faculty sponsored a Hallowe'en carnival Friday evening, which held in the spacious gymnacrowd. One outstanding feature of the evening was a "Womanless Wedding," in which Dr. Joe Folger played the role of the blushing bride, while Mr. Fred Lewellyn was the happy groom. R. A. a prayer. . Freeman was the officiating minister and the entire performance created much fun and laughter.

Bingo and the "Cake Walk, and the Big Apple were other attractions. The proceeds were given for library and athletic needs. Mr. Cox and Miss Lucky won prizes for the best Hallowe'en costumes. Larry Taylor and Gray Bolick won the cake in the "Cake Walk-

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reid, Mr. F. W. Best and Miss Eugenia Reid spent Sunday at Boone and Rock, enjoying beautiful forests in their autumn dress of varied colors.

Miss Mary Coble spent the week-end in Greensboro and Miss Alexander visited Marguerite friends in Mt. Airy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Threatte spent Friday afternoon in Winston-Salem on business.

Mrs. Sallie Folger is visiting Mrs. W. B. White at Union

Grove, Iredell County. Mr. Brady Steele has moved his family to Main street, occupying the Reid house. The town youngsters played havoc with the town Saturday night in all grades of Hallowe'en pranks and stunts.

Mrs. Emma Hampton, Mrs. W. L. Reece and Miss Edythe Reece went to Mocksville Saturday. They were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Brinegar and visited with Mrs. Louie Williamson and daughter, Miss Chinita Williamson of Seattle, Washington, who are guests at the Brinegar home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade McKinney of Mt. Airy were visitors in Dobson Sunday afternoon.

Misses Julia Comer and Sara Elizabeth Vernon of Burlington on the mountains Sunday and by Attorney John Wallace of per.

RONDA SINGING MEETING HELD

Is Held at Swan Creek Church Sunday; Many Singers Take Part

NEXT SINGING IN '38

The Ronda Singing Convention met at Swan Creek church last Sunday, October 31st. The meetsium and attended by a large ing opened with singing several > Songs were rendered by Swan Creek and Bethel choirs, with quartets from each place and a beautiful duet was sung by Misses Blanche and Irene Myers, accompanied at the piano by Chas. T. Jones. The Nance Quartet was also present and gave several se-

> The service closed for a period for recreation and lunch with a prayer led by Rev. R. J. Pardue. At 1:30 o'clock the congregation re-assembled and sang "Savior More Than Life to Me," to open the service, and Rev. R. C. Pardue led a prayer.

A large class from Shady Grove church, led by Mr. Avery Cole-man, joined the band of singers. They also had a quartet and several special singers.

Several duets were given by the Bray sisters from Fall Creek, that were enjoyed much, and a trio by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones and Eugene Jones.

A large crowd was present and a good day for all who love to Hock on her twelfth birthday ansing and hear music. For the Hock on her twelfth birthday anclosing hymn, "The Unclouded niversary, Mrs. Conrad Hock en-

Winston-Salem was in Dobson Saturday on legal business. Henry Hampton spent Sunday with friends at Wilkesboro. Mrs. Emma Reece Mock, Miss ginia Sunday afternoon, taking noon at 3:30: in the beauty of nature from the The Emma famous scenic highway.

were week-end guests of Miss Em- a glowing bonfire prepared and

ANNUONCING

Change of Location G.&S. PLUMBING CO.

From Greenwood Building, E. Main Street

Former White Swan Laundry Building SOUTH BRIDGE STREET

R. E. Gilliam

J. D. Smith

YOUR Photograph Will Make An Ideal Christmas Gift!

Your photograph this Christmas will be a gift that will be appreciated. And doubly so, if we make it. For here you benefit from many years of experience, plus high quality materials and exacting workmanship. Why not arrange now for a sitting and avoid the last minute Christmas rush. Portraits made in your home or at the studio.

MAKE AN APPOINTMENT TODAY

Eckenrod's Studio

West Main St.

Elkin, N. C.

Every Night Is Halloween To the Motorist Taxpayer!

cigarette set.

For the party Miss Frances wore a costume of blue with wine accessories and Mrs. Hugh Chatham wore a costume of black with matching accessories.

Birthday Anniversary

Honoring her daughter, Mildred Day" was sung by the congrega-tion and Rev. Gus Myers led the Monday with a theatre and drug-The next singing is to be held store party. Mrs. Hock first conat Shady Grove church about 10 ducted her young guests to the miles east of Wilkesboro, the theatre for the special screen feafifth Sunday in January, 1938. store where booths had been reserved for reshments.

Baptist Circles Meet

The Circle Meetings of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Phoebe Featherstone and Mr. and First Baptist Church met in the Mrs. A. D. Folger motored to Vir- following homes, Monday after-

The Emma Leachman Circle met with Mrs. Ira S. Gambill in Dr. and Mrs. Paul Folger and North Elkin, with 10 members and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Cobb went up one visitor present. Mrs. T. L. Parnell, leader, presided over the a glowing bonfire prepared and business meeting. Mrs. E. C. James partook of a bountiful picnic supread the devotionals and led in prayer. The program was in charge of Mrs. Oscar Darnell, assisted by Miss Ella Cockerham and Mrs. Parnell.

The Neale Young Circle met in the home of Mrs. C. I. Boger on West Main Street. Eleven mem-bers and one visitor were present. In the absence of the leader, Mrs. I. C. Yates, Mrs. T. V. Cockerham presided. Mrs. L. C. Couch led the devotionals. Mrs. T. W. Church had charge of the program assisted by Mrs. Ida Cockerham.

