

County Are Guest Local School

A meeting of the Home Economics teachers of the county was held Friday evening in the high school building. During a brief business session plans were made for similar monthly meetings to will be hostess to the Edith Adair ever used.

Bingo was enjoyed during a so-tial hour and a tempting refresh-tial hour and a tempting refresh-tial hour and a tempting refresh-tial hour and a tempting refreshment course was served.

The next meeting is scheduled for the second week in November

Misses Gray To Be Hoostess To

Grow Better Wheat

Larger Yields Mean

Lower Costs

FARMERS EVERYWHERE REPORT-

That INTERNATIONAL GRAIN

GROWER produces larger yields, higher quality and greater profits per acre than any fertilizer they have

WE RECOMMEND AND SELL

International

BECAUSE IT IS THE BEST

CASH AND CARRY STORES

ELKIN, N. C.

Mission Circle Misses Lucy and Agnes Gray

Clyde Cothren in Early Morning Ceremony A marriage beautiful in simplicity and dignity was the early morning service Wednesday, at 8 clock to unite Miss Cloie Dan Holcomb and Clyde Edward Cothren, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford G. Holcomb in Jonesville Rev. Eph Whisenhunt of the First Baptist church in this city officiated, using the ring ceremony Only the immediate families of the young couple were present. In the living room an improvised altar was arranged. A background of fern was interspersed with white dahlias and the same flowers were used in tall white baskets. Cathedral candles in tall candelabrae softly lighted the

Mrs. Ivory Johnson, pianist, rendered the wedding music, playing as a processional "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, and as a recessional "Wedding March" from Midsummer Night's Dream. "To a Wild Rose" (Mc-Dowell) was softly played during the ceremony.

The bride and bridegroom entered together, unattended.

Miss Holcomb was becomingly dressed in a fall suit of nubby brown woolen with a blouse in the same shade of satin and other accessories of brown. She wore a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses and lily-of-the-valley. She is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Holcomb and was educated in the Jonesville school and at King's business school, Greensboro. For the past few years she has held a secretarial position at Harris Electric Company.

Mr. Cothren is the only son of an's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church, at their home on Franklin street, Tuesday with a wide circle of friends.

Following a wedding trip through the Shenandoah Valley to places of interest in the North, Mr. and Mrs. Cothren will be at home after October 15, at the Leona Darnell, Pauline Morrison home of the bridegroom's parents. Beatrice Burcham and Mrs. Rebs wedding have been issued.

Miss Janet Berkley Speaks to Woman's Club at Luncheon

The new year for the Elkin Woman's Club was officially begun Evelyn Mayberry, Aldie Tuesday with the annual get-together luncheon at Hotel Elkin. The meeting was widely attended and very enjoyable. The banquet hall of the hotel was lavishly decorated with a wealth of autumn foliage in varied shades of red and the color note was further accentuated in lovely bouquets of dahlias placed at intervals on the three tables where the guests were seated. White tapers in crystal holders interspersed the flowers. autumn hue.

Mrs. Paul Gwyn, president of ent. the club, presided over the meetat the speaker's table, were intro- round dancing. duced by Mrs. Gwyn.

Sixteen new members have althe membership committee.

was given by Mrs. Marion Allen.

A total of $77.50 in money and a Biddix, Edith Shore, Babe Poole, donation of 490 books has already Biddix, Edith Shore, Babe Poole, Next Door to Turner Drug Co. been received by the library from Henry Shelton. local citizens and other pledges have been made. In addition to the above the bunswick stew sponsored by the club Thursday evening netted a total of $36.00 to bolster the library fund. Miss Janet Berkley of Winston-Salem, librarian for the city library, was guest speaker for the meeting and her talk was highly enjoyed. She traced the origin of the library movement and told of the part the library has played in the growth of the nation. She also commended the club for interest shown in the movement locally and pointed out that Federated clubs over the nation have been widely responsible for the cstablishment of a major per cent of libraries, and voiced a hope that it would continue until such time as a public library would be within the reach of every citizen.

The final number on the program was a vocal solo "Michaelmas Daisies," by Mrs. E. G. Click, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. O. Bryan.

The meeting closed with the club collect in unison.

Chatham Company Holds Annual

Employer-Employee Banquet The annual employer-employee banquet of the Elkin plant of the Chatham Manufacuring company was given Friday evening, sponsored by the Lucy Hanes Chat-ham Clubs of Elkin. The dinner was given at Hotel Elkin, followed by a dance at the Lucy Hanes Chatham clubhouse in East

The banquet hall was attractively decorated, using the color motif of green and white. Beau-tiful floor baskets containing various colored dahlias were arranged in the room. The tables were placed in a square and here were seated ninety foremen and club members. On the tables beautiful bowls of cosmos, yellow and white ponpon dahlias interspersed with candles, small American and North Carolina flags were attractively arranged. A North Carolina program was given. The guests found their places by attractive place cards made of tiny green North Carolina maps, cut from construction paper, with a mint cup attached, and a tiny white boot with tar on the heel, thus carrying out the idea of tar-heel. Programs were booklets on the backs of which was an Eastern North Carolina hunting scene.

