Wolfe-Osborne Marriage Is Announced

Of widespread interest to friends is the announcement of the marriage which was made Tuesday of Miss Opal Margaret Wolfe to Thomas Osborne, both of Jonesville. The marriage was solemnized at the Methodist church in Independence, Va., Saturday, July 24, with Rev. L. D. Mayberry, pastor of the Independence Methodist church officiating, using the ring service of the church.

The bride, who is an attractive brunette, was becomingly dressed in a suit of navy blue alpaca, with touches of white at the neck. Her accessories were of navy, and her flowers were a shoulder corsage of bride's roses and lily-of-the-valley.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Osborne left for a brief wedding trip to places of interest in Western North Carolina.

Mrs. Osborne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert K. Wolfe of Jonesville. She received her higher education at Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, and for the past two years has been employed in the office of Dr. E. G. Click.

Mr. Osborne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Osborne of Jonesville and is employed at the Double Eagle Service Company.

After today Mr. and Mrs. Osborne will be at home at the Chapel apartments on West Main street.

Formal announcements of the wedding are being issued.

Davis-Lanier

A wedding of interest in this state was solemnized Wednesday morning at 9:00 o'clock in Harmony when Miss Elsie Lucille Davis became the bride of Mr. Arthur H. Lanier of Denton in a ceremony at the home of the bride.

Rev. J. T. Bowman, of Denton, officiated using the ring ceremony. Members of the families and a few intimate friends were the only witnesses. As the guests assembled Miss Sarah Boyd of Henderson, N. C., who presided at the piano played "Indian Love Call" and Miss Laura Joyner of Hamptonville, N. C., sang "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was used as the processional and Mendelssohn's wedding march as the recessional.

The bride was becomingly dressed in navy blue chiffon with hat and accessories to match and carried a lovely bouquet of butterfly roses, sweetpeas and larkspur.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lanier left for a trip through the Shenandoah Valley to Washington, D. C. They will make their home in Denton upon their return.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davis of Harmony. She was educated at Harmony High School and Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, N. C. She is a member of Denton faculty where she has taught for a number of years.

The groom is the son of Mr. N. U. Lanier of Denton and the late Mrs. Follie Smith Lanier. He received his education at Denton high school and High Point College, High Point, N. C. He is engaged in business at Denton.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Misses Etta and Leona Leonard, Lexington; Miss Sarah Boyd, Henderson, N. C.; Misses Flossie and Laura Joyner, Hamptonville, N. C.; Mrs. N. V. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hill, Denton, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Harrell Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Davis, Statesville, N. C. and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis, Mocksville, N. C.