The Naomi Schell Circle met with Mrs. J. F. Moseley on Elk Spur Street, with twelve members and two visitors present. The business was presided over by Mrs. Moseley, chairman. Mrs. C. N. Myers read the devotional and prayer was offered by Mrs. J. F. Cook. Mrs. Myers conducted an

The topic for the month of all the circles was "The Syrians and Armenians" and the Bible study was "The Holy Spirit in the Churches". Each group gave a basket of groceries as its monthly personal service work.

Each circle enjoyed delicious refreshments at the social hour.

Mrs. Folger and Miss Neaves Entertain at Morning Party

Mrs. J. Cam Fields of Mouthof-Wilson, Virginia, bride of the early fall and Miss Frances Chatham, bride-elect of early December, shared honors at a lovely morning bridge and luncheon given on Saturday by Mrs. Franklin Folger, Jr., and Miss Emalene Neaves at the home of the latter on Bridge street, Bridge was played from ten-thirty to o'clock at four tables in the reception suite where an arrange-ment of autumn leaves and chrysanthemums furnished a colorful

At one o'clock nine additional friends came in to join the bridge guests for the enjoyment of buffet luncheon. The table with cover of white satin, had for a centerpiece, a silver bowl filled with white chrysanthemums. At each end were white candles in silver holders. Candles were also used on the buffet.

Mrs. Edwin Harris, high scorer at bridge and Mrs. Raymond Chatham who drew the lucky number among the late arrivals,

Miss Chatham, bride-elect was given a silver vegetable dish and a table lamp. Mrs. Fields was giv-en a set of crystal goblets and a Chatham blanket, and Mrs. Hugh Chatham, bride of last month was Thomas Roth, Mrs. R. G. Smith, Mrs. Hubert Parker, Mrs. Carl Poindexter, Mrs. J. A. Booher, Mrs. Edwin Harris, Misses Josephine Paul, Norma Cawthon, Caroline Lillard, Thorburn Lillard, and Delaking Course the Church Sunday afternoon. lard and Delphine Crump, the latter of Winston-Salem.

Those coming in at the luncheon hour were Mesdames R. B. Harrell, H. P. Graham, Raymond Chatham, W. C. Cox, Misses Dorothy Halsey of Mouth-of-Wilson, Virginia, Janie Hall, Lucille Cox, Margaret Greenwood, Olivia Abernethy and Louise Grier.

"DAMAGED GOODS" TO BE SHOWN AT LYRIC

One of the season's most sensational pictures, "Damaged Goods," Phil Goldstone's brilliant screen production, based on the famous French play by Eugene Brieux, will have its local showing today only at the Lyric theatre.

Monsieur Brieux has written many plays, all of which have been translated into English, but none has the power, the vigor, the dramatic story of "Damaged Goods," which, as a play and as a "silent" movie, has been seen by millions on both sides of the

"Damaged Goods" tells a graphic story, replete with pathos and highly-pitched drama, placing before the public a number of important moral facts and driving them home with intense emotion

"Damaged Goods" was adapted by Upton Sinclair, a close friend of the noted playwright who au-Chatham wore one of her trous- thored the original play and, with seau gowns, a becoming red suit Brieux's special permission, wrote with collar of mink. Mrs. Fields the novelization of the play.

Not Trustful "Rastus, if you want to prosper in this world, you must go to The bridge guests were Miss bed with the chickens."

Frances Chatham and Mrs. J. "Yassar, I'se willin' to go to bed Cam Fields, honorees, Mrs. Alex wiff 'em, but de folks dat owns Chatham, Mrs. Hugh Chatham, chickens ain't sufficiently trust-Mrs. Richard Chatham, Mrs. ful."

COOL SPRING CHURCH

There will be a singing convention at Cool Springs Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, November 7, beginning at 2 o'clock. All sacred singers are invited to ing is expected to be a trio or prize.

quartet from Glen Hope Baptist church, Burlington. These singers may be heard each Sunday afternoon from 5:00 to 5:30 over station WBIG, Green

The public is cordially invited to attend the singing convention

Some men are born great while A special feature of the meet- others win a national contest

Isabella

TOOK A CHANCE TOO!

It was she who made Columbus' venture possible, by her whole hearted financial support.

Today, there are many business ventures being started . . . all needing the aid of sound financing and credit. If you are in this position, see us now for any advice you desire.

The Bank

Garland Johnson Vice-President

Where are They Now?

Here's a Memory Test ... Read the Following Words

PEARS SOAP

SWEET CAPORALS

PEARLINE

SAPOLIO SILK SOAP FORCE

EGG-O-SEE LION COFFEE

AGRI-COLA

RUBIFOAM

They do have familiar sound, well . . . they once represented millions of dollars of advertising. And now? Who can recall what they were? The product is as good as ever but the name is erased from the public mind.

Advertising Stopped -- Sales Ceased

Just so! Many merchants have ceased to exist and many others are on the road to oblivion simply because, in their own mind, they were . . .

"TOO WELL ESTABLISHED TO ADVERTISE"

Don't let a week go by without being sure that the name of your business is in The Elkin Tribune.

ADVERTISING IS THE DEW THAT FRESHENS TRADE

Let The Tribune Bring You That Needed Refreshment