ROBT. A. FREEMAN, Commissioner.

ty Friday evening at the home of Misses Boger to honor Miss Bobby Gilbert, who will go to Winston-Salem soon to make her home. The guest list included younger members of the high school set. A number of games and contests were enjoyed.

The honoree was presented an array of miscellaneous gifts from the guests.

The hostesses served a delicious refreshment course at the conclusion of the games.

Little Miss Elizabeth Eller Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. Clyde Eller honored her little daughter, Elizabeth, on her fourth birthday anniversary Tuesday afternoon with a party at their home on Bridge street. Twenty children were invited to share the delightful event with the honoree. A number of games were enjoyed.

The decorations were suggestive of a circus. Balloons were festooned from the ceiling and the birthday cake was decorated in animal crackers. Dixie cups were served the children and they were presented souvenirs of balloons and all-day suckers.

Mesdames Yates and Brown Entertain at Farewell Party

As a farewell courtesy to Mrs. Vance Brown, who will leave the first of November for Shelby to make her home, Mesdames I. C. Yates and Ted Brown entertained at a delightful party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Yates on Church street. Bridge and rummy were enjoyed during the evening. The bridge award for high score went to Mrs. C. L. Davis and the rummy prize to Mrs. H. F. Laffoon.

Mrs. Brown was presented a shower of handkerchiefs from the guests.

A delectable collation was served the twelve guests at the conclusion of the games.

Bride and Bride-Elect Are Feted at Luncheon Wednesday

Honoring Mrs. Hugh Chatham, a recent bride, and Miss Frances Chatham, bride-elect of the late fall, Mrs. Carl Poindexter was hostess at a lovely luncheon Wednesday at her home on Gwyn avenue. Autumn flowers and foliage made an attractive centerpiece for the dining room table, where covers were placed for the following guests: Mrs. Chatham and Miss Chatham, honorees, Miss Emmaline Neaves, Mrs. Franklin Folger, Mrs. Thomas Roth, Miss Louise Grier, Miss Thorburn Lillard, Miss Lucille Cox, Miss Caroline Lillard, Miss Margaret Greenwood and Misses Myrtle Motsinger and Delphine Crump, the latter two of Winston-Salem.

To each of the honorees Mrs. Poindexter presented a piece of china. Mrs. Thomas Roth drew the prize among the luncheon guests, and was given linens.

Patty Graham Celebrates Fourth Birthday Anniversary Saturday

Patty Graham, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Graham was honored at a delightful party at their home on West Main Street Saturday afternoon when her mother entertained eighteen girls and boys of a similar age in celebration of her fourth birthday anniversary. The home was decorated throughout with Jack O' Lanterns, autumn leaves and Hallowe'en symbols. Miss Dorothy Halsey of Mouth of Wilson, Va., assisted Mrs. Graham in directing a number of games and contests.

In the dining room, where the guests were invited for refreshments, a gaily decorated birthday cake, topped with four lighted candles, was the central decoration. Dixie cups and cookies, ornamented with Hallowe'en symbols, were served the little guests, and each was presented an attractive favor.

Garden Club Has Distinguished Visitors at Meeting

The Yadkin Valley Garden Club meeting at the home of Mrs. H. C. Salmon on Church street Friday afternoon, had as visitors, Mrs. R. L. McMillan of Raleigh, state president, Mrs. J. H. Barnwell, Burlington, Piedmont district director, and Mrs. McDowell, of Winston-Salem. Both Mrs. McMillan and Mrs. Barnwell made interesting talks on work in the state and district and the program was concluded with a round-table discussion by the members on questions of interest.

Mrs. J. S. Atkinson, president of the club, presided over the business session.

The Hallowe'en motif was carried out in detail in the delicious salad course which was served at the conclusion of the program. Members attending were: Mesdames J. S. Atkinson, W. W. Whitaker, M. A. Biggs, Wm. R. Wellborn, Joe Bivins, George Royall, E. F. McNeer, E. G. Click, H. P. Graham, J. L. Hall, Mason Lillard and J. F. Hendren.

