The Emma Leechman circle will meet with Miss Ella Cockerham on West Main street; the Neal Young circle with Mrs. R. P. Crater on Gwyn Avenue and the Naomi Shell circle with Mrs. W. W. Byrd on Elk Spur street.

The Pearl Johnson circle will meet Tuesday evening with Mrs. Sheffie Graham on Gwyn Avenue. All members are invited to attend.

Mrs. Gwyn is Hostess at Luncheon Thursday

Mrs. Paul Gwyn entertained at a lovely bridge-luncheon Thursday at her home on Gwyn avenue, having as guests members of the Two-Four Club and several visitors. Play begun at ten o'clock in the morning. The club award for high score went to Miss Maude Greenwood and the visitor's prize to Mrs. Carl Poindexter at the close of a series of interesting progressions.

At one o'clock a beautifully appointed luncheon was served. Early fall flowers were used throughout the home in attractive decorative scheme.

Members playing were: Mrs. E. C. Grier, Mrs. J. R. Poindexter and Miss Maude Greenwood. Additional guests were: Mrs. Errol Hayes, Mrs. R. C. Freeman, Mrs. Carl Poindexter, Mrs. Hugh Parks and Mrs. Edwin Harris.

Jimmy Harrell is Host at Dinner Monday Evening

Jimmy Harrell was host at a delightful dinner party at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell, on West Main street, Monday evening, to honor Miss Sarah Davis of Washington, D. C., a guest in the Harrell home, and Dicky Shugart, who will leave next week for Tennessee Military Academy, Clearwater, Tenn.

Covers were placed for six. The table was centered with a lovely bouquet of flowers in soft shades of pink and pink candles were used on either end of the table. A three course dinner was served. Favors were nut cups in comic design. Following the dinner the guests were entertained at a theatre party.

The guest list included Miss Davis and Mr. Shugart, Miss Doris Clarke of Asheville, and Jimmy James, Miss Rosamond Neaves and Mr. Harrell.

Miss Sara Augusta Davis and Athel Paul Phillips Are Wed

Miss Sara Augusta Davis, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Vernon Davis of Concord, became the bride of Athel Paul Phillips of Elkin in a pretty ceremony at the First Presbyterian church in Concord Wednesday evening. Rev. James M. Hayes, pastor of the First Baptist church in Beckley, West Virginia, uncle of the bridegroom, and Dr. Jesse C. Rowan, pastor of the church, were the officiating ministers.

Prior to and during the ceremony Mrs. John F. Reed, organist, and Miss Mary Mills of Winston-Salem, and Lee Ritchie, of Concord, soloists, rendered a program of nuptial music.

Serving as ushers were Joseph Vernon Davis, Jr., and Franklin Davis, brothers of the bride, John Hugh Williams and Dr. Eugene Yow, Concord, David Parsons, Jr., High Point and Wayne Phillips, Elkin, the latter a brother of the bridegroom. Attending the bridegroom as his best man was his cousin, Kyle Hayes, of North Wilkesboro.

Miss Lucille Phillips of Elkin, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Martha Jarrett of High Point, were bridesmaids. They wore identical models of sea green moire taffeta, made with a close fitting bodice, full skirt, and puffed sleeves, and carried arm bouquets of asters.

Miss Elizabeth Hopkins of Concord attended the bride as maid of honor. Her gown was of gold moire taffeta, and similar in design to those of the bridesmaids. Each of the bride's attendants wore cameo necklaces, gifts of the bride.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a princess model of white satin. Her floor length veil was of illusion. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of white roses, gardenias and lily-of-the-valley.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Phillips left for a wedding trip to eastern cities. For travel the bride wore a pin striped gun metal cloth suit, with black accessories, and a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Phillips is the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Davis. She is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Davis and Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin Williams, all of Yadkin county. She was graduated from Guilford College with a P. S. M. degree. For the past four years she has been teacher of public school music at Flat Rock school, near Mount Airy.

Mr. Phillips, son of Mrs. J. P. Phillips and the late Mr. Phillips, formerly lived in West Jefferson, Ashe county. He is a graduate of Campbell College and Wake Forest and received his degree from the law school at Wake Forest. For the past two years he has been principal of the Flat Rock high school near Mount Airy.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips returned Wednesday to the home of the bridegroom here and after September 13, they will be at home near Mount Airy, where they will both teach again this year.

RONDA

School started Monday morning with good attendance despite the rainy weather. Hope each boy and girl of school age will come and register as soon as possible. We are thankful indeed for the faculty. We feel that they will be a help to our community, other than the school work.

Friends of Mrs. J. T. Martin will be sorry to know that she is in the hospital, suffering from a severe case of rheumatism.

We had a special treat Monday night by having fourteen boys and girls from Oxford Orphanage with us. They gave a splendid program. Everyone felt that they were paid for attending.

Mrs. J. B. Bell is in the hospital again. She underwent a major operation Tuesday morning and is doing nicely.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Burchette a son at the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital on August 24. Both mother and son are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. George Adams and family of Lenoir were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Adams were called to Winston-Salem Tuesday by the sudden death of Mr. Adams aunt, Mrs. Klizzie Davis. They remained for the funeral.

Mr. Ernest Walls of Route No. 1, who is with Clarks warehouse in Mullins S. C., spent the weekend with home folks. He states tobacco is selling good in that section. He will be there four weeks yet.

PLEASANT HILL

Rev. Crissman preached at Pleasant Hill church Saturday night and Sunday morning. Both sermons were greatly enjoyed by everyone present.

The "Happy Day" quartet sang at Macedonia church last Sunday afternoon, where the fifth Sunday singing was held. From there the quartet went to the home of Rev. C. C. Cockerham and sang for him. Mr. Cockerham is recovering from injuries received from a fall sometime ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Gilliam, Mrs. Ellen Gilliam and Mrs. Rosa Byrd visited relatives in West Jefferson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Day and Misses Irene Day and Cooper Jolly accompanied Miss Helen Morris and Sylvia and Tommy Streaklow to their homes at Greensboro and Winston-Salem, respectively, last Thursday.

Mrs. C. H. Day spent last weekend in Georgia on business.

Mrs. Rosa Byrd of West Virginia, and Mrs. Ellen Gilliam were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Day last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Couch moved in their new home in this community last week.

The local school opened Monday, August 30th.
