Inspirational Meeting of Baptist W. M. U. Monday
The monthly inspirational meeting of the circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will be held at the church Monday afternoon at 3:30. The Emma Leechman circle will present the program. All members are invited to attend. The Sunbeam Band will meet at the church at the same hour.

Book Tea to Be Given by Woman's Club Friday, November 19
Members of the Woman's Club will sponsor a Book and Silver Tea Friday afternoon from three until five o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. C. Salmons on Church street. All women of the town are invited to attend whether or not they are members of the club. Those attending are asked to bring a book or a silver offering. The tea is in celebration of National Book Week and the books donated will be placed in the public library.

Miss White Is Guest of Honor at Party Saturday Evening
Honoring her sister, Miss Lala White, on her nineteenth birthday anniversary, Mrs. Paul Sprinkle entertained about twenty-five friends of the honoree at a delightful party at her home in North Elkin Saturday evening. During the evening games and contests were enjoyed. Attractive prizes were awarded Miss Bertice Bates and Cecil Seaver, the latter of Dobson. Late in the evening a tempting refreshment course was served.

Miss Cawthon is Hostess at Luncheon to Honor Miss Chatham
Miss Norma Cawthon entertained at a small luncheon Saturday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Roth, on West Main street, to honor Miss Frances Chatham, bride-elect. Covers were laid for twelve at three small tables arranged in the living room. Gorgeous white chrysanthemums were used in the decorations of the home and each table was centered with a small bouquet of the same flowers. Miss Chatham was presented a lovely gift as guest of honor.

Mrs. Reece is Hostess to Honor Kansas Visitor
Rev. and Mrs. D. G. Reece entertained at a family dinner at their home in Jonesville Sunday to honor Mrs. Reece's sister, Mrs. C. J. Angell of Plains, Kansas, who is on an extended visit here. The guest list included thirty-five members of the family. Dinner was served buffet style from a beautifully decorated table. Out-of-town guests in addition to the honoree were: Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wishon and family and family of Winston-Salem and Miss Ola Angell of Booneville.

Mrs. Duncan Fetes Miss Chatham at Dinner Thursday Evening
Mrs. Edwin Duncan of Sparta who is the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Wellborn on Bridge street, entertained at dinner at the home of her parents Tuesday evening at seven o'clock to honor Miss Frances Chatham, bride-elect. Talisman roses were used as a centerpiece for the dining room table, where covers were placed for fourteen. Yellow tapers were used on either end of the table. Yellow chrysanthemums were used elsewhere in the decorations of the home. A four-course dinner was served. Miss Chatham was given a lovely picture as guest of honor.

Miss Ratledge is Honored on Birthday Anniversary
Mrs. John Ratledge entertained at a delightful party at her home on Front street Tuesday evening from 7:30 to 10 o'clock to honor her daughter, Miss Sarah, on her fourteenth birthday anniversary. The home was decorated throughout with white chrysanthemums and pink tapers, carrying out a color scheme of white and pink. A number of games and contests furnished entertainment for the guests. Thirty-five schoolmates of Miss Ratledge were invited. Punch, cake and candies were served during the evening.

Mrs. Terrell Entertains Mission Circle
The Edith Adair circle of the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist church met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Jack Terrell at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Harris, on West Main street. Eleven members were present. One new member, Miss Lucy Myers was enrolled. Miss Agnes Gray was in charge of the devotionals and directed the program. Assisting in the program were: Misses Emma Cooke, Dorothy Hampton, Hazel Byrd, Lillian Tucker, Mary Jane Byrd and Mrs. Terrell. A salad course was served during a pleasant social hour.

Mrs. E. S. Spainhour is Hostess to Two-Four Club
Members of the Two-Four Club and two additional guests were entertained at a delightful bridge-luncheon Thursday when Mrs. E. S. Spainhour was hostess at her home on West Main street. Yellow chrysanthemums were used in profusion throughout the lower floor of the home. Upon the arrival of the guests luncheon was served and during the afternoon bridge was played. The club award for high score went to Mrs. J. R. Poindexter.

Mrs. Bivins is Hostess to D. A. R. Chapter Friday
Mrs. Joe Bivins entertained the Jonathan Hunt Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at her home on Gwyn Avenue Friday afternoon at the November meeting. In the absence of the regent, Mrs. Sam P. Wilson, Mrs. Edwin C. Duncan presided. The meeting opened with the R. A. R. ritual. At the business session it was decided that the regular December meeting would not be held this year. The program was given by Mrs. Wm. R. Wellborn, who led an instructive discussion on the Constitution of the United States. During a pleasant social hour a salad course, with Russian tea and pumpkin tarts, was served.

