Jonesville P.-T. A. To Meet This Evening

The first meeting of the Jonesville Parent-Teacher Association will be held this evening (Thursday) at 7:30, in the school auditorium. Prof. L. S. Weaver, superintendent of the school, will address the gathering on "The School of Tomorrow."

Following the business session a musical program will be given and this will be followed by a reception in honor of faculty members.

A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend.

Friday Book Club Meets With Mrs. David Brendle

Limiting her guests to members of the Friday Evening Book Club, Mrs. David Brendle was hostess Friday evening at her home on Bridge Street. Rummy was played at three tables. The high score prize went to Mrs. Edworth Harris and the consolation prize to Miss Mattie Mae Powell when the final scores were counted.

An ice course with individual decorated cakes and mints was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen Entertain Fortnightly Club

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen entertained members of the Fortnightly Bridge Club at a delightful bridge-dinner at their home on Church street Friday evening. Dinner was served upon the arrival of the guests at seven o'clock and during the evening bridge was played. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers won the club award for high score at the conclusion of the play.

Members playing were: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gwyn, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poindexter and Mr. and Mrs. Allen.

Wednesday Bridge Club Meets With Mrs. Thomas Roth

Members of the Wednesday Bridge Club met with Mrs. Thomas Roth in the regular fortnightly meeting at her home on West Main street Wednesday. Autumn flowers made a pretty setting for the two tables which were placed for the games. Mrs. A. O. Bryan received the high score award at the close of the progressions.

At one o'clock a tempting and beautifully appointed luncheon was served.

Those enjoying Mrs. Roth's hospitality were: Mesdames J. R. Poindexter, Richard Chatham, Carl Poindexter, A. O. Bryan, C. L. Haywood, Jr., E. S. Spainhour and R. B. Harrell.

Joe Salmons Celebrates Fourth Birthday Anniversary

Joe Salmons celebrated his fourth birthday anniversary at an enjoyable party from 3:30 until 4:30 Thursday afternoon at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Salmons, on Church street.

Twenty-four boys and girls of a similar age were invited. Games and contests were engaged in during the afternoon.

In the dining room, where the guests were invited for refreshments a huge birthday cake was the center of attraction. The decorations were in pink and green. Ice cream and cookies were served the little guests and they were presented horns as remembrances of the event.

Lucy Brewer Is Honored On Ninth Birthday Anniversary

Honoring her little daughter, Lucy, on her ninth birthday anniversary, Mrs. C. H. Brewer entertained at a delightful party at Hotel Elkin Friday afternoon. In the main dining room of the hotel three tables were placed for bingo. Each guest was awarded an attractive prize.

Pink predominated in the decorations of the room and in the appointments of the ice course, which was served with birthday cake and mints.

Guests in addition to the honoree were: Peggy Haywood, Betty Chatham, Joan Wyatt, Betty Jean Pardue, Julia Bryan, Gene Click, Cynthia Allen, Mary Ellen Harrell, Maxine Aldridge, Mary Vance McAdams and Constance and Mildred Hock.

Mrs. Phillips Is Hostess To Pearl Johnson Circle

The Pearl Johnson circle of the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist church met with Mrs. Beatrice Myers Phillips Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. N. Myers, on West Main street, with nine members present.

Mrs. George Adams conducted the devotionals and Mrs. Leslie Reinhardt, circle chairman, presided over the business session.

Mrs. Jack Smoot, program chairman for the month, presented Miss Emma Cooke, who gave an interesting talk on China, the nation for study during the month.

A delicious refreshment course was served during a pleasant social hour at the close of the program.

Mrs. Hudgins Is Bridge Club Hostess

Mrs. R. M. Hudgins was hostess to members of her bridge club and several additional guests at a morning party, followed by a one o'clock luncheon, at her home on Gwyn Avenue Friday. Autumn flowers were used in the decorations of the home and as a centerpiece for the luncheon table.

The club award for high score went to Mrs. Chas. G. Ashby and the visitor's prize to Mrs. James Booher at the conclusion of the progressions.

Members enjoying Mrs. Hudgins hospitality were: Mesdames Chas. G. Ashby, J. R. Poindexter, Errol Hayes, R. C. Freeman and A. B. Somers. Additional guests were Mesdames Archie Lanier, James Booher and Richard Chatham.

D. A. R. Meeting Friday Well Attended

Delegates from the Daughters of the American Revolution chapters of the second district of North Carolina were guests Friday of the local chapter at an all-day meeting. Mrs. Joe Bivins of this city, district director, presided over the meeting. Reports of various chairmen and the election of officers featured the business session. Miss Lucy Finley of North Wilkesboro was elected director to succeed Mrs. Bivins, and Miss Rosamond Clarke of Statesville, was elected secretary.

Mrs. Eugene Davis, of Raleigh, state regent, was the speaker for the meeting. Her talk was greatly enjoyed as was a playlet presented by a group of children from the D. A. R. School at Crossnore. A vocal solo by Mrs. E. G. Click delighted the visitors.

A plate lunch was served by the local chapter at the noon hour. Many high officials of the state and district attended the meeting as well as a number of delegates from various chapters.

Miss Dixon Is Speaker at Garden Club Meeting

Mrs. J. H. Beeson was hostess to members of the Yadkin Valley Garden Club and several additional guests at the regular monthly meeting of the club at her home on West Main street Friday afternoon.

Mrs. W. W. Whitaker was program chairman for the month and she presented Miss Alice Dixon, guest speaker, who spoke very enjoyably on "Japanese Gardens."

The brief business meeting was presided over by Mrs. J. S. Atkinson, club president.

A social hour was enjoyed at the conclusion of the program. A tempting collation was served from the buffet. Mrs. Beeson was assisted in serving by Mrs. H. G. Cockerham and Mrs. Fletcher Harris.

Mary Vance McAdams Celebrates Tenth Birthday Anniversary

Miss Mary Vance McAdams entertained thirty of her friends Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mark McAdams, on Church street, in celebration of her tenth birthday anniversary. Guests included friends of the honoree from the first through the fifth grade of the school.

A number of delightful games and contests were engaged in during the afternoon. The honoree was the recipient of many attractive gifts.

In the dining room a color scheme of pink and green was carried out in detail. The handsome, tiered birthday cake was placed on an old-fashioned crystal cake stand. Pink and green candles arranged on the table and mantle furnished the only light when the children assembled around the table. Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served and favors were swan baskets in pink and green, filled with mints.

Little Misses Mary Liles Freeman and Edith Adair Whisenhunt joined the guests for the refreshment hour.

Mrs. McAdams was assisted by Misses Peggy Royall and Eleanor Hayes in entertaining.
