Miss Evans Honors Visitor at Supper Friday Evening
Honoring her houseguest, Miss Lois Boyles of Pilot Mountain, Miss Betty Lou Evans entertained at an enjoyable informal supper Friday evening, having as guests a few intimate friends.

Mesdames Brannon and Young and Miss Swain Are Hostesses

Mesdames Hugh Brannon and Charles Young and Miss Vonda Swain entertained members of the Lucy Hanes Chatham Club and their husbands and friends at a chicken stew at Crystal Lake near Winston-Salem, Thursday evening. Approximately forty guests enjoyed the hospitality of the hostesses.

Holyfield-Mounce

Announcement is made today of the marriage of Miss Mary Lee Holyfield and Heber Mounce. The marriage was solemnized Friday, August 13, at Hillsville, Virginia.

Mrs. Mounce is the daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Holyfield and the late Early Holyfield of Zephy. She graduated from Mountain Park high school with the class of '36. Mr. Mounce is the son of Mr.

and Mrs. William Mounce and is a graduate of Dobson high school.

Sunday School Class Meets Friday

The Ready Class of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church met Friday evening at the home of Miss Hoyland Harris on West Main street, with six members present.

During the business hour routine business was transacted and names were drawn for Pollyanna gifts. It was also decided that a hamburger fry would be held at an early date in honor of the class members who will go away to college in September.

A tempting refreshment course was served during a pleasant social hour.

Mrs. Abernethy is Hostess to Thursday Book Club

Members of the Thursday Afternoon Book Club were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. J. G. Abernethy on West Main street Thursday afternoon. The usual program was omitted and dominoes were enjoyed. The high score prize at the conclusion of the games was awarded Mrs. W. W. Whitaker.

A beautifully appointed collation in two courses was served late in the afternoon to the following members: Mesdames H. C. Salmons, J. P. Ipock, W. W. Whitaker, George Royall, Mason Lillard, J. L. Hall and E. Carl Boyles.

Engagement of Miss Martha Maguire Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Oscar Maguire, Sr., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Martha to Leonard Bunkemeyer of Kernersville, the wedding to take place in the early fall.

Miss Maguire is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maguire and is a popular member of the younger set in this city. For the past two years she has been residing in Kernersville.

Mr. Bunkemeyer is formerly from High Point but has made his home in Kernersville for the past year, where he has a responsible position with the Southern Silk Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Meed Are Honored at Party Thursday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young entertained at bridge at their home on Elk Spur street Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Meed who were recently married. Green and white was the chosen color motif and bridal place cards marked the places of the players.

The high score award for the evening went to Mr. and Mrs. Meed and they were also given linens as guests of honor.

A beautifully appointed salad course was served at the conclusion of the games.

Those making up the tables were: Mr. and Mrs. Meed, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown, Miss Marjorie Meed, Miss Lucy Gray, Ernest Johnson, Linville Norman and Mr. and Mrs. Young.

Mrs. Graham Is Hostess to Bridge Club Thursday

Mrs. H. C. Graham entertained members of her bridge club and sufficient guests to complete two tables at an enjoyable bridge luncheon at her home on Terrace Avenue Thursday. Lovely summer flowers were used throughout the home. Upon the arrival of the guests a tempting and beautifully appointed luncheon was served. During the afternoon bridge was played at two tables. The club award for high score went to Mrs. Richard Chatham at the conclusion of the play and the visitor's prize to Mrs. Ruohs Pyron.

Guests in addition to the club members were Mrs. John W. Ross of Jacksonville, Florida; Mrs. C. A. Crews of Henderson, and Mrs. Ruohs Pyron.

"The Netherlands" Is Topic For Wednesday Study Club

An interesting study of the Netherlands, presented by Mrs. E. B. Harrell, featured the meeting of the Wednesday Afternoon Study Club at the home of Mrs. Wm. M. Allen on Church street Wednesday afternoon. Each month during the year the club has made a special study of some foreign country and the programs have been unusually interesting. Current events for the month were omitted and the time devoted to a review of club books recently read.

