

VOL. No. XXVI. No. 46

ELKIN, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1937

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

LATENEWS from the State and Nation

HITLER, MUSSOLINI UNITED FOR PEACE

Berlin, Sept. 28. — Peace, but not at the price of bolshevism, Premier Mussolini and Reichsfuehrer Hitler proclaimed today as their twin policies. If Duce and Der Fuehrer, in a climax to the Italian leader's visit to Germany, symbolically linked arms in declarations that fascism and nazism are supreme and resolutely united against any threat. "Europe will become fascist," Mussolini shouted in German to 600,000 rain-soaked Germans at a mass meeting in the Olympic stadium and to the rest of the world by radio. He called Italy and Germany "the greatest democracies" and bolshevism "the regime of slavery, famine and blood."

BANDITS ROB BANK OF CANDOR

Candor, Sept. 28. — Two soft spoken bandits robbed the Bank of Candor at gunpoint today of an estimated $2,500 to $3,000. One was tentatively identified as Bill Payne, widely hunted desperado. After the holdup, which bank officials said was staged quietly and with bewildering swiftness the robbers fled with a third who manned a new black (Ford) sedan at the bank entrance. Officers of more than a half-dozen counties patrolled all roads in this vicinity tonight for a trace of the robbers.

M. T. McCaskill, cashier of the bank, said the bandits got "something over $2,500" but said he felt certain the amount would not exceed $3,000. He said a complete check was held up pending an investigation by federal bureau of investigation agents.

SHANGHAI ROCKED BY ARTILLERY

Shanghai, Sept. 29. — (Wednesday) — Violent Sino-Japanese artillery bombardments rocked Shanghai today as the belligerents today as to intense activity by an apparent Chinese attempt to blow up the Japanese flagship Idzumo. Chinese civilians in the city were thrown into a panic and windows in the downtown business area were shattered as a series of thunderous explosions along the Whangpoo river heralded the dawn.

STORM MISSES N. C. COAST

Beaufort, Sept. 28. — A Caribbean storm reported headed this way either blew itself out or veered out to sea today. Points along the North Carolina coast reported high winds during the night had subsided. No casualties nor property losses were reported. The Cape Lookout weather bureau said although storm warnings were displayed there yesterday, winds did not rise above 25 miles an hour.

MAN IS INJURED WHEN HIT BY TRAIN SUNDAY

Ed Foster, of North Wilkesboro, is in Hugh Chatham Memorial hospital here as the result of injuries received Sunday afternoon when he was struck by a Southern Railway freight train near Roaring River. The man is said to have been asleep when the freight struck him, breaking several ribs and causing other injuries. Following the accident he was placed aboard the train and brought to Elkin where an ambulance awaited to carry him to the hospital. He is making satisfactory recovery, hospital officials stated Wednesday.

STUDENTS SEEK SUBSCRIPTIONS

Everyone planning to subscribe or renew their subscription to magazines, is urged to place this business through representatives of the local high school. From 35 to 50 per cent of subscription money placed in this way will stay at home. The local high school offers a selection of 20 magazines. Money earned in this way will go toward the purchase of new equipment for the school.

BANK OF ELKIN TO OCCUPY NEW HOME NEXT WEEK

Will Move Into Modern Quarters Tuesday

OPEN HOUSE WEDNESDAY

New Site is Modern in Every Way; Visitors To Be Shown Around

ARE STUCCOING OUTSIDE

The Bank of Elkin, after several months of remodeling and preparation, will move into its modern new home, located on the corner of Main and Bridge streets, Tuesday.

The actual moving will take place Tuesday after banking hours, and all will be in readiness for normal business Wednesday without interruption of service to the bank's customers. Wednesday evening from 8 until 9 o'clock the bank will observe open house and has extended a cordial invitation to everyone to visit its new home and make a complete tour of inspection at that time.

The new banking quarters are modern in every way, with more space in the lobby and with greater office space. Attractive fixtures are of the counter type, and are the very latest thing. An attractive inlaid floor has also been provided, adding greatly to the beauty of the interior. The new vault is considered the last word in safety, having a door alone that will weigh in the neighborhood of 10,000 pounds. This door is controlled by three time locks of the latest design. Thousands of pounds of steel and concrete went into the walls of the vault.

