

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY CAPITAL

Dobson, Sept. 6.—The Dobson Baptist Sunday school boarded trucks and cars Sunday morning and drove to the White Sulphur Springs, near Mount Airy, where they assembled under the broad-spreading oaks, and the Sunday school lesson was read and discussed by Supt. W. L. Reece, intermingled with prayer and song. It was a fitting place for meditation on God's nature handiwork, and spiritual fellowship. This was a happy diversion and great treat for the children. These annual outings are a pleasure and stimulate attendance and often-times leave wonderful impressions on young minds. They returned in the late afternoon, feeling it was a day well spent.
