Sunday School Class Enjoys Picnic Thursday

Members of the Intermediate Class of Girls of the First Baptist church, accompanied by Miss Hazel Byrd, class teacher, and Mrs. J. F. Moseley, enjoyed a delightful outing to Brookfall Thursday evening. A number of out-door games were enjoyed, prior to the serving of a bountiful picnic supper.

Ten members of the class made the trip.

Mrs. Cox Is Hostess to Book Club Friday Evening

Mrs. W. C. Cox entertained members of her book club at an enjoyable meeting at her home on Gwyn Avenue Friday evening. Colorful autumn flowers made a pretty setting for the three tables which were placed for rummery. In the final count of score the high score trophy went to Mrs. L. I. Wade and the consolation prize to Mrs. J. P. Ippock.

A tempting collation was served at the conclusion of the play.

Williams-Jones

Of interest to friends here is the announcement of the wedding of Miss Ola Williams to Mont Jones. The wedding was solemnized in a private ceremony in West Jefferson at the home of Mrs. A. M. Jones, mother of the bridegroom, with Rev. J. W. Honeycutt performing the ceremony, on Saturday afternoon, August 14.

Mrs. Jones is the attractive daughter of Avery Williams of Othello, and Mrs. Jones is the son of Mrs. A. M. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones are making their home here where Mr. Jones is connected with the Chatham Manufacturing Company.

Miss Margaret Smith to Wed

Dr. John Preston Reece, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Henderson Smith of Fitzgerald, Georgia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Pepper Smith, Lenior, to Dr. John Preston Reece of Concord, formerly of Lenior.

The above announcement will be of widespread interest in this section. Dr. Reece is the son of Dr. J. P. Reece of Lenior, president of the North Carolina Dental Society, and a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sanford L. Reece and of Mrs. L. F. Miller and the late Mr. Miller, all of Hamptonville, and a nephew of W. F. Reece of this city.

The wedding will take place in the early fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Somers Are Hosts at Bridge-Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers entertained at a bridge-dinner at their home on Church street Thursday evening, having as guests members of the Forsythly Bridge club and sufficient guests to complete three tables. Dinner was served at seven o'clock from small tables arranged in the living room. Bouquets of garden flowers were used as centerpieces for the tables and elsewhere in the room. During the evening bridge was enjoyed. The club award for high score went to Mrs. J. R. Poindexter at the conclusion of the play.

Members playing were: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gwyn, Mrs. Marion Allen, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poindexter and Mr. and Mrs. Somers. Additional guests were Mrs. Raymond Chatham and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Spainhour.

Miss Mary Kate Sale is Wed to David Graham Myers

Of interest to friends here and elsewhere throughout this section is the announcement of the marriage Sunday at Eliville, Tenn., of Miss Mary Kate Sale and David Graham Myers. The young couple were accompanied to Tennessee by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Myers of this city, the former a brother of the bridegroom, who were the only witnesses to the ceremony. The ceremony was performed at the home of Rev. M. L. Harris, with Rev. Harris officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Worth Sale of near Ronda, and the bridegroom is a son of the late Clint and Mrs. Joyce Mayberry Myers of Cycle. Both are members of prominent families. For sometime Mrs. Myers has been employed here as saleslady for McDaniel's Department store. Mr. Myers is prominently identified with the business life of Sparta, where he and his bride will be at home after September first.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers are now on a tour of places of interest in Western Tennessee and Kentucky.

Mrs. Whitaker is Hostess at Luncheon for Club Members and Guests

One of the loveliest parties of the week was on Thursday at one o'clock when Mrs. W. W. Whitaker entertained members of the Yadkin Valley Garden Club and several additional guests at a luncheon. Early fall flowers in brilliant shades of yellow were used throughout the lower floor of the home and as centerpieces for the small tables where covers were placed for eighteen guests. Place cards carried out further the chosen color motif of yellow. A beautifully appointed three course luncheon was served.

Following the luncheon a brief business meeting was held, with Mrs. J. S. Atkinson, president of the club, presiding. Mrs. George Royall was program chairman for the month and she presented Miss Emma Cooke, guest speaker, who spoke on "Burbank and his Achievements". Miss Cooke, who is a gifted speaker, presented her subject in a most pleasing manner. Two vocal selections by Mrs. J. H. Beeson were also enjoyed.

Members present for the meeting were: Mesdames J. S. Atkinson, J. H. Beeson, E. G. Click, J. L. Hall, E. C. James, J. F. Hendren, Mason Lillard, H. C. Salmons, George Royall, W. R. Wellborn and H. P. Graham.

Additional guests were: Mesdames Howard Hatch, R. C. Freeman, R. B. Harrell, Errol Hayes, and Mable Doughton Davis, the latter of High Point, and Miss Emma Cooke.

BETHEL

Ronda, route 2, Aug. 23.—The fine rain that came to this section last Sunday afternoon seems to have put new life in vegetation. This is the first rain we have had in several weeks, consequently many crops are off considerably on the uplands from the continued dry weather.

Mr. R. L. Harris of Elkin, is just having a large new feed barn completed and painted on his fine farm here, also a coat of paint has been put on the dwelling, which added to the attractiveness of the home.

Mr. W. T. Myers, of Elkin, has had two new tobacco barns and a feed barn built on his river farm, near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lytle McBride of Greensboro, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McBride, last week.

Eugene Jones, Elmer Morrison and Wayne Stroud spent last Sunday in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. H. G. Orsborn and children, Doris and Jimmie, of Jonesville, recently visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Yancy Harris, here.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Day and family of Elkin, spent a while here Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Pinnix.

Chas. Jones was able to resume his work at the Basketeria Store at Elkin Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gilliam and sons, Flake, Charles and Bobby, attended the closing services of the revival at White Plains church last Sunday. They met Mrs. Gilliam's sister and brothers, with their families, at this church of their childhood and visited their maternal grandmother, Mrs. Porter, who is far advanced in age.

THURMOND

Mrs. Betty Lassiter and family have as their guest the former's mother, Mrs. Davis, of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moody announce the birth of a fine baby girl, which arrived last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvil Woodruff and little son, Alton Columbus, have returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Sallie Brewer in Charlotte.

Miss Rebba Calloway had as her week-end guest, her cousin, Miss Nancy Calloway, of Mountain Park.

Mr. Bob Evans and family of Brooks Cross Roads, spent the week-end here with relatives and friends.

Farmers in this section have been very busy working with the tobacco. We wish for every farmer a successful crop.

Mr. Thurmond Vanhoy and family visited relatives here Sunday.

Miss Pearl Harris of Boyd's Chapel, was a Sunday visitor here.

The report of the Sunday school is improving. We are glad to have so many folks present and would like to have more. There were thirty present last Sunday.

Miss Helen Simmons spent the week-end here with her parents.

ARLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pardue and daughters, Elizabeth and Rebecca and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Swalm and grandson, Bobby Dunkle, spent Sunday in Greensboro visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Lillie Dunkle. They were accompanied home by Billie Dunkle who has been visiting his mother for the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Long and daughter, Peggie, spent the past week-end in Winston-Salem visiting Mr. and Mrs. Risden Long.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wall spent Sunday afternoon at Cool Springs visiting Mr. Wall's sister, Mrs. Sarah Tucker.