The entire bank building has been remodeled, the third story having been torn away. The outside is being stuccoed for a more attractive appearance. Everyone is invited to visit the bank upon its formal opening Wednesday.

GOODMAN A. NORMAN VICTIM OF PARALYSIS

Goodman A. Norman, 59, passed away Thursday at his home at Thurmond following a paralytic stroke. Mr. Norman was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Norman. He was a loyal member of the White Rock Methodist church and had been a member of the Masonic fraternity for thirty years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ella Vanhoy Norman, seven children, Walter, Albert, Coy, Misses Sallie, Pearl and Lillie Norman of Thurmond, Mrs. Gurney Barker of Winston-Salem, and two brothers, Addison and William Norman of Thurmond. Funeral services were held Friday from Thurmond. The rites were in charge of Rev. Grant Cothren.

Maybe dogs have a language of their own. But we would like to know what a little harmless dog says when being led around by a long leash.

Not all criminals are brought to justice, especially those guilty of murdering the English language.

Pen And Pencil Offer Extended Short Time

People of this section are showing a real appreciation of The Tribune's Extension Offer of a fine Fountain Pen and Pencil Set free with each yearly subscription paid. Immediately after announcement that offer had been extended additional citizens began to take advantage of it and right now the calls are sufficiently numerous to indicate that almost as many sets will be placed during the extension campaign as during the original time set for the offer.

The Tribune is pleased that additional time could be granted on the offer. Frankly, we would like to see every family throughout the wide trade territory obtain one or more of these writing sets. It is most certainly all find daily use for them. It takes time, of course, to make wide distribution of a premium, but our objective is now in sight. At the present rate there will be at close of the extension period very few homes in this section that will not have sent in a renewal or new subscription to The Tribune and thereby obtained a set. A surpris-

Queen God-Mother

London . . . Lady Anne Rhys proudly holds her infant daughter, Elizabeth Maud, at whose christening Queen Elizabeth will be one of the God-Mothers.

D. A. R. TO HOLD MEETING LOCALLY

Jonathan Hunt Chapter to Be Hostess to Members of Second District

ON FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1ST

The Jonathan Hunt Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be hostess Friday, October 1, to members of the D. A. R. of the second district, of which Mrs. Joe Bivins of this city is chairman.

The meeting will convene at 10:30 o'clock in the Methodist church and members of the D. A. R. will serve a plate lunch to the visitors at the noon recess.

Towns represented in the district are: Elkin, Crossnore, Lenoir, Hickory, North Wilkesboro, Statesville and Mooresville.

State officers who are expected to attend in addition to the delegates from the various chapters are: Mrs. Eugene Norfleet Davis, Raleigh, State Regent; Mrs. C. Wayne Spencer, Wilmington, Vice-Regent; Mrs. E. E. Gillespie, Greensboro, Chaplain; Miss Virginia Home, Wadesboro, Recording Secretary; Mrs. E. A. Branch, Raleigh, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. A. O. Myers, Hendersonville, treasurer and Mrs. Preston B. Wilkes, Jr., Charlotte, librarian.

TO HOLD EXAM FOR RURAL MAIL CARRIER

The United States Civil Service commission has announced an examination to fill the position of rural carrier at Boonville, the examination to be held at Elkin October 15.

The salary of a rural carrier on a standard route of 30 miles served daily except Sunday is $1,800 per annum with an additional $20 per mile per annum for each mile or fraction thereof in excess of 30 miles.

The examination is open only to citizens who live in the territory of the postoffice to be served.

DRUNKEN DRIVERS FEATURE COURT AT DOBSON LAST WEEK

Half of Cases Were For Driving Intoxicated

GRAND JURY REPORTS

Number of Repairs Recommended for County Home; Prison Camp Okey

MANY ARE SENTENCED

During the one-week term of criminal court at Dobson last week, which was presided over by Judge Donald F. Phillips, a large number of cases were disposed of, more than half of which were for driving cars while intoxicated, with the Grand Jury handing down a total of 42 true bills of indictment.

