Hayward, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Gwyn.

Book Tea by Woman's Club to Celebrate Book Week

In appreciation for the generous response from the public to the call for books and money for the public library, sponsored by the Elkin Woman's Club and in celebration of National Book Week, the Woman's Club is holding a book and silver tea Friday afternoon, November 19, from three until five o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. S. Spainhour on West Main street. All women of the town, whether or not they are members of the club, are cordially invited to attend. Those desiring are asked to bring a book or a silver offering if they have not already contributed to the library.

Miss Cox Fetes Bride and Bride-Elect Wednesday

Another of the delightful social courtesies which have been extended Mrs. Hugh Chatham, a recent bride, and Miss Frances Chatham, bride-elect, was the luncheon Wednesday, given by Miss Lucille Cox, at her home on Gwyn Avenue. The luncheon was served from four card tables arranged in the living room. Each table was centered with a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Covers were placed for sixteen.

Mrs. Chatham was presented a modernistic vase and Miss Chatham was given a candy jar. Miss Myrtle Mottsinger of Winston-Salem, was the only out-of-town guest.

Mrs. Booher Honors Mother at Party Tuesday

Honoring her mother, Mrs. Munsey Slack, of Bristol, Tenn., Mrs. James Booher entertained at a delightful bridge party at her home on Gwyn Avenue Tuesday afternoon. Bridge was played at three tables. Autumn flowers were attractively arranged throughout the reception rooms. In the progressions Mrs. Franklin Folger received the high score award. Mrs. Slack, guest of honor, and Mrs. Hugh Chatham, a recent bride, were each given remembrances.

A beautifully appointed collation in two courses was served late in the afternoon.

Sunday School Class Meets with Mrs. Darnell

The Dorcas Class of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Oscar Darnell in Arlington Tuesday evening, with 23 members present. The meeting opened with the hymn, "Come, Thou Almighty King," followed by the scripture reading by Mrs. Darnell and prayer by Mrs. George Adams.

Mrs. Fred Eldson, class president, presided over the business meeting. Routine reports were heard, after which plans were made for the annual Christmas party.

The closing prayer was by Miss Estelle Cockerham.

Refreshments were served during a social hour.

Miss Price is Hostess at Formal Dance to Honor Miss Chatham

Miss Virginia Price was hostess at a formal dance in the ballroom at Hotel Elkin Tuesday evening to honor Miss Frances Chatham, bride-elect of next month. The guests were greeted at the entrance and presented to the receiving line which was composed of Miss Price, Miss Chatham, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Chatham, parents of the bride-elect, Mrs. Raymond Chatham and Mrs. Paul Gwyn. The ballroom was effectively decorated with autumn flowers and foliage, evergreens and crimson berries.

Approximately sixty-five guests enjoyed the delightful event.

Miss Myrtle Mottsinger of Winston-Salem was an out-of-town guest.

Miss Royall is Hostess at Bingo Party Friday Evening

Miss Peggy Royall was hostess to about forty girls and boys of the younger high school set at a delightful bingo party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Royall on Church street, Friday evening from eight until ten o'clock.

Miscellaneous prizes were awarded during the evening and the major prizes in the games went to Misses Eleanor Hayes, Nan Johnson and Helen Hayes and Graham Zachery.

The "Big Apple" was also a feature of the entertainment for the guests.

Sandwiches and punch were served during the evening. The home was decorated throughout with huge bowls of chrysanthemums in varied colors.

Miss Gainer Marries William E. Davis

Announcement has been made of the marriage Saturday of Miss Ethel Smoak Gainer, of Statesville, to William Edward Davis of this city. The ceremony was solemnized in Independence, Va., with Rev. L. D. Mayberry, pastor of the Methodist church of Independence, officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gainer, of Statesville. The bridegroom is a son of C. H. Davis of this city, and the late Mrs. Davis, and holds a position with the Chatham Manufacturing company.

For the ceremony the bride wore a modish green suit with harmonizing accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are at home temporarily with the bridegroom's father.

Mrs. Spainhour Is Hostess to Bridge Club

Mrs. E. S. Spainhour entertained members of her bridge club and two additional guests at a charming bridge luncheon at her home on West Main street Thursday. Luncheon was served at one o'clock. Lovely chrysanthemums were used throughout the lower floor of the home.

During the afternoon bridge was played at two tables. The club award for high score went to Mrs. C. C. Poindexter and Mrs. M. E. Mottsinger of Winston-Salem and Mrs. G. W. Eckert of Hollywood, California, out-of-town guests, were each given an attractive remembrance.

Members playing were: Mrs. A.

