BETHEL

Ronda, route 2, July 19.—A large crowd attended the birthday celebration given for Rev. Bradley Mathis the second Sunday at the home of his son, Mr. Sam Mathis. Luncheon was spread on a table arranged at the Caudill spring, near this home.

Uncle Bradley, as he is familiarly called, has a number of friends and acquaintances at this place, he having preached several times at Bethel church here. He has been permitted to reach the mature age of 85 years and we hope he may enjoy many more.

Mrs. D. S. Gilliam entertained the junior class of Sunday school of which she is teacher, last Saturday. They went to the spring near Ronda, where they enjoyed their picnic dinner. These children played games and had a happy time.

Miss Esther Pinnix of Winston-Salem, spent last week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Pinnix.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Church and little daughter, Margaret, of Greensboro, visited Mrs. Church's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Burchette, here Monday.

Mrs. David R. Gilliam and small children, D. R., Jr., and Carol, are spending some time here with Mr. Gilliam's sister, Mrs. J. T. Triplett, and Mr. Triplett. They all spent Sunday in Winston-Salem with Mr. Gilliam.

Mrs. John Lawrence has been very ill, but is much better, we are glad to note.

Wayne Stroud was confined to his home with illness for two days, but is able to return to his work at Cash and Carry Store at Elkin.

Little Miss Aileen Ingram visited her little cousin, Louise Gilliam, at Jonesville, last week-end.

Mrs. Ralph Pinnix of Jonesville, and Miss Hazel Johnson spent last week here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Johnson.

Eugene Jones attended a Woodmen's meeting in North Wilkesboro last Thursday evening.

Kenneth Stroud is visiting his aunts, Mesdames J. B. Armstrong and Louis Ferlazzo in Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones attended services at Island Ford church last Sunday evening.

BOONVILLE

Miss Cecile Williams has returned to her home in Winston-Salem, after spending a few weeks with her brother. She was accompanied home by Miss Jean Gray Williams who will be her guest for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Martin left Friday for Memphis, Tenn., where they will make their home.

Rev. J. P. Davis, assisted by Rev. Alexander, held a revival at the Baptist church the past week.

Miss Katie Lee Rockett spent the week-end with Miss Alma Coe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ott Coram of North Wilkesboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Speas over the week-end. Messrs. Clarence Caudle, Orville and Carl Martin and Ralph Coram are visiting relatives in Iowa and Indiana.

Highway 67 from Boonville to Winston-Salem is closed due to improvements.

Mrs. Sallie Chipman is very sick. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gentry visited their old home place at State Road Sunday.

Miss Ruby Winkler of Boone and Miss Ruth Honeycutt of East Bend were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Matthews Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Reece and Foy Reece left Monday for Iowa.
