Woman's Club to Sponsor Brunswick Stew This Evening

Members of the Elkin Woman's Club will sponsor a Brunswick stew to be held this evening (Thursday) at six o'clock at the community playground. The affair will be held outdoors if the weather is permissible and indoors in the gymnasium in case of bad weather.

Proceeds of the affair will go toward the public library fund and a cordial invitation is extended the public to attend. Dinner tickets will be sold downtown by members of the club or may be obtained from Mrs. E. S. Spainhour.

Members of the Kiwanis Club will suspend their regular meeting at Hotel Elkin to attend the supper.

Martin-Kearns Vows Solemnized Tuesday

Announcement is made today of the marriage of Mrs. Cora White Martin and R. Glenn Kearns, both of High Point, which was solemnized in Greensboro in a simple ceremony at high noon on Tuesday, September 28.

For her nuptials the bride wore a fall suit of wine-colored woolen material, with blue fox trim and her small felt hat with short veil was of black, as were her other accessories.

Mrs. Kearns is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. White of Elkin but she has been making her home in High Point for the past eight years. Mr. Kearns is the son of Mrs. Lee Kearns, of High Point, and the late Mr. Kearns. Following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to New York and other northern points and on their return will be at home at 406 Smith street, High Point.

Mrs. Byrd Is Honored At Shower Tuesday Evening

Honoring Mrs. Vance Byrd, who prior to her recent marriage was Miss Maude Masten, Mrs. Ora Wall Vanhoy and Miss Nell Byrd entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Vanhoy on Elk Spur street Tuesday evening. The home was beautifully decorated with a wealth of dahlias in brilliant colors, and ageratum.

Mrs. Byrd was presented with a number of lovely and useful gifts.

A tempting refreshment course was served late in the evening to the following guests: Mrs. Byrd, honoree, Mrs. Carl Young, Mrs. Jack Brown, Miss Florence Eldridge, Mrs. Rufus Wagoner, Miss Ethel Gilliam, Miss Dorothy Hampton, Miss Dorothy Masten, Misses Hazel and Blenden Byrd, Miss Freida Dobbins, Mrs. Lucille Dorsett Carrick, Miss Velda Holcomb, Miss Louise Byrd, Miss Lucy Myers, Miss Lillian Tucker, Mrs. Odell Couch and Mrs. Jack Terrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Dockery Are Honored at Party Thursday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dockery, who were recently married, were honored at a delightful party Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young, at their home on Elk Spur street.

Three tables were placed for rummy. Bridal place cards, marked the places of the players and the decorations and appointments featured the bridal colors of green and white. At the close of the games Mrs. Chas. Young received the high score award for ladies and the prize for men went to James Young. Mrs. Dockery was presented a floor lamp as guest of honor.

A beautifully appointed salad course, carrying out in detail the color scheme of green and white, was served the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Dockery, Mrs. Chas. Young, James Young, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brannon, Mrs. DeLos Underwood, Mrs. Lucille Dorsett Carrick, Miss Velda Holcomb, Baltus Holbrook and John Sprinkle.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Carter celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday at their home near Carter's Falls. Approximately 200 relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Carter gathered to share the day with them. The celebration was doubly significant as it also marked the seventieth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Carter, who prior to her marriage was Miss Betty Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Harris.

A bountiful dinner was served at the noon hour. Brief talks were made by Rev. Grant Cothren and Rev. Isom Vestal and Mr. Carter also made a short talk.

Two huge cakes graced the table, one for the wedding anniversary and the other for Mrs. Carter's birthday. Both were handsomely decorated.

The five children of Mr. and Mrs. Carter, together with their families were present. They are: Mrs. Eli Smith, Benham, Mrs. Edgar Tucker, Benham, Mrs. John Lawrence, Elkin and Kenis and Virgil Carter, Carter Falls.

Fulp-Revelle

Miss May Olive Fulp of Elkin and Norfolk, Va., was married Saturday afternoon, September 18, to Castellaine R. Revelle of Norfolk. The marriage was solemnized at the parsonage of a Norfolk Baptist church with Dr. Sparks Melton officiating, using the ring ceremony.

For her wedding the bride wore a fall suit of gray wool with black caracul trim.

Mrs. Revelle is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fulp of this city. Since the completion of her nursing training course she has been engaged in the practice of her profession in Norfolk.

Mr. Revelle is a son of Mrs. R. H. Revelle of Norfolk and the late Mr. Revelle. He is engaged in the building contracting business in Norfolk.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Revelle left for a honeymoon to Northern cities and arrived here Wednesday for a visit to the bride's parents. After September 30 they will be at home at 1804 Monticello Avenue, Norfolk.

Parent-Teacher Business Meeting Reception Tuesday

The Parent-Teacher Association met in the first session of the school year Tuesday afternoon at the elementary school building with a splendid attendance.

Mrs. C. L. Haywood, Jr., president of the association, presided over the business session, at which time reports from the various chairmen were given.

Two matters of importance, the addition of a woman janitor to assist in cleaning and the installation of a telephone in the elementary school building, were voted on favorably by the association. Mr. McAdams, superintendent of the school, also reported that the work of repairing and painting the elementary school had been approved and the work was expected to begin at once.

The attendance award was won by Miss Lucille Young's seventh grade.

Following the business session the members adjourned to the lower hall of the building, where the annual reception for the teachers was held. Mrs. George Royall and Mrs. Marion Allen were in charge of the reception and the program was arranged by Mrs. E. F. McNeer. Serving on the hostess committee with the above were: Mesdames T. G. Harris, Edw. Harris, F. M. Norman, Paul Gwyn, Hugh B. Holcomb and H. P. Graham.

The hall was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and flowers.

The first number on the program was a quartette, "Plantation Lullaby" by Mesdames E. G. Click, Fred Colhard, E. F. McNeer and H. P. Graham, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. O. Bryan.

Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt was guest speaker for the afternoon and told briefly of the schools in China, where she was reared. She displayed costumes of the school children, exhibits of their work and pictures of the classes. Mrs. Whisenhunt is thoroughly familiar with the Orient and her talk was highly enjoyed.

A vocal solo "That Little Boy of Mine" by Mrs. Fletcher Harris, accompanied by Miss Ola Angell, a reading by Miss Emma Cooke, and a vocal solo "He Was a Prince" by Miss Josephine Paul, accompanied by Miss Caroline Lillard, concluded the program.

A social hour was enjoyed at which time the social committee served sandwiches, cakes and coffee.

to the fact that they belong to the people of the county, were not entered competitively.

Prior to the show, the horses and mules were paraded from Chatham athletic field to the fair grounds.

Another feature of the fair was the field day open to schools of Surry and neighboring counties. The trophy cup was awarded to Boonville high school as the school winning the greatest number of events. C. H. Brewer and J. Mark McAdams were in charge.

In the Big Apple contest, staged Friday night under the direction of Miss Dorothy and Fred Colhard, prizes were awarded to the following couples: Big Apple, first, Buddy Webber and Sarah Alexander; second, Nancy Lazenby and Reid Morrison; third, Raymond Chatham and Ruth Mayberry; trucking, Buddy Webber and Joe Transou; most unique, first, Buddy Webber and Sarah Alexander; second, Reid Morrison and Nancy Lazenby. Miss Constance Greenwood won the prize for tap dancing.

Mrs. Alan Browning, Jr., secretary of the fair, stated that she wished to thank everyone who worked with her in staging the event, including those in charge of exhibits, special departments, concessions, etc., and those who so kindly aided in preparing the grounds and building for the fair. Without their generous help, the fair could not have been a success, she stated.
