Many Take Advantage Pen And Pencil Offer

The large number of subscribers coming to The Tribune office the past few days to take advantage of the subscription premium offer being made for a short time have been delighted and somewhat amazed at the beauty, durability and splendid writing of the pen and pencil sets they have received as a free gift. Delighted with the gift and amazed that this newspaper is able to award such a worthwhile present with the payment of only a one-year subscription of the regular price.

The explanation is simple. The Tribune is anxious to clean up in a very short time a number of subscriptions now due or past due and to add several hundred new subscriptions. In order to accomplish this quickly we have gone to

About $1,000 Is Unpaid on Pledges To Hospital hospital. Officials of the hos-to get other funds from the Duke Endowment until this amount is paid in full, as the endowment agreed to supplement the $3,000 raised by local subscription.

Work on the hospital addition is progressing rapidly and officials make an urgent appeal to citizens who have not as yet paid their obligations to do so at once in order that the work will not be interrupted.

BAPTIST REVIVAL DRAWING THROUGHS

Many Attend Meeting to Hear Inspiring Gospel
Messages

CHURCH IS FORTUNATE

Large crowds have been attending the revival services which have been in progress at the First Baptist church in this city for the past ten days. Up until Tuesday evening there had been twelve additions to the church. Rev. J. C. Canipe of Boone, who has been assisting the pastor, Rev. Eph Whisenhunt, in the services, has brought inspiring gospel messages. The song service, which has added much to the meetings, has been in charge of Rev. Chas. C. Jolley of High Point.

The services will continue thru this evening (Thursday) and probably Friday morning.

The church has been wonderfully fortunate this year. In addition to the splendid revival, the interior of the church being remodeled and redecorated, and the gift of a beautiful pipe organ by Mrs. E. B. Lawrence as a memorial to her late husband, the church letter, prepared for the annual association meeting, revealed that out of a membership of more than 450, not a member had been taken by death during the year.

REVIVAL TO BEGIN AT PILGRIM CHURCH HERE

grim Holiness church will begin Thursday night of this week and music. Rev. Mr. Bennette will ar-

POLICE INVESTIGATING

A coroner's hearing in the death of Avery Hemric was scheduled to have been held at Yadkinville Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, several hours after The Tribune press time.
Just what the jury hoped to determine was not apparent at this writing.

With Avery Hemric dead and Ray Johnson being held in jail at Yadkinville charged with his murder, Yadkin county officers are said to be investigating the theory that the attack on Hemric had been planned by Johnson following an affray between the two which was said to have taken place last Thursday night while the two were at the Lee riding devices.

As a result of this investigation, Wilson Boles, of Jonesville, with whom Hemric was said to have been having an argument at the time he was struck in the head with a heavy wrench in the hands of Johnson, is being held in SWARINGEN VS. POPLIN

O. O. Efrid, judge of Forsyth county court who was appointed by Superior Court Judge J. H.
Clement as referee in the election case of D. B. Swaringen versus Leet Poplin, has informed attorneys representing both sides he will be able to begin hearing of the case on or about October 1.

Judge Efrid, in a letter to the attorneys, said that his court calendar and other matters would not permit setting an earlier date to begin hearing the case, which involves the question of the election of county commissioner November 3, 1936.

Judge Efrid stated further that he was informed the testimony would be lengthy and asked the plaintiff and defendant post $250 each to apply on the referee bill.
It was indicated today his request would be complied with.

Both sides indicated their readiness and asked trial by jury when the case was called at the beginning of the August term of court, but Judge Clement said he was referring the case on his own motion due to the fact approximately 600 witnesses were expected to be heard.

The referee hearing will be held at the courthouse in Wilkesboro.

missed the heart, striking a rib and passing out through his side.
He was at first admitted to a Galax hospital but was brought to the local hospital later.