At the conclusion of the business session the hostess served a beautifully appointed two course supper.

Members enjoying Mrs. Allen's hospitality were: Mesdames R. B. Harrell, Errol Hayes, Fred Neaves, Hugh Royall, J. H. Beeson, R. C. Freeman, C. H. Brewer and A. B. Somers.

Mrs. Young Honors Husband on Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. Chas. Young entertained at dinner at her home Sunday in honor of the birthday anniversary of her husband. Lovely dahlias and gladioli were used in the dining room to effect a pretty color scheme of pink and white. A handsome birthday cake, topped with lighted candles, was the central adornment. Dinner was served buffet style.

Guests in addition to Mr. Young were: Rev. and Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt and daughter, Edith Adair, Mr. and Mrs. James Burcham, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Parnell and daughter, Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Reinhardt, Mrs. C. W. Young, mother of the honor guest, Miss Beatrice Newman and Raymond Vestal.

The affair came as a complete surprise to Mr. Young.

Miss Davis and Athel P. Phillips to Wed August 25

Cards reading as follows have been received by friends in this city: "Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Vernon Davis request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Sara Augusta, to Mr. Athel Paul Phillips, on Wednesday, August 25, at 8 o'clock in the evening, First Presbyterian church, Concord, North Carolina. Reception immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride."

Miss Davis is a member of the faculty at Flat Rock high school and Mr. Phillips is principal of the school. Both Miss Davis and Mr. Phillips are members of prominent Ashe county families. Mr. Phillips, who now resides in Jonesville, is a nephew of Judge Johnson J. Hayes, and Rev. J. M. Hayes, the latter having served for a number of years as pastor of the First Baptist church in this city.

Mrs. Jones is Hostess at Party to Honor Bride-Elect

Mrs. J. D. Jones was hostess at a lovely party Monday evening to honor Miss Sara Augusta Davis of Concord, whose wedding to Athel Paul Phillips, brother of the hostess, on August 25, will be an event of early autumn society.

The home was decorated throughout with greenery and white flowers, the bridal colors. Four tables were placed for bridge and bingo. A miniature bride marked the place of the honoree. The high score award for bridge, linen guest towels, went to Mrs. Franklin Folger and the bingo prize, a handkerchief, to Mrs. Dixie Graham. The traveler's prize, a lovely vase, went to Miss Chloe Holcomb. Miss Davis, the honoree, was presented china in her chosen pattern.

A salad course was served at the conclusion of the play in which the chosen color motif was further accentuated.

COOL SPRINGS

A good crowd attended the Sunday school Sunday morning, and we were glad of all visitors present. Plans are now going forward to erect the six room addition to the church. It is hoped that since Cool Springs has put herself against the collar she will not waver or turn back until the task is completed. All rough lumber has been donated for framing. It will be cut Thursday and sawed at Charlie Carter's mill, he giving his work on that day to the Cause of Christ.

We are fortunate in having some good carpenters to lead in the construction of the building, and who have offered their services, too.

Messrs. Paul Newman, Woodson and Edgar Newman and Jay Myers visited the Stone Mountain Sunday afternoon. They report a pleasant trip, and a few bruises.

Miss Ruth Pruitt of Traphill, visited in this community over the week-end.

Miss Madelon Newman returned home Sunday from Mooresville. A number of friends motored down for the day and returned with her in the afternoon.

Misses Eunice, Bernice and Bertha Linder of Salisbury, were guests of Mrs. R. C. Harris Saturday night. Mrs. Boyd Linder returned from a visit to her uncle, and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Jefferson of Thurmond, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Newman and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Newman Sunday. Prayer service Saturday evening will be in charge of Paul Newman. The past Saturday night the service was in charge of Paul Walker, and among our visitors we were glad to number Rev. J. D. Luffman.

Rev. Ed. O. Miller will preach here Sunday evening. The public is cordially invited to attend. Come to Sunday school Sunday if you are attending no other. A warm welcome awaits you at Cool Springs.

"I turned the way I signaled," said the lady, indignantly, after the crash.

"I know it," retorted the man, that's what fooled me."
