Blevins, Violet White, Mary Cooper, Robert Cleve Folger, Wilfred Moser, Jack McCormick, Hobert Marion and Bill Lancaster.

T-MODEL OVERTURNS WITH GREAT CLATTER

With a mighty clatter of tin and the crash of glass a model T Ford touring car overturned on Main street about 12 o'clock Tuesday night after blowing out a tire when the front wheel struck the traffic guide located in the center of the street at the main square. Jim Teague, of North Elkin, who was driving, and a companion, were uninjured other than from scratches. The car evidently turned over several times, coming to a noisy stop directly in front of the Western Union telegraph office, and sending patrons of the Lyric theatre running for the exits to see what was the matter. The car was not badly damaged.

JONESVILLE GIRL IS GIVEN LOVELY WATCH

A beautiful Gruen wrist watch was awarded to Miss Rama Blackwood, member of the graduating class of Jonesville high school, Tuesday by W. M. Wall, Jeweler.

A large clock in the show window of the local jewelry store bore the names of the graduates of both the Elkin and Jonesville high schools, the clock having been wound up and allowed to run until it had run down. The large minute hand was pointing at Miss Blackwood's name when the clock stopped at 6:55 Monday evening. The new Gruen was given away to advertise the new line of beautiful wrist and pocket watches by Gruen now sold locally by W. M. Wall.

FATHER OF TRIBUNE STAFF MEMBER DIES

John Jinnett, of this city, a member of The Tribune composing room staff, was called to Beaufort Friday on account of the death of his father, Rev. J. R. Jinnett, 79, who died at midnight Thursday, following a long illness.

Mr. Jinnett was an ordained minister of the Disciple Baptist church but retired from the active ministry about 26 years ago. He was, since that time, deputy clerk in the office of Register of Deeds of Carteret county, which position he held until his death. Funeral services were held at Beaufort Sunday. In addition to his son he is survived by two daughters and three brothers.

An acre was defined by Edward I as the amount of land a yoke of oxen could plow in a day. Later it was more definitely measured.

CAREFUL THOUGHT

Due to the tremendous strain caused by sudden bereavement, careful thinking is hindered by increased responsibilities. Because decisions must be made quickly, it is imperative that you have the valuable assistance of a reliable funeral director. You will find our service dependable and satisfactory in every respect.
