

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY CAPITAL

Dobson, Nov. 15. — James J. Draughn of the Dobson vicinity died Wednesday of pneumonia. Funeral service was held in the Salem Baptist church, by Revs. Crissman and Draughn and his body was laid to rest in the church cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Folger and boys, Lon Jr. and Jack and Mrs. Emma Mock attended the Carolina-Duke game in Durham Saturday.

Dr. Brooks Freeman and family of Randleman spent Sunday with Mrs. Maude Freeman.

Mrs. Daisy Norman, Mrs. Blanche Norman and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Vinson Swanson in Pilot Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Sparger and daughter, Margaret spent Sunday with Mrs. Sparger's sister, Mrs. Cook at Westfield.

Presiding Elder Lambeth, of Winston-Salem, preached to a large crowd in the Methodist church Sunday evening. He spoke from the text, "Be Still and Know That I Am God." After the sermon a conference was held.

Mrs. Ada Greene of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. A. M. Davis of Winston-Salem, sisters of W. L. Reece, were visitors in the Reece home for a few days the past week.

Mr. R. C. Lewelyn, Miss Eva Hancock and Miss Verdy Jackson spent Friday afternoon in Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Pugh of Prosperity, S. C., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. E. Hancock.

Mrs. J. W. Comer and boys, John and Bobbie, Miss Emma Comer, Miss Edythe Reece and Mrs. C. G. Comer motored to Hillsville, Va., Sunday afternoon.

Miss Eva Collins of Winston-Salem, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Collins.

Ten boys of the CCC camp were transferred to the camp at Danbury last week.

A civil term of court convenes this morning with Judge Clement presiding. This will be a two weeks term.

Miss Edythe Reece was hostess at a dinner-bridge Saturday evening. Covers were laid for twenty guests and a four-course dinner was served. An arrangement of chrysanthemums and fall daisies made an attractive background for 3 tables of bridge and 2 of fiddle-sticks. The theme and center piece for each table were suggestive of the Thanksgiving season, with vases of small yellow flowers, surrounded by turnips and candied fruits and vegetables. The high score bridge prize was won by Mrs. J. W. Crawford, while consolation, Yardley's talem, went to Miss Margaret Alexander. The fiddle-sticks high score award, Yardley's dusting powder, was won by Mrs. F. P. Riggs, and consolation, Yardley's talem, by Mrs. Elizabeth Bolick. Men's prizes, Lenthier men's lotion, was won by Mr. J. T. Threatte and men's talem to Attorney Frank Freeman.

Those sharing Miss Reece's hospitality were: Misses Margaret Alexander, Mary Coble, Corrye Shores, Emma Comer, Mesdames Dr. Joe Folger, B. F. Folger, Dr. P. B. Folger, J. W. Crawford, A. P. Cobb, C. G. Comer, J. W. Comer, Edwin Reid, F. W. Riggs, P. G. Bolick, Howard Snow, W. E. Reid, Frank Freeman, T. L. Robinson, Attorney Frank Freeman and Mr. J. T. Threatte.

UNCLE NATCHEL BACK IN NEW RADIO SERIES

Local radio fans will welcome the return to the air next week of Uncle Natchel and Sonny, the two stars of the Natural Chilean Nitrate of Soda program. The Natural Chilean folks have announced that these two favorites are resuming broadcasts, beginning Saturday, November 20th and Sunday, November 21st on important Southern stations.

The role of Uncle Natchel, wise old colored philosopher and leading character in the series of broadcasts will be played by Frank Wilson who is well known as a radio entertainer and as a stage and film star. He gained considerable renown for his performance as Moses in the stage and film version of Green Pastures. Wilson's characterization of Uncle Natchel in a series of fifty-two broadcasts for the Chilean folks last season, added to his laurels.

Sonny Miller, the young white charge of kindly old Uncle Natchel in the program will be played by Eddie Ryan, Jr., a talented twelve-year-old actor from Virginia who has made a number of stage appearances in New York and is now playing in "French Without Tears" on Broadway. He has appeared with Katherine Cornell, Helen Hayes and other stars, and has been a part of the "Easy Aces," "Dreams of Long Ago" and other coast-to-coast radio programs.

With the two featured players on the Uncle Natchel program will be a group of Southern singers, whose numbers will consist largely of old songs of the South collected and arranged by Ethel Park Richardson, the author of the sketches. An orchestra of eleven pieces will provide the instrumental features of the program. Artels Dixon, a native of Greenwood, La., who has been identified with such radio successes as "Erer Rabbit Stories of Joel Chandler Harris," the "Rudy Valley" program, "Show Boat," "Roses and Drums" and many others, has been engaged by the Natural Nitrate folks to be the announcer.

Signs

Mother — "Why ever are you sitting there when you ought to be in bed?"

Peter — "There's a mosquito in my room."

Mother — "It hasn't bitten you, has it, darling?"

Peter — "No, but it came close enough for me to hear its propper."

Veracity

Judge — What is the defendant's reputation for veracity?

Witness — Excellent, your honor. I've known him to admit that he'd been fishing all day and hadn't got a single bite.

Sale of Land For County Taxes, 1936

As directed by law and in compliance with the same, I, as Sheriff of Surry county, will on in default of the taxes mentioned below, upon several lots and parcels of land, wherein the same is due, expose to sale at public auction at the courthouse door in Dobson, State of North Carolina, sale beginning at 11 a. m., to the person or persons, who with ready money pay the taxes together with the penalty provided by law, and the costs.

Monday, December 6, 1937

This November 1, 1937.

B. F. FOLGER,

12-2 Tax Collector.
