Sunday School Classes Enjoy Picnic

The Sunshine Philathea and the Friendly Baraca classes of the Elkin Valley Baptist Sunday school motored to White Sulphur Springs, near Mount Airy, Sunday where a delightful picnic dinner was enjoyed. Approximately thirty members of the classes, chaperoned by their leader, Mrs. Hugh Couch, enjoyed the outing.

Mrs. Ipock is Club Hostess

Limiting her guests to members of the Friday Evening Book Club, Mrs. J. P. Ipock entertained at her home on Bridge street Friday evening. Three tables were placed for rummy against a pretty background of autumn flowers. Prizes in the games were awarded Mrs. H. F. Laffoon for high score and Mrs. W. C. Cox for low score at the conclusion of the play.

A lovely collation was served late in the evening.

Mrs. Dobbins is Hostess to Sunday School Class

The Young Matrons Class of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Seeman Dobbins on West Main street Tuesday evening, with twenty-three members present. Mrs. T. L. Parnell conducted the devotionals.

Mrs. L. M. Stewart, class president, presided over the business session, which featured routine reports.

An ice course, with cake and salted nuts, was served during a delightful social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Entertain at Dinner to Honor Guests

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Henry Palmer and Misses Ruth and Mildred Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. William Bersey, all of Arlington, N. J., guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hayes, of Boonville, Mr. and Mrs. Errol Hayes entertained at a delightful dinner party at their home on Church street Tuesday evening.

Guests in addition to the above were: Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hayes, Misses Grace and Ellen Hayes and Wade Williams, all of Boonville, and Dan Williams of Annapolis, Maryland.

Mrs. Carrick and Mrs. Holcomb Honor Bride

Mrs. Lucille Dorsett Carrick and Miss Velda Holcomb honored Mrs. Herbert Dockery, a bride of the week, at a kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. Dockery's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Young, on West Main street Monday evening. An attractive and useful array of gifts were presented the honoree from the thirty guests who attended.

Late in the evening a beautifully appointed refreshment course, in which the bridal colors of green and white were carried out in detail, was served the guests.

Mrs. Fred Neaves is Study Club Hostess

Mrs. Fred Neaves entertained members of the Wednesday Afternoon Study Club at her home on Gwyn Avenue Wednesday. Continuing the study of world affairs, Mrs. Hugh Royall and Mrs. Errol Hayes presented the program, using as their subject the Japanese people. Mrs. Hayes gave the past history of Japan and Mrs. Royall told of the present Japanese-Chinese conflict. Mrs. Royall, who is president of the club, presided over the business session, which featured routine reports.

A tempting collation in two courses was served late in the afternoon to the following members: Mesdames Hugh Royall, Fletcher Harris, J. H. Beeson, Errol Hayes, Marion Allen, A. B. Somers, R. B. Harrell and C. H. Brewer.

Young-Dockery Wedding Saturday

Of interest to a host of friends here and elsewhere is the wedding of Miss Mae Young and Herbert Dockery, both of this city, which was solemnized Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in Independence, Virginia, with Rev. Mr. Funk officiating, using the ring ceremony.

For her wedding the bride wore a becoming dress of gray wool, with black suede accessories. Her shoulder bouquet was of radiance roses.

Mrs. Dockery is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Young of this city. She was graduated from Jonesville high school with the class of '37 and since her graduation has been employed at Somers and Company.

The bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dockery of Elkin, R. F. D., was graduated from Dobson high school with the class of 1931. For three years he has been associated with his father in business.

Following a brief honeymoon to places of interest in Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Dockery are at home in West Elkin.

Legion Auxiliary Resumes Meetings After Vacation

Following a vacation period of several weeks, members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion met at the home of Mrs. H. B. Holcomb on West Main street Monday evening, with Mrs. Fred McNeely associate hostess, with seventeen members and one visitor present.

Mrs. George Royall, president of the auxiliary, presided over the business session at which time plans were made for the auxiliary to sponsor a high school Glee Club this year, the club to be directed by Mrs. J. H. Beeson, music instructor. Other routine matters were dispatched.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Joe Bivins and featured a talk by Mrs. George Royall on the state convention in Durham in July. Mrs. Royall gave a splendid report of the meeting and also displayed the naval plaque presented the local unit for outstanding work during the year.

A tempting refreshment course was served during a pleasant social hour at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. Hal C. Bell is Honoree at Shower

Mrs. Chas. W. Gough and Miss Caroline Bell were joint hostesses at a shower at the home of the former in Hamptonville Tuesday evening, to honor Mrs. H. C. Bell, a recent bride. The home was tastefully decorated with lovely autumn flowers. Mrs. Lula B. Moore, sister of the hostesses, greeted the guests and directed them to the tables, which were placed for bingo and other games. Many beautiful gifts were presented the honoree.

A tempting and beautifully appointed collation was served the following guests, Mrs. Bell, the honoree, Misses Laura and Flossie Joyner, Tabitha Burgess, Beulah and Esther Fleming, Sallie Thomasson, Maude and Mary Melton, Mesdames Fred Money, B. F. Gough, G. C. Wallace, I. G. Crow, T. F. Miller, J. R. Allred, G. G. Angell, H. J. Weaver and W. N. Ireland, Jr., Hamptonville; Mesdames Homer Wagoner, Jones Todd and Miss Elva Sherman, Yadkinville; Mrs. Albert Cooper and Miss Lucy Parks, Union Grove and Mrs. Alden Hunt, Elkin.