The report of the Grand Jury showed that a number of repairs were recommended for the county home and that the new buildings at the county home be painted. It also showed that there were 43 inmates at the county home, all of which are well cared for and are pretty well content.

The report on the county prison camp stated that that place was in good condition. The report on the county court house stated that repairs were recommended for the roof and the parapet wall of the building and that the steps at the north entrance to the court house also be repaired. Otherwise the building was said to have been in pretty good condition.

Franklin Edward Freeman and John Edward Badgett were granted licenses to practice law in the state of North Carolina by the court while in session.

Cases heard by the court were as follows: S. W. Tilley, for violating the prohibition laws, was given a sentence of 60 days in jail.

Gray Harris, charged with operating a car while intoxicated, was sent to the roads for four months.

Jim Overby, charged with operating a car while intoxicated was given a sentence of four months to the roads, suspended upon payment of $50.00 and the costs of the action, and upon condition of total abstinence from intoxicants, and is to have his drivers license revoked.

Jack Lewis Burcham, charged with operating a car while intoxicated.

(Continued on page four)

NATIVE OF SURRY PASSES MONDAY

J. P. Rawley, 51, publisher and general manager of the High Point Enterprise since 1915, died Monday night at his home. He had been critically ill for several months.

The deceased was a native of Surry county and a son of David Albert and Susan Columbus Rawley. He entered newspaper work in 1908 and had been active in his profession until he was forced to retire on account of ill health. His activities also carried him into many other fields both in civic and state affairs and he is credited with having begun the movement to publicize North Carolina.

Funeral services were held at the home in High Point. Interment was in Oakwood Memorial Park there.

JONES B. DARNELL DIES MONDAY P. M.

Jones B. Darnell, 69, esteemed citizen of the Pleasant Hill community, west of Elkin, died at his home Monday afternoon, following a long period of ill health.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Julia Day Darnell, and eight sons and daughters, Charles P. Darnell, Mrs. Lillie Lyons, Clarence Darnell, Mrs. Mary Phillips, Erastus, Wade, Everett and Jones Darnell, Jr., all of Elkin.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning from Pleasant Hill Baptist church. Interment was in the church cemetery.

B. & L. DECLARING 5 PER CENT DIVIDEND

The Elkin-Jonesville Building & Loan Association has announced a regular yearly dividend of 5 per cent as of October 1, it was learned from Paul Gwyn, secretary-treasurer, Wednesday. The local association has had a record of growth and progress since it first began business more than 25 years ago.

New York Fetes New Legion Chief

New York City . . . Stephen Chadwick of Seattle, Wash., Raymond J. Kelly, Detroit, Michigan, and Daniel Dougherty of Woburn, Massachusetts (left to right), candidates for National Commander post, at a luncheon given by the Advertising Club of this city.

To Put Fire Escapes On Elkin School

According to statements by John W. Comer, county superintendent of schools, and Dr. J. G. Abernethy, school committee member, the fire escapes for the Elkin graded school building will soon be an actuality, with work promised to begin on the project within the next week or so. One fire escape will be moved from the old Mountain Park building, which will be supplemented by new ones for the other needs. A statement was further made to the effect that the other work on the school building recommended by the state fire inspector will also be done in connection with the fire-escape job.

Mr. Comer further stated that the new Sheals high school opened with an optimistic outlook, with 65 in the high school classes and with 195 in the lower grades.

MANY FINE BOOKS IN LIBRARY HERE

Much interest has been shown in the opening of the public library here and the Woman's Club is highly gratified over the enthusiastic reception from the public.

Among popular new books that may be obtained from the library are: At Midnight, Houck; Fine to Look At, Kerr; Touchdown, Sherman; Twenty-Four Hours a Day, Baldwin; Sidesaddle Ranch, Warner; Happy House, Abbott; Northwest Passage, Roberts; One Minute to Play, Sherman; The Citadel, Cronin; The Young Forster, Gray; A Love Like That, Garth; The Seven Who Fleed, Prokosch; The Return to Religion, Link; I've Been to London, Bailey; And So-Victoria, Wilkins; Gone With the Wind, Mitchell; Four Men and a Prayer, Garth; How to Win Friends and Influence People, Carnegie. Many others are also obtainable.

