

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY CAPITAL

Dobson, October 4. — With sadness we chronicle the death of Robert D. Shore, treasurer of R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., in Winston-Salem last Friday at the City Hospital, the result of an operation for appendicitis.

The last rites were held at his home, Buena Vista Road, Saturday afternoon, amid a large number of sorrowing friends. Those attending the funeral from here were: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Reece, Mrs. Emma Mock, Miss Edythe Reece, Mrs. Emma Hampton, Henry Hampton, Wade B. Hampton and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Folger.

Wade B. Hampton returned to Washington, D. C. Sunday evening, after attending the Shore funeral and spending Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Emma Hampton.

Mrs. Ada Haymore, Mrs. Ed Inman and Ed Inman, Jr., were visitors in the Hampton home Sunday afternoon.

(Deferred from last week)
A number of Dobson friends attended the funeral of Mr. Emily Hemmings at the White Plains Baptist church Thursday. She was 85 years old, a native of Tennessee, but had resided in Surry county for 65 years. She was a consecrated Christian woman and her life was given to deeds of kindness as long as she was physically able. She is survived by two sons, Riley Lawson of Mount Airy, son of her first husband, and D. W. Hemmings, of Dobson, and three daughters, Mrs. W. N. Stanley of Vanessa, Ontario, Canada, Mrs. Kate Snow and Mrs. Pearl Snow of Dobson, and a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren survive her. Funeral services were held by J. H. Hall, her pastor, D. H. Hauser of Westfield, and C. W. Russell, of Dobson. Her body was placed by the side of her late husband, Robert Hemmings, beneath a bower of floral tributes.

Mrs. Ruth Folger Funderburk of Wilmington, visited relatives and friends in Dobson the past week.

Rev. C. W. Russell preached at the Methodist church Sunday morning, using as his text, "The Christian Church."

Miss Vera Sawyers of Westfield, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Colon Spoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNeil of Carthage, spent the week-end with Mrs. McNeil's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Norman.

Attorney W. L. Reece and Henry Hampton attended the sale of personal property Saturday, belonging to the estate of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Kapp of Kapps Mill.

Dobson school set sail this morning for a year of knowledge-seeking, under the captainship of Prof. A. H. Wolfe. Several patrons attended the opening and speeches were made by Supt. John W. Comer, Clerk of Court E. T. Lewellyn, Attorney W. L. Reece and Mr. Wolfe.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Dobson Baptist church met last Thursday evening with Mrs. D. T. Sparger.

Mrs. W. E. Hancock was program leader. Devotionals were conducted by Miss Norman, the president. Prayer by Mrs. Booker. Those contributing to the program, topic, "The Japanese," were Mrs. R. A. Freeman, Mrs. Emma Mock, and Miss Ruby Norman. During the social hour, Mrs. Sparger served sandwiches, wafers and grape juice. October meeting will be held with Mrs. W. E. Reid.

Some of the Dobson young people and several married couples enjoyed a chicken stew and marshmallow roast Saturday evening at Mr. Winfield Snow's tobacco barn. The alluring moonlight night and the glow of the furnace fires added to the pleasure of the picnickers.

BETHEL

Ronda, Route 2, Oct. 4.—Several farmers of this section have been making molasses the past week.

The rain and inclement weather probably prevented some of the folks from this section from attending services at Swan Creek church. It was the beginning of their annual revival and we all like to go.

Going with the delegates, Messrs. D. J. Melton and Millard Pardue, Mesdames W. H. Jones, D. S. Gilliam and Seaman Dobbins were Mrs. W. A. Pardue and Mrs. C. W. Gilliam, Sr. to attend the 116th session of the Brier Creek Association held with Oak Forest church last Friday, four miles east of Wilkesboro.

Mrs. Dana Cook and children visited relatives in the Cycle community the past week-end.

Next Sunday is the regular time for preaching at Bethel church. It is hoped that there will be a good congregation.

Mrs. Charles Jones who has been confined to her bed for several weeks, is improving some, we are glad to note and trust she may soon be able to be up.

Mr. Lincoln Triplett and son, Gene, visited their daughter and sister at Elkin last Sunday.
