Miss Crater To Present Music Pupils In Recital

Miss Effie Crater will present her piano pupils in a public recital Friday evening, May 28, at 8 o'clock, in the elementary school auditorium.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Wishon-Collins

Of interest to friends of the couple is the announcement of the marriage of Miss DeEtte Collins to Millard Wishon, at Ronda, Saturday, May 22, with Rev. J. L. Powers, of this city, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Collins and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wishon, both of Elkin.

Abernethy's is Host to Seniors Following Graduation

Thursday evening at the close of the graduation exercises members of the Senior Class of the local high school were the guests of Abernethy's. The tables where the twenty seniors were seated were decorated with red and white roses.

Banana splits, fruit punch, cake and candies were served the guests. In drawing for the prizes, Miss Frances Davis won a box of powder and a powder jar and Lytle Osborne won a pen and pencil set.

Mrs. McNeely Is Hostess To Book Club Friday Evening

Limiting her guests to members of her book club, Mrs. Fred McNeely was hostess at a delightful party Friday evening, at her home on West Main street. Summer flowers were used in the living room, where two tables were placed for rummy. The club award for high score went to Mrs. J. Walter Darnell at the conclusion of the play and the consolation prize to Mrs. H. F. Laffoon.

A beautifully appointed refreshment course was served when the games were completed.

Tommy Roth, Jr., Class Mascot, Entertains Seniors

Members of the Senior Class were honored on Saturday evening when Tommy Roth, Jr., one of the class mascots, was host at a bingo party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roth, on West Main street. The guest list included only the twenty members of the class. Spring flowers were effectively arranged throughout the lower floor of the home.

In the games Miss Iris Collins and Raymond Hanks were recipients of the high score awards.

A tempting refreshment course was served late in the evening.

Mrs. Hock Entertains at Luncheon For Bridge Club Members

Having as guests only members of her bridge club, Mrs. Conrad Hock entertained at a charming luncheon Thursday at one o'clock at her home on Gwyn Avenue. The luncheon table had as a centerpiece a bowl of pansies and roses, and peonies were used elsewhere in the home. Following the luncheon bridge was played at two tables. The club award for high score went to Mrs. Marion Allen and Mrs. A. L. Griffith, a member of the club, who will go to Charlotte to make her home, was given a lovely remembrance.

Members enjoying Mrs. Hock's hospitality were: Mesdames Marion Allen, C. H. Brewer, R. B. Harrell, Carl Poindexter, A. L. Griffith, Rich Chatham and H. C. Graham.

Two-Four Club Meets with Mrs. J. R. Poindexter

Mrs. J. R. Poindexter delightfully entertained members of the Two-Four Bridge Club and sufficient guests to complete two tables at a bridge-luncheon at her home on Bridge Street Thursday. Luncheon was served at one o'clock. The beautifully appointed luncheon table, where covers were placed for eight, was centered with a bowl of mixed garden flowers.

During the afternoon bridge was enjoyed. The club trophy for high score went to Mrs. E. C. Grier at the close of a series of interesting progressions.

Those making up the tables were: Mesdames A. O. Brayon, E. C. Grier, E. S. Spainhour, Paul Gwyn, R. G. Smith, Thomas Roth and Miss Maude Greenwood and Mrs. Poindexter.

ESSO ROAD NEWS NOW AVAILABLE TO PUBLIC

Esso Road News, a motor touring publication, of which more than 20,000,000 copies have been distributed since its establishment a few years ago, is again available to motorists in this region, E. C. Boyles, sales agent of the Standard Oil Co. of N. J. announced yesterday. He said that new 1937 road maps have also been issued and may be obtained by motorists on request at any of the company's dealers in this section.

"In anticipation of a heavy demand for motor travel information this year we plan to distribute more than 6,000,000 copies of this publication between now and the fall," Mr. Boyles said. "Esso Road News contains a monthly highway map, showing construction and detours, as well as articles on points of scenic and historic interest and details of coming events of interest to motorists. The first issue is now ready and may be obtained at any Esso station or dealer free of charge.

In 1860, the pony express brought mail from San Francisco, Calif., to St. Joseph, Mo., in ten days now packages can be sent by air express in less than fourteen hours.