In addition to the list of contributors published heretofore the following have donated either books or money or both: Mrs. A. M. Smith, I. C. Yates, Elk Printing company, Gordon Gray, J. R. Poindexter, Dr. C. L. Haywood, Jr.

JOHN DAVID ELLER DIES FRIDAY P. M.

Prominent Jonesville Man Passes Away After Extended Illness

FUNERAL HELD SUNDAY

John David Eller, prominent citizen of Jonesville and former mayor of the town, died Friday night at his home after an extended illness. He was a native of Wilkes county and a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Madison Eller. For twenty-eight years he was associated with the Elkin office of the Southern Railway company. He was an active member of the Jonesville Baptist church, having served as superintendent of the Sunday school for fifteen years and as chairman

(Continued on last page, 1st Sec.)

Elkin High To Meet Mooresville Here Friday

Making an impressive showing against Statesville last Friday afternoon even though taking the short end of a 2-0 score, the Elkin high school football machine is pointing towards their first home game here at Chatham Athletic Field Friday afternoon with a strong Mooresville Hi team.

Coach Newsome has been drilling the team daily in every department and polishing rough spots apparent in the opening game with Statesville. Particular emphasis is being placed on pass defense with blocking coming in for its full share of attention.

Worried not the least by their loss, the team has shown high spirit in practice drills and is planning a real reception for the visitors from Mooresville, who will be playing on Elkin sod for the first time.

Mooresville is not the only tough team awaiting the Elks. The schedule for the season, as announced Tuesday, shows a number of tough opponents to be met before the curtain rings down November 24. With October 8 open, the Elks will meet North Wilkesboro here

ELKIN FAIR COMES TO END SATURDAY; HUNDREDS ATTEND

Horse Show is Big Feature Of Event

WILLIAMS WINS PRIZE

Is Awarded First Place For Best Live-at-Home Exhibit

STAGE DANCE CONTEST

Hundreds of people from this entire section visited Elkin's biggest fair, held here last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The event was considered a success by all who attended.

Many fine exhibits were on display in the exhibition building, and excellent prizes were awarded winners.

First prize in the live-at-home went to W. B. Williams, of Rusk; second prize to J. R. Martin, Rockford, and third prize to M. F. Barker, of Roaring River. A tenth prize ribbon was attached to the unique live-at-home exhibit entered under the name of Henry Dobson, one of Elkin's leading farmers.

Dillon Barker, of Roaring River, was awarded first prize in the garden exhibit department; J. R. Martin, Dockery, second; Paul West, Roaring River, third; C. B. Settle, Benham, fourth, and Noah Settle, Ronda, fifth. All exhibits were pronounced excellent by the judges.

John L. Bray, with a stalk of corn measuring over 15 feet, was winner of the tall corn contest.

One of the biggest features of the fair was the horse show, staged under the direction of J. B. Parks, following the illness of Ruohs Pyron, which prevented him from taking part. Judges of the contest stated that the horse show was a credit to the section, and highly complimented the many excellent animals which took part.

The horse show drew entries from many different sections, the county farm having horses here for the event. These horses, due

(Continued on last page, 1st Sec.)

BOONVILLE WOMAN CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mrs. Laura Jones Hurt Passes Saturday Night After Long Illness

FUNERAL RITES MONDAY

Mrs. Laura Jones Hurt died Saturday night at her home near Boonville, following a long period of ill health. The deceased was the wife of James Hurt and a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Jones, one of Boonville's most prominent families. She was a member of the Boonville Baptist church.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at 11 o'clock from the Boonville Baptist church. Burial was in the Jones family plot in the Boonville cemetery.

Surviving are her husband, six sons: H. C. Hurt, Iredell county; Nearest Hurt, Montana; Zeb Hurt, Washington; Everette and Ernest Hurt, Boonville and Paul Hurt of Jonesville and one daughter, Mrs. Opal Roberts, who resides in a western state; two brothers, J. L. and Houston Jones, Boonville and two sisters, Mrs. Lula Watkins, Rockford and Mrs. Bryte Woodhouse, Atlanta.