Seated at the speaker's table were Mr. and Mrs. Thurmond Chatham, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Neaves, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Poindexter, Rev. J. L. Powers, Claudia dexter, Rev. J. L. Powers, Claudia Austin, Lexa Cummings, Mrs. Hugh Brannon and Mrs. Mary Eidson Brown, toastmistress, The program opened with the invocation by Rev. J. L. Powers, following which Mrs. Ivory Johnson rendered a piano solo. The welcome address was given by Miss Lexa Cummings, president of the Lucy Hanes Chatham Club No. 2. J. L. Powers. – foreman of the J. L. Powers, foreman of the Spinning department, responded. Miss Etta Mathis read a toast to Mrs. Chatham, for whom the club was named. This was graciously responded to by Mrs. Chatham. Miss Beatrice Burcham rendered a vocal solo, "Trees," accompanied at the plane by Mrs. ext came North Carolina's In-this city and is connected with read an interesting history of the Chatham Manufacturing company.

Both are deservedly popular with a wide circle of friends. beautiful Carolina songs. Miss Leona Darnell read one of John Charles McNeil's poems, called "Dew." North Carolina's dances were then introduced with Mis Formal announcements of the Newman doing the square dance to the music of the Midnight Ramblers string band. Dobson followed with the oldtime black bottom dance. "Big Apple" dance was then in-troduced with Misses Erline and Edith Shore of the Winston Club, Hugh Salmons, Bobby Harris, Bill Smoot and Worth Folger showing the crowd how it should be done Mrs. Hallie Haynes then told the story of the "Life of Paul Green," North Carolina play writer. Throughout the evening at opportune times, Carolina songs were sung by the entire party. The high light of the program was the talk made by Thurmond Chatham, president of the comholders interspersed the flowers.

Place cards were the club year books, with covers in the same proved to be most interesting as well as helpful to everyone pres-

The program came to a close ing, which opened with the Club with the singing of a Mountain Woman's hymn, followed by the Folk song. Following the dinner invocation by Mrs. W. W. Whit- the entire group went to the club aker, vice-president of the club. house where the remainder of the Department chairmen and offic-ials of the club, who were seated square dance, "Big Apple" and nished by the Midnight Ramblers string band and a nickelodian ready been enrolled, according to Approximately one hundred and Mrs. Errol Hayes, chairman of fifty attended the dinner and dance

A report of the library, the main club project for the year, Thurmond Chatham, Misses Er-

this winter, you can pull through if your car is equipped with a set of Seiberling mud and snow

This tire gives two-way traction. Runs quietly and smoothly. Gives long economical mileage. Thousands already in use. Guaranteed against all road hazards for 12 months.

SPECIAL TRADE-IN ALLOWANCE

Bring your car to our store TO-DAY, tell us what you think your old tires are worth. If your proposition is at all reasonable we will allow you what you ask as a trade-in on a set of new Seiberling Mud and

This offer is good for this week only. See us TODAY.

SEIBERLING MUD and SNOW TIRES

HINSHAW CASH HARDWARE CO.

Elkin, N. C.

Don't Miss These SPECIAL VALUES!

REMNANTS

Beautiful remnants in various lengths in woolens, silks and prints. You'll probably find exactly what you want, and you'll save just half of the original

ONE-HALF PRICE

Ladies and Children's BLOOMERS

Here's real value in good, serviceable bloomers for ladies and children. We have them in all sizes in both cotton and silk for this very low price-

CHILDREN'S SHOES

The price can't always stay this low! Guaranteend all leather shoes for children in a great variety of styles and sizes. And on-

Newest Shades In

Hosiery

We are featuring a wide shades for fall in a wide range, including price range, including Claussner and Mojud. Beau-tiful pure thread silk, full fashioned. Price range— 49c - 69c - 79c - $1.00

> Ladies' and Childrens COMBED YARN

Inderwear

Warm, comfortable combed yarn underwear for ladies and children. Real serviceable undergarments at a very low price-

owe

Reduction In

Beautiful slips in crepe and satin that formerly sold from $1.98 to $2.98, now at a " special money-

98c

VALUE!

You won't want to miss this real value in towels. You'll be surprised at the real value for such a low price. You'll want to come in today and buy at least a dozen.

ONLY

EACH

McDaniel's Dept. Store

ELKIN, N. C.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON 5:30 O'CLOCK REMEMBER! EVERY FRIDAY IS PREMIUM DAY!

USE YOUR CR

Open A Charge Account

IT'S THE EASY, CONVENIENT WAY TO BUY! WE CAN ARRANGE TERRMS TO SUIT YOU

McDaniel's Dept. Store