Bride and Bride-Elect Are Feted by Mrs. Graham
Another of the many social courtesies extended Mrs. Hugh Chatham, a recent bride, and Miss Frances Chatham, bride-elect, was the luncheon given Tuesday by Mrs. Hardin Graham at her home on Terrace Avenue. The home was lovely with decorations in all white. A beautifully appointed luncheon was served. When the guests assembled Mesdames R. G. Smith and Thomas Roth offered toasts to the honorees to which they graciously responded. Covers were placed for twelve. Each of the honor guests was presented a beautiful gift. Mrs. M. E. Motsinger and daughter, Miss Myrtle Motsinger of Winston-Salem were out-of-town guests.

Mesdames Hayes and Ashby Entertain at Bridge-Luncheon
One of the loveliest parties of the week was the bridge-luncheon given Friday by Mesdames Errol Hayes and Chas. G. Ashby, at the home of Mrs. Hayes on Church street. Autumn flowers and foliage made a pretty setting for the guests. Four tables were placed for bridge. Play begun at 10 o'clock and prizes for high and runner-up scores were awarded.

At one o'clock a tempting and beautifully appointed luncheon was served.

Those playing bridge were: Mesdames J. R. Poindexter, Marion Allen, C. L. Haywood, Jr., Paul Gwyn, Conrad Hock, Richard Chatham, Archie Lanier, James Booher, Raymond Chatham, R. M. Hudgins, R. C. Freeman, H. C. Graham, A. O. Bryan, R. B. Harrell, L. W. Laxton and Miss Maude Greenwood. Mrs. W. W. Whitaker and Mrs. E. F. McNeer were special guests for luncheon.

Mrs. Wellborn is Hostess to Book Club; Officers Elected
Members of the Thursday Book Club and several visitors were entertained at a delightful luncheon Thursday by Mrs. Wm. R. Wellborn at her home on Bridge street. The guests were invited for one o'clock and upon their arrival an attractively appointed luncheon was served. Talisman roses and yellow chrysanthemums and candles were used to decorate the living room and dining room.

At the business meeting of the club, which followed the luncheon, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. T. A. Leeper, president; Mrs. H. C. Salmons, vice-president, and Mrs. E. Carl Boyles, treasurer.

Members enjoying Mrs. Wellborn's hospitality were: Mesdames H. C. Salmons, George Royall, W. W. Whitaker, Mason Lillard, J. Mark McAdams, T. A. Leeper, E. Carl Boyles, Edworth Harris, J. P. Ipock, French Graham and J. G. Abernethy.

Additional guests were: Mesdames Eph Whisenhunt, Howard Hatch, Errol Hayes, E. G. Click and LeRoy Campbell.

Legion Auxiliary Meets Tuesday Evening
The November meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. H. Beeson on West Main street, with Mrs. Ruth Byrd Crater associate hostess, with twenty members present.

During the business hour plans were made for the dedication service to be held this morning (Thursday) from 10:45 until 11 o'clock when a tree planted in memory of Elkin's war dead will be dedicated on the high school grounds. Members of the families of the eight deceased veterans will have a part in the program. At the close of the services Mrs. H. B. Holcomb, chairman of Memorials, will decorate the graves of the veterans in Hollywood cemetery. Other routine matters were discussed. Mrs. George Royall, president of the unit, presided.

The program on Armistice Day was presented by Mrs. H. F. Laffoon and consisted of a reading "Another River" by Mrs. Joe Bivins, and the singing of war songs in unison by the members. Refreshments were served at the close of the program.

Miss Chatham is Honoree at Party in Winston-Salem Wednesday

Miss Frances Chatham, bride-elect of the fall, who has been extensively feted since the announcement of her engagement and approaching marriage several weeks ago, was honored at a bridge-luncheon at the home of Miss Delphine Crump on Beuna Vista Road, Winston-Salem, Wednesday.

White, yellow and bronze chrysanthemums were used in the decorations of the home. Bridge was played at two tables. Miss Myrtle Motsinger of Winston-Salem won the high score award at bridge and was presented book ends. Miss Chatham was given a lovely gift.

Several additional guests came in for luncheon. Those from here attending were: Miss Chatham, honoree, Mrs. Alex Chatham, mother of the bride-elect, Mesdames Paul Gwyn, Franklin Folger, Thomas Roth, Hugh Chatham, Raymond Chatham, Mason Lillard, C. C. Poindexter and Misses Thorburn and Carolyn Lillard.