Guests in addition to the out-of-town visitors were Mesdames Fannie Salmon and T. W. Church.

Mrs. Poindexter is Hostess to Bridge Club at Luncheon Thursday

Mrs. Carl Poindexter entertained members of her bridge club and several visitors at a delightful bridge luncheon at her home on Gwyn Avenue Thursday. The guests were invited for one o'clock and upon their arrival a beautifully appointed buffet luncheon was served. The table was centered with a bouquet of chrysanthemums and autumn leaves.

During the afternoon bridge was played at two tables. The club award for high score went to Mrs. Marion Allen and the visitor's prize to Mrs. J. R. Poindexter. Miss Julia Ashburn of Richmond, Va., guest of Mrs. J. R. Poindexter, was presented a lovely remembrance.

Members playing were: Mrs. Conrad Hock, Mrs. Richard Chatham, Mrs. Marion Allen and Mrs. Poindexter. Additional guests were: Mesdames J. R. Poindexter, Lorene Snow Whitaker, L. W. Laxton and Miss Julia Ashburn.

Mrs. McNeer is Hostess at Luncheon Saturday

Honoring Miss Frances Chatham, bride-elect, and Mrs. Hugh Chatham, a recent bride, Mrs. E. F. McNeer was hostess at a luncheon at her home on Church street Saturday at one o'clock.

The lovely table, where covers were placed for twelve, had as its central decoration a wedding scene. The bride, dressed in traditional white satin, was surrounded by bridesmaids and flower girls in dresses of pastel shades, and the bridegroom and groomsmen in full dress suits. The whole was against a background of wedding bells and silver candelabra, holding tall white tapers. Wedding bells, showered with satin ribbons fell from the chandelier.

A beautifully appointed luncheon was served.

Miss Chatham was presented a Madeira bridge set and Mrs. Chatham was given a Sunday night supper tray.

In cutting for the prize Mrs. James Booher received an attractive gift.

Departmental Meetings of Woman's Club Tuesday Afternoon

The first departmental meetings of the year of the Elkin Woman's Club will be held Tuesday afternoon, November 2, at 3:30 in the following homes:

The Department of Education will meet with Mrs. Errol Hayes on Church street. The program on "Reminiscences of the World's Friends Conference" will be in charge of Miss Alice Dixon.

The Garden Department will meet with Mrs. R. G. Smith on Gwyn Avenue. Mrs. Chas. G. Ashby will direct the program on "Flower Arrangement in the Home."

Mrs. Eugene Spainhour will be hostess to the Department of Literature at her home on West Main street. "A Look at Recent Books" will be the theme of the program, directed by Mrs. P. M. Greene.

All members are invited to attend, and are reminded that in observance of National Book Week that they are requested to bring a book or the price of a book, these donations to go to the Elkin Public Library, which is being sponsored by the club.

Miss Chatham and Mr. Baldwin Are Honored at Dinner

Honoring Miss Frances Chatham of this city and James Baldwin of Medina, Ohio, whose wedding late this fall will be one of the outstanding social events of the season, Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Harrell entertained at a buffet supper at their home on West Main street Tuesday evening. The guest list for dinner included members of Miss Chatham's family. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Alex Chatham, parents of the bride-elect, Mrs. Raymond Chatham, Dick Chatham, Mrs. R. M. Chatham, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Chatham, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Lillard, Misses Carolyn and Thorburn Lillard, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gwyn and Miss Chatham and Mr. Baldwin.

The home was decorated throughout with yellow chrysanthemums and white candles.

The affair was doubly significant as it was Miss Chatham's birthday and a number of additional guests were invited for the cake cutting. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roth, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Folger, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Parks, Miss Josephine Paul, Miss Norma Cawthon, Bill Smoot and John Sagar.