O. Bryan, Mrs. Thomas Roth, Mrs. H. C. Graham, Mrs. Raymond Chatham and Mrs. C. C. Poindexter.

Mrs. Salmons is Honoree at Luncheon Friday

Honoring her mother, Mrs. Fannie Salmons, Mrs. T. W. Church entertained at an enjoyable luncheon at her home on Gwyn Avenue Friday at one o'clock. The Thanksgiving motif predominated in the decorations of the home. Autumn leaves, fruits and flowers made a pretty centerpiece for the table, where covers were placed for sixteen.

A course luncheon was served.

Guests were Mrs. Salmons, honoree, Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, Mrs. J. S. Atkinson, Mrs. R. L. Poindexter, Mrs. R. P. Crater, Mrs. H. C. Salmons, Mrs. Wm. A. Jenkins, Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt, Mrs. C. N. ## Mrs. Parks Honors Bride and Bride-Elect at Party Thursday

One of the loveliest of the many parties to honor Mrs. Hugh Chatham, a recent bride, and Miss Frances Chatham, bride-elect of early December, was the luncheon given Thursday at one o'clock by Mrs. Hugh Parks at her home on Circle Court. Covers were placed for twelve at the beautifully appointed table which had for a centerpiece a bouquet of white rose buds and baby's breath. White tapers were used on either end of the table. A color scheme of green and white was carried out in detail in the appointments.

Each of the honorees was presented a lovely gift.

Guests were Mrs. Chatham and Miss Chatham, guests of honor, Mrs. Edwin Harris, Mrs. Richard Chatham, Mrs. Thomas Roth, Mrs. Franklin Folger, Miss Thornburn Lillard, Mrs. A. O. Bryan, Mrs. H. D. Hoskins, Mrs. Clyde Eller, Mrs. R. B. Harrell and Miss Myrtle Mottsinger, the latter of Winston-Salem.

Baptist W. M. U. in General Meeting

The general meeting of the circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church met at the church Monday afternoon, with 29 members and two visitors present.

Mrs. F. M. Norman presided over the business meeting. Plans were made for the observance of Week of Prayer for the Lottie Moon Christmas offering on the first Monday in December, at the church. The observance will be held in the afternoon. The following Friday an all-day service will be held for the world-prayer service. All circles and auxiliaries of the union will participate in the service.

A nominating committee, composed of Mrs. C. N. Myers, Mrs. I. C. Yates and Mrs. T. G. Harris was selected to nominate officers for the coming year.

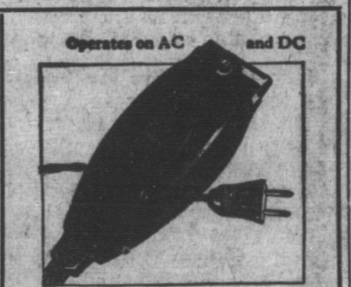

The Emma Leechman circle, under the direction of Mrs. David Brendle, presented the program. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. T. W. Church and Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt. Assisting in the program were: Mesdames F. M. Norman, E. C. James, John Gilliam and Miss Ella Cockerham.

Mesdames Campbell and Lanier are Hostesses at Two Parties

Prominent among the social affairs of the week were the two parties given Friday by Mesdames Leroy Campbell and Archie Lanier at the home of Mrs. Campbell on Gwyn Avenue.

The first party was a bridge-luncheon at one o'clock. Decorations and appointments suggestive of the Thanksgiving season were used throughout the home. Six tables were arranged for bridge. Scoring honors went to Mrs. Edwin Harris and the traveling prize to Mrs. Marion Allen. Mrs. Hugh Chatham, a recent bride, was given a lovely gift.

Guests for the luncheon were: Mesdames Richard Chatham, Hugh Chatham, Fred Rash, Jimmy Boher, R. M. Hudgins, Conrad Hock, J. R. Poindexter, Earl M. Hodel, C. C. Poindexter, Chas. G. Ashby, Franklin Folger, Hubert Parker, W. B. Lankford, Claude Farrell, Edwin Harris, H.

PLEASANT HILL

There was a record-breaking attendance of 315 at Sunday school Sunday. The pastor promised to sing a solo when the attendance reached 300. He will sing at the eleven o'clock service on the fourth Sunday in this month. The meeting time has been changed for this month from the third to the fourth Sunday on account of the revival at Cool Springs.

Special music at Sunday school was provided by the Sunshine quartet and the primary department.

The deacons of the Pleasant Hill church held a meeting at the church Sunday afternoon. At the conclusion of the meeting, the young girls' Sunday school class and their teacher, Miss Vermell Money served a very appetizing and beautifully arranged lunch to the deacons and the pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Adams and daughter, Jessie Lee, were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Day.

Mrs. Mary Holcomb and daughter, Gloria Dean, of Mooresville, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Gilliam Sunday. Mrs. Holcomb and daughter also attended Sunday school at our church Sunday.

The Sunshine quartet sang at the home of Mr. Hilton Settle in Wilkesboro, N. C. on Sunday afternoon.
