

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY CAPITAL

Dobson, June 7.—The annual meeting of the Surry W. M. U. Association met with the Fancy Gap Baptist church, one mile west of Mount Airy, last Friday, in an all-day session. The associational superintendent, Mrs. W. A. Jackson, presided. Mrs. David Mashburn, of the First Baptist church of Mount Airy, conducted the devotionals. Mrs. Ike Jones brought greetings from the Fancy Gap church and Mrs. O. H. Hauser, of Westfield, responded. Mrs. Edna R. Harris, of Raleigh, with hope and inspiration, gave a splendid talk on the 100,000 club. Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt of Elkin, gave an inspirational address on "The Work to Share," and her experiences as a missionary in China. Mrs. Whisenhunt is a most charming speaker and shows unusual ability as an entertainer, and our W. M. U. is fortunate to have her in the mission work of the association.

During the noon hour an appetizing and bountiful lunch was served on the grounds, after which the women assembled for the afternoon program. Miss Royal of Elkin, led the devotionals, and "O Zion Haste" was sung. Mrs. E. C. o'clock he discovered her lifeless body.

She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Andrew McMillan of Mouth-of-Wilson, Va., and was a member of a prominent family. She had long been an active member of the Methodist church and of the Mason Lillard Bible class of the Sunday school and was also a member of the Parent-Teacher association and the Elkin Woman's club. In spite of the fact that she was one of the wealthiest women in Elkin she had simple tastes and interests and her devotion to her family was the subject of comment. Her husband died several years ago.

She is survived by one daughter, Miss Elizabeth Shores, who graduated from Greensboro college last week; and one son, Fred Shores, a high school student here, and the following brothers and sisters: Bruce McMillan, Sparta; Charlie McMillan, West Grove, Pa.; Ed McMillan, of Meadow Grove, Nebraska; Mrs. C. M. Parsons of Tacoma, Washington; Mrs. A. M. Gentry, Pomeroy, Washington, and Mrs. John Halsey, Piney Creek, N. C.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Methodist church in charge of her pastor, Dr. Wm. A. Jenkins, a former pastor, Rev. L. B. Abernethy and the Rev. Eph Whisenhunt, pastor of the First Baptist church. Interment was in the family plot in the church cemetery.

Palbearers were: R. G. Smith, Jones Holcomb, G. P. Dockery, H. P. Graham, Garland Johnson, E.

C. James, Joe Bivins and F. M. Norman.

A beautiful and profuse floral offering and the messages of condolence from friends here and elsewhere testified to the esteem in which Mrs. Shores was held.

justification. The proposal is based on an alleged difference in living costs between the north and the south. . . . The prices of items in a family budget are just as large in the south as in the north."

Lewis added the southern worker's "food may cost him less, but that is because he gets less milk, less fresh vegetables and fruit, less fresh meat. His housing may cost less, but that is because he gets inferior housing."

C. I. O. is confronted with a race question, Lewis has said that his organization makes no distinction in organizing an industry as to race, color or previous condition of servitude. Asked if this meant that whites and negroes would be brought into the textile unions he replied that this was a question left for future determination.