Miss Chatham was presented a lovely and useful array of gifts from the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker Celebrate Fortieth Wedding Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Whitaker celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary quietly Sunday at their home on Church street. Only the immediate families of Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker were present and they were invited for the day. At one o'clock a beautifully appointed buffet dinner was served. In the dining room gorgeous white chrysanthemums were used, a huge wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and decorated in green and white, with the inscription 1897-1937, graced the center of the table. The scene was lighted with tall white tapers in green holders. Mrs. E. E. Hayes of this city and Mrs. Hoy Moose of Mount Pleasant, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker, and Mrs. R. B. Harrell, assisted in serving.

In the living room and hall of the home lovely bowls of brilliant red roses were effectively used.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Errol Hayes and children, Eleanor and Errol, Jr., of Elkin, Mr. and Mrs. Hoy Moose and son, Hoy, Jr., Mount Pleasant; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Young, Walkertown; Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Frye, Pilot Mountain; Mrs. A. B. Harrell, Mrs. Percy Whitaker, Henry Whitaker, Mrs. J. Matt Tuttle and daughters, Eleanor and Nan, Winston-Salem; Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell and son, Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. James and son, Jimmy and W. S. Reich, all of Elkin.

Parent-Teachers in Monthly Session Tuesday Afternoon

Members of the Parent-Teacher Association met Tuesday afternoon in the elementary school auditorium in the regular monthly session. Mrs. C. L. Haywood, Jr., president of the association, presided over the meeting.

It was urged during the meeting that adolescent boys and girls and adults see the picture "Damaged Goods", to be shown at a local theatre next week. The picture, which is highly rated, deals with social diseases.

Since the last meeting of the association the WPA has installed a lunch room in the elementary school, under the direction of Mrs. Myrtle Sprinkle, and light but substantial lunches are served the children for a small fee. It is hoped that within a short time that lunches may be furnished without charge to some of the children of the school.

Klondike Farm is furnishing milk at cost for the lunches and an ice box to keep the food fresh has been loaned by Elkin Plumbing and Heating Company. Mr. and Mrs. J. Mark McAdams have loaned a stove for preparing the food and other donations of equipment and money for the lunchroom have been made by interested parties. Those interested in making a contribution to the work are asked to call either Mrs. C. L. Haywood, Jr., or Mrs. Errol Hayes, who will call for them. A small amount will feed an undernourished child for a month, and this is the primary aim of the lunch room.

The attendance award was won by Miss Lucille Young's sixth grade.

The program was in charge of Miss Addie Malone of Charlotte, and LeRoy Campbell of this city, and was an illustrated lecture on proper lighting.

ZEPHYR

Reported by Seventh Grade
Rev. E. G. Jordan filled his appointment at Bessie's Chapel church Saturday night and Sunday morning.

Mrs. M. A. Southard, who has been ill at her home, is now improving.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Southard of Salisbury, Mr. and Mrs. Dubb Whitt and Mrs. White were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Southard.

Mr. Nance's singing class will meet Friday night at 7:00 o'clock. Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. Arch McCoin were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wall.

Mr. R. B. Blackwelder, principal of Zephyr school, spent last week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Blackwelder of Concord.

Mrs. Myrtle Key is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Fowler of Thomasville.

Nothing Unusual
Customer—Look here, butcher you are giving me a big piece of bone. With meat as high as it is, I don't want all that bone.
Butcher—I'm not giving it to you, Mister, you're paying for it.

Don't let your children suffer a moment longer than strictly necessary. Home made cures are messy, smelly, slow and uncertain.

HEADACHE REMEDY
STARTS WORKING IN SECONDS

THE REASON BAYER ASPIRIN WORKS SO FAST
Drop a Bayer Aspirin tablet into a tumbler of water. By the time it hits the bottom of the glass it is dissolving.
This speed of dissolution enables genuine BAYER Aspirin tablets to start "kicking hold" of headache and similar pain a few minutes after taking.

All people who suffer occasionally from headaches ought to know this way to quick relief.

At the first sign of such pain, take two Bayer Aspirin tablets with a half glass of water. Sometimes if the pain is unusually severe, one more tablet is necessary later, according to directions.

If headaches keep coming back we advise you to see your own physician. He will look for the cause in order to correct it